MARKET IS UNSTEADY

Wavering Fluctuation of Prices Marks Closing Hour.

SOME SUDDEN REBOUNDS

Union Pacific and Reading Indicate the Subsidence of Pressure of Liquidation and Prompts More General Demand—Some Feeling of Relief.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, June 4.—The closing up of the week in the stock market gave evidence of the extent to which the bear position has become extended in the course of the headlong downward plunge of prices. The usual disposition was manifest to close up contracts with the end of the week. The demands thus developed from the uncovered bear operators constituted a sustaining power. Sudden and violent rebounds, from rapid declines in one or two stocks—Union Pacific and Reading—indicated the subsidence of the pressure of liquidation and prompted to a more general demand. There was a feeling of relief from some of the more hysterical forms of alarm which were an influence indiscriminate by throwing over of stocks yesterday. The decrease in the activity in the dealings at the higher levels was a notable feature which is regarded as indicative of uncertainty still remaining in speculative sentiment. The market closed with a rather wavering fluctuation of prices in progress.

The contest between the government authorities and the railroads over the question of increasing freight rates kept up its dominant interest. The report that a conference was to take place next week between President Taft and the railroad executives had some effect of inducing a suspension of influence of the subject, but this did not extend beyond a desire to await further developments.

The passage through the senate of the railroad bill was not regarded as more than a step towards the settlement of a question which is expected to continue an unsettling influence in the market until it is out of the way. The decrease of nearly 12,000 cars in the net surplus of freight cars in two weeks to May 25, reported by the American Railway Association, was an encouraging factor.

The bond statement revealed but slight effect on the loan item as a result of the week's heavy liquidation in stocks, but there was an unexpected decrease of over $4,000,000 in actual cash holdings.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,000,975. United States 2s have declined 1/4 per cent in the bid price on calls in last week. BOARDER KILLS LANDLORD.

West Virginia Man Becomes Jealous of Attention to Wife. (By Associated Press.) BLUEFIELD, W. VA., June 4.—At Welsh, W. Va., last night, Robert Faulkner shot Joseph Brear in the latter's home. Faulkner was a boarder in the Brear home and it is alleged had been paying attention to Brear's wife.

When Brear ordered him out of the house he is said not to have heeded the command and Brear rushed towards him with a butcher knife. His wife went between the two men and Faulkner drew a revolver and fired six shots into his victim's body. Faulkner surrendered and is in jail. The dead man was chief engineer for an ice company.
