WOULD MAKE GUILTY MAN EAT STOLEN JELLY WITHOUT BREAD

Several buckets of jelly, valued at $14, were stolen Monday from Toney Shieley at No. 322 Plum street. The Central District Police are undecided what the punishment in such a case should be. One policeman favors making the thief, when he is caught, eat the jelly. "Would you give him any bread to go with it?" asked another policeman. "Bread, well I should say not. He should eat it with his hands," was the reply. The stolen jelly has not been recovered. If it is and is taken to the Four Courts, as is the case with most stolen property, a watch will have to be kept on it, as several of Captain Reynolds' men are known to have a taste for jelly.

FROM PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE TO JANITOR OF CLOAKROOM

William L. Scott of East St. Louis Attends to Hats and Wraps of Democratic Members of Illinois Legislature—Erstwhile Opponent of Roosevelt and Parker on a Ticket of Color Has a Tale of Woe as to How He Was Eliminated From the Campaign as a Presidential Possibility.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 10.—From candidate for President of the United States to janitor of the cloakroom of the Illinois House of Representatives is a far cry, but the presumably great drop in fortune does not affect the personal feelings of one William L. Scott of East St. Louis, St. Clair County, Ill. For about thirty days Scott was up in the class with Theodore Roosevelt, Alton B. Parker, Elias H. Sealover and Thomas Watson, and until the East St. Louis police officials looked into the record of his past he lived in this high plane. One day, about for political reasons, he threw them into jail on the charge of running a school, where the character of his customers was a matter of minor importance to the proprietor. For nine days he lay in duress, and when he was released his name had been stricken from the high estate to which he had risen.

Scott, who, by the way, is a gentleman of color, has had a bitter experience, if his own tale of woe is correct. His principal occupation at the present time is the task of seeing that each of the Democratic Representatives finds the proper hook for his hat and coat, and when the session closed it is his particular duty to extend the door to the departure of these same gentlemen. During the dreary monotony of roll calls he has time to reflect upon the past, and in one of these moments of reminiscence the former presidential candidate became his own tale of woe.

Scott is without a fair on his head, and if there were such a thing as a black ball, he would be a straggler in the crowd. He is a man of color, and his tale of woe is a tale of woe. He is a man of color, and his tale of woe is a tale of woe.

REPUBLICAN PRESIDES OVER DEMOCRATIC SENATE.

Indications Are There Will Be Little Friction of Partisan Nature in the Body at This Session.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 10.—This was the first day's session of a Democratic Senate in Missouri presided over by a Republican Lieutenant Governor. Governor McKimley is a broad-minded, good-natured gentleman, and the indications are that there will be little friction of a partisan nature in the Senate. He and the members of the Senate have declared for reciprocal good will and good work.

A petition was read from the members of a ministerial association. In session at Auxvasse, asking for the repeal of the brewers' law.

Senator Walker offered a resolution that a committee of three be appointed to ascertain the number of clerks required, and to report thereon to the Senate.

Senator Buchanan introduced a bill providing that when a boy shall be sent to the training school for boys, the costs of his maintenance shall be paid by the State instead of by the county. It is said to be a fact that often a jury will fail to convict a boy because they are unwilling to impose the burden of his maintenance.

Senator Clark introduced a bill to regulate telephone rates in cities of 10,000 population.

Senator Vories does not think that the punishment as now provided by law for the man who abandons his wife or child is sufficient, and he introduced a bill increasing the punishment for this offense. He also introduced a bill to amend the law of fraudulent conveyance. His first bill provides for the cancellation of a chattel mortgage after its payment, and he introduced a bill to amend the law of fraudulent conveyance.

SEMINCONSCIOUS MAN PICKED UP IN SNOW.

L. C. Tolson, City Clerk of Fayette, Mo., Hurt by Fall on Slippery Pavement.

A man who says he is L. C. Tolson, City Clerk of Fayette, Mo., was found yesterday afternoon lying in a semiconscious condition in the snow on Twelfth street near the Hotel Jefferson, by Chief Desmond and Kieley while they were returning to the Four Courts in a patrol wagon.

Tolson was taken to the City Hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a contusion over the right eye. He was revived, and said that he had fallen on the slippery pavement. He said he came to St. Louis on a visit and was staying with his wife at 220 Calumet avenue.

Mrs. Tolson, when seen last night at the home of C. H. Miller on Calumet avenue, said that she was in the city on a visit and did not know her husband was in St. Louis. She had not been with him for some time.

Tolson left Fayette Monday to accept a position with the St. Louis Hardware Company of St. Louis. His father is a prominent resident of Fayette and an applicant for the position of State Auditor.

The police were at first inclined to believe that Tolson had been the victim of a hold-up, but his statement and the fact that he had several dollars in silver and a number of letters addressed to himself caused them to abandon the theory. The man's injuries are slight.

SUES THE CITY FOR DAMAGES.

Plaintiff Says He Was Improperly Cared For in Asylum.

Samuel D. Lawther filed suit in the Circuit Court yesterday against the city, H. S. Atkins, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of New York. The suit is for damages for alleged negligence in the care of the plaintiff while in the asylum, and also in the Missouri Hospital for the Insane near Farmington, Mo.

He alleges that Atkins refused to allow him to communicate with his friends and attorney, and that he was not properly cared for and did not have sufficient clothing and that Atkins refused to send for his clothing.

SUIT INVOLVING MILLIONS ARGUED

Judge Adams of U. S. Court of Appeals Will Decide Burnes Case, Brought to Force Restitution.

The famous Burnes case, involving $400,000, which has been pending in the United States Court of Appeals for three months, was argued yesterday before Judge Elmer B. Adams and submitted for decision.

In 1902 Francis B. Burnes and others brought suit in the Federal Court at St. Joseph, Mo., against L. C. Burnes, his brother, and four sisters, to force the restitution of 579 shares, valued at nearly $500,000, which they alleged L. C. Burnes had taken from the Burnes estate, a corporation formed in 1880, and appropriated to his own use.

A decree favorable to the complainants was rendered by the court, and the case was sent to the United States Court of Appeals at St. Louis. The heirs of James N. Burnes, one of three brothers who had kept their estate together since 1867, alleged that the object of the withdrawal of the shares by L. C. Burnes was their exclusion from the proceeds of the estate. The case was argued by Attorney S. S. Brown, M. A. Lew and F. W. Lehmann for the complainants, and O. M. Spencer and Frank Haskaman for the defendants. A decree in the case is expected during the May term of the appellate court.

CATARH

Gentlemen—I wrote you some time ago giving you an account of my sufferings with a case of Catarrh. I had all the symptoms that accompany this disease, such as mucus dropping in the throat, a constant desire to hawk and spit, feeling of dryness in the throat, cough and spitting upon rising in the morning, scabs forming in the nose, which required much effort to blow out; sometimes causing the nose to bleed and leaving me with a sick headache. I had thus suffered for five years. As soon as I heard from you, I commenced to take S. S. S. as you advised, and after I had taken three large bottles, I noticed a change for the better. Thus encouraged, I continued to take it, and in a short while was entirely cured.

222 Randolph St., Richmond, Va. J. D. BELLUM.

If winter is to be dreaded for its snows, icy, cutting winds and damp, unpleasant weather, it is more to be dreaded because it brings with it the most annoying and disgusting of diseases—CATARRH. The changed condition of the weather brings on "bad colds" which irritate the inner skin and tissues, and they secrete an unhealthy matter that is absorbed by the blood and scattered all through the system in its circulation, and at the first sign of winter the patient begins to "hawk and spit." All the mucus membranes and tissues of the body are affected by this disease, and the filthy, poisonous matter finds its way to every part of the body, making the sufferer dull and half sick all the time. The head and eyes have blinding aches, the stomach bloats, the hearing is often affected and in its worse forms the soft bones of the nose and head are destroyed. Local applications such as sprays, washes and inhalations can do no more than give temporary relief, because the blood is constantly circulating through the system loaded with these filthy catarrhal poisons, and it must be purified and cleansed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Catarrh by its invigorating, purifying action on the blood, and the catarrhal poisons are carried off through the proper channels. S. S. S. makes the blood rich and strong, and as it circulates through the system it carries healthful properties to the organs and tender tissues, the unhealthy secretions cease, and the whole system is renewed and built up by it. Don't let a "bad cold" become chronic Catarrh, but at the first symptom begin the use of S. S. S. and fortify the system against it. Our book on The Blood will be mailed free, and our physicians will give special advice to all catarrh sufferers who write, without charge.
