ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

To-night the theater patrons of New Haven will have a rare opportunity to enjoy a performance which, it may be said, is without its kind on the American boards to-day. "Moses and Son" is a comedy which deals in American-Hebraic life. The treatment of the subject is far away from the lines in which comedy has been known on our boards for some half dozen or more years past. The peripatetic stage-Jew not in evidence, Solomon Moses, is a sharp, bright, clean-cut lawyer, with all the peculiarities of his profession, coupled with the keenness of the Hebrew race. He is a jolly, open-hearted, sporty old gentleman, who in the endeavor of saving his son from a mes-alliance with the sottish of a farce comedy company, manages to get himself into all sorts of precarious and ludicrous situations. While he eventually succeeds in his enterprise, he is in an unbroken series of troubles throughout the three acts. Carrie Turner will appear in "The Crust of Society" on Monday evening next. Edgar L. Davenport and Eugene Ormonde, both of the Carrie Turner company, are two of the most promising young leading men on the American stage. Robert Hilliard will be seen in "The Nomine" on Wednesday evening, November 28. Sale of seats opens Monday.

The Thanksgiving attraction, afternoon and evening, Thursday next, will be "Rice's Surprise Party." Sale of seats now open.

Grand Opera House. "Young Mrs. Winthrop" was again presented before a large audience last evening and by a remarkably good company of players. The play is too well known to call for lengthy comment, sufficient it is to say that it is one of the best comedies that have been presented in this city this season. The cast is exceptionally good in all particulars, Mrs. Dunbar and Miss Lansing Rowan being the stellar attractions in the cast. Miss Una Abell, Miss Lillian Schove-Hin and Miss Marinet all repeated their success of the night before. The play will be repeated again this afternoon and evening and if the large advance sale of seats is any indication, there are to be large audiences again at both performances to-day. The new stage setting painted by Blakelee was used yesterday for the first time. The Fay Foster Burlesque company comes the first three days next week. "In the Tenderloin" will be the Thanksgiving attraction at the Grand Opera house on Thursday evening for one night and a matinee only. Tom Gould, the ex-diver-keeper, is with this company, also George Appo, the famous Lexow committee witness. "The White Squadron" will sail into port on Friday next and cast anchor at the Grand Opera house for two days and Saturday matinee.

Poll's Wonderland Theater. Crowded houses at Wonderland to see Miss Eddy, a former resident of New Haven, and her truly wonderful somersaulting and leaping. Scarcely less enthusiastic is the reception tendered to the musical Crescendos, who extract such beautiful melody from all sorts of things. Others in the big show are Richie Foy and the Veder sisters, Thompson and Collins, Miss Armour, Hughes and Farren, Ford and Francis, and William DeBoe. For next week a great attraction has been secured in the wonderful protean sketch artists, Leclair and Leslie. Harry Leclair is known all over the world as one of the most remarkable and versatile character portrayers. The whole is embodied in a sketch entitled, "Cleopatra Up to Date." Higgins and Leslie, Goldie and St. Clair, Rita Durand, the Glass brothers, Little Goldie, Koffee and Hill, and several other star attractions, will also appear, making an entertainment in keeping with the reputation of the Wonderland for superior excellence.

WALLINGFORD. The action taken at the annual board meeting which requires that the next annual report of the board of burgesses shall be an itemized report in every sense of the word, causes much discussion, and very few who voted for the same really comprehend the matter as they should, and do not realize what an unnecessary expense it will put on the borough and taxpayer. To make out a complete itemized report as voted will make a book of portentous size, one man claims, as big as Webster's Unabridged dictionary, and would cost at least $300. The itemized bills as presented to the board must be printed in full, even to the minutest details, together with the signed receipt of the receiver. The bills of M. E. Cook for work on the highways are quite voluminous, and occupy some times a full sheet of foolcap with the details. Every time a bill of sundries from the fire department or other sources for a broom, paper of tax, box of matches or other such articles which may not foot up, all told, over a dollar, the whole business together with receipts must be printed in full in the reports. The action is like others in the past, at various times, seems very foolish and shows a lack of trust in the honesty and integrity of the men who have been selected by the people as burgesses to transact the business of the borough, and without compensation at that.

The new board of burgesses will meet this evening for organization. The Locust club is booked to play football to-day with the Silver City's in Meriden.

A big delegation from here will take in the Yale-Harvard football game in Springfield this afternoon. Selectman W. E. Hall is in Boston. Miss Grace Harwood is the guest of Miss Minnie Harmon.

Colonel Leavenworth, president of the gauntlet company, stated at the borough meeting that more gas lamps would be put on the present line of mains without extra cost to the borough. The latter, of course, have to pay for the gas and lamp.

The T. A. B. and L. society, present

"Bound by an Oath" in the opera house on Thanksgiving night. The Berlin Bridge company began work in widening the East Center street bridge yesterday.

The work on the dam and canal on the Austin farm is progressing very slowly, and unless the weather is more favorable the work will not be completed this season. Contractor Stiles finds it almost impossible to get men to do the work, and those he does get will not continue but a short time. Company K is to have a "turkey shoot" in the armory Thanksgiving morning. A sporting rifle is used at a target with the fowls for prizes. The committee in charge of the shoot comprises Sergeant Blake, Corporal Ward and C. F. Wooding.

REPUBLICAN WARD MEETINGS. TWELFTH WARD. The republican electors of the Twelfth ward will meet Saturday evening, November 24, at 8 o'clock, at the Quinpiac rink on Grand avenue, to elect delegates to the town and city convention and to nominate ward officers. CHARLES A. STEWART, Chairman.

Republican Town Convention. Delegates to the republican town convention will meet at Warner hall, Chapel street, on Monday evening, November 26, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating town officers. JAMES H. MACDONALD, Chairman Republican Town Committee.

Republican City Convention. Delegates to the republican city convention will meet at Veru hall, Orange street, on Tuesday evening, November 27, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating city officers. JAMES H. MACDONALD, Chairman Republican Town Committee.

ELEVENTH WARD. The adjourned meeting of the Eleventh ward republicans will be held in Osborn hall, formerly Central hall, on Grand avenue, this (Saturday) night, at 8 o'clock. W. H. PRESTON, Chairman.

AN OWL Shot on the College campus. Many people stopped at F. F. Andrews store at No. 5 Church street yesterday to see a large light gray owl which, he said, a Yale professor shot from the window of his college room as it was flying over the Yale campus yesterday. It had a rat in its claws. The professor brought the owl down to Mr. Andrews to have it mounted.
