MARKET ANXIOUS AGAIN

Fears Over Anti-Trust Proceedings Reappear on Exchange.

ANOTHER BREAK IN COPPER

Selling Sufficiently Concentrated to Give the Impression of Coming from Important Sources—Partly Attributed to Capitalists.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The stock market suffered today from a recurrence of anxiety over the anti-trust law and also from the satisfaction of a considerable part of the demand from the outstanding short interest built up in the week's break in prices.

The renewed break in the copper stocks caused another of the sudden changes of opinion over the chances for the proposed copper merger, which have kept the stock market unsettled all through the week. The selling was sufficiently concentrated and aggressive to give the impression of coming from important sources.

Some of the large selling was attributed to the wealthy capitalists of a speculative habit who are connected with the great corporation immediately aimed at in the government suit under the Sherman laws. This suspicion of the source of the selling emphasized the apprehension over the results to follow from the anti-trust prosecutions in their larger bearings on the general position of corporations. Reading and the Pacific railroad stocks shared in the weakness of the copper and determined the tone of the market.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $2,500,000. United States registered declined ¼ and the coupon ½ per cent in the bid price on call during the week. Total sales today 612,000 shares, including: Copper, 145,000; Sugar, 200;
