Lectures in Brownville,

Have become one of the "fixed institu- very much desired. tions." They are the most interesting feature of our City this Winter. We have listened to several courses of Lectures delivered during the Winter months, to various Literary Associations in the Last; but never any superior to the present course in Brownville, so far as they have yet been delivered. For rhetorical excellence, sound logic, and profound philosophy, they would have done honor to any Literary Association in the "Athens of America."

The lecture last Thursday evening, by Judge HEWETT was fully equal to any that had preceeded it. The subject was, Manfest Destiny of the United States. His premises were, "That by a careful study of the events of history-connected as they are in an unbroken chain of cause and effect-and the circcumstances of the present condition of nations, we can trace with probable certainty the career and destiny which awaits them."-He believed "Our Manifest Destiny to be one of Social, Civil and Religious Im provement." The race produced in this country-springing from a mixture of the best blood of all nations-would be as superior to the pure Anglo-Saxon, as the Saxon was superior to the Celt.

We have not space to give a complete synopsis of the discourse. Much of was devoted to Intellectual Philosophy a comparason of the moral, intellectual and Asthetic condition of the Americans with the Greeks and Romans; and to the character of the present politicians of this country. He did not think the Union would be dissolved. "We had not yet accomplished our mission. We were the light and hope of the World. Providence had not raised up this nation and committed so many vital interests to its care, to leave it to be precipitated to immedia teruin."

U. C. Jourson lectures this (Thursday) evening, on "The Historian, the Statesman, and the Divine."

S. W. Hazeltine & Co., 171, Walnut Street, first door below Gibson House, CINCINNATI,

The public are now respectfully informed that the undersigned have procured from Cincinnati and put in operation one of Homer & Co.'s flour mills of the latest patent, and the first brought to this Territory. They were induced to exchange their former mill and reviews of Patent operations in Europe, and such for this one, from the high character they have gainother Foreign matter as may be interesting to its read- ed in the east, and from the personal testimony of A. > In addition to their flour mill they will keep the Corn Mill constantly running, ready at all times to accommodate the farmers without detention, and by giving their undivided apprintendence to the business (assisted by their former miller, Mr. Wells,) they hope for the continuance and increased patronage of Assorted Lumber, Shingles and Latheonstantly on Peru Mills, Sipt. 1st, 1859. GREEN & MARTIN.

I shall publish the Haily Globe, and the Congressional Globe, and Appendix during the next session of Congres. The Daily Globe will contain a report of the debates in both branches of Congress, as taken down by reporters, equal at least, to any corps of short hand writers in this or any other country. When the devates of the day do not make more than forty-five columns, they shall appear in the Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as passing events suggest.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix, will contain a report of all the debates in Confress, revised by the Speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual reports of the heads of the Executive Departments, the Reports of com-mittees of Gongress on important subjects of gen-oral interest, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. These will be printed on a double royal sheet in book form, royal quarte size, each number containing sixteen pages, averaging 2,397 words per page. The whole will make between 1,700 and 2,000 pages. It is believed that no book has ever bean published at so low a tale, Last year I advertised in the Daily Globe for six months, and in about one hundred other newspapers in the United States, a reward to any person of two hundred and forty-five dollars, who would produce a book published at so low a rate, and none was produced. The large number of copies subscribed for by Congress enables me to afford the debates to subscribers so cheap.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix pass free through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following joint resolution pas-sed by Congress August 6, 1852: Joint Resolution Providing for the Distibution of the Laws of Congress and the Debates Thereon: With a view to the Theap circulation of the laws of Congress, and the debates contibuting to the true interpretation thereof, and to make free communi- NEMAHA cation between the representative and constituent

Those who publish should sand their papers containing it to me, marked with a pen, to direct attention to it. The Congressional Globe and Appendix will be stereotyped, and there-fore, I shall be able to send the back numbers for eived, I shall charge one dollar additional per copy to pay the expense of putting the plates on the press. With Biographical Sketches of Eminent Divines, by Samuel M. Smucker, LL. D. Published by Juane Rulison, Quaker City Publishing House, 33, outh Third Street, Philadelphia. The subject of Religion and the Doctrines of sects aust always have an absorbing interest for the houghtful observer, and a work which affords the sired information, in a convenient and accessible orm, at a moderate price, has been urgently demanded, and will be sought for with avidity, and must ommand a large sale. In the present work, the origin, developement, loctrinal belief, Church Government and peculiarities of over eighty different religious sects, are treated in a style clear, compendious and accurate, and will afford all the information which might be proared with great difficulty and expense, and much abor and research, from the larger polemical works Dr. Smucker has evidently prepared this work with much care, and it exhibits great ability and learning. The articles on the different religious are very impartially written, and show the careful study f an unprejudiced and sound mind; and the imortance and value cannot be too highly estimated such superior and unbiassed effort in a work of his kind, as too often, those pretending to give coret information upon such subjects are prejudiced n favor of some particular sects or denominations. Mr. Rulison has brought out this great work in a ery handsome form, and the public is indebted to im for a very valuable, instructive and useful book. The price, $1,00, is remarkably low for such a work and in order that it may have a rapid and extensive circulation, he will send it to any address, accompanied with a valuable Gift, on the receipt of the price and twenty-five cents to pay postage.

Mr. Rulison will send free, on application, his new enlarged and revised Catalogue of Books and Gifts, containing all information relative to the establish Quaker City Publishing House, 33, South Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
