COURT RECORD.

Common Pleas Court—Criminal Side—Judge Hotchkiss. In this court yesterday the trial of Louis Moeglin, proprietor of the Beach house at Savin Rock, was taken up, and after a lengthy trial resulted in the jury rendering a verdict of guilty. Moeglin was charged with selling liquor at his hotel June 17. Shortly before 5 o'clock the jury rendered a verdict of guilty and the case was continued until this morning, when he will in all probability be fined $50 and costs.

It is expected that this morning the case against Frank McGinn, charged with violation of the Sunday liquor law at Savin Rock, will be taken up.

Common Pleas Court—Civil Side—Judge Studley. In this court yesterday Judge Studley rendered a decision against the plaintiff in the suit for damages brought by Eugene Peltier of Rochester, N. Y., against the Bradley, Dann & Carrington company of this city to recover $2,500 damages for personal injuries. Judge Studley's decision was for the defendant to recover costs.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Studley. William Welch, non-support, continued until December 22; Walter J. Harrison, breach of the peace, continued until December 22; Herman D. Ingram and Ada A. Perkins, adultery, bound over to superior court under $300 bonds; lascivious carriage, $5 fine, $6.24 costs each; Jacob Pohlman, breach of the peace, continued until December 21; William Lyman, breach of the peace, nolle; Daniel D. Chase and Mabel Smith, fornication, $7 fine, 30 days in jail, $8.24 costs; John S. Kelleher, lascivious carriage, $7 fine, $6.24 costs; William Marnan, reform school complaint, continued until January 20.

COURT NOTES.

AN OLD CASE ADJUSTED. Judge Robertson in the probate court yesterday accepted the final report of E. C. Beecher as executor on the estate of Nelson Hotchkiss. The case has been in court since 1880.

In 1882 a partial report was rendered. Jason P. Thomson, who represented four out of twenty residuary legatees, recently wanted the case reopened and to go back of the time when the partial report was rendered. He represented that there was $14,000 more due the residuary legatees than was allowed in the executor's report. The whole estate was valued at $299,000. By the acceptance of the final report Thomson's claim is not allowed.

STOCK ATTACHED. Eighty-five shares of stock of the New Haven Clock company belonging to F. E. Morgan of West Haven were attached yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Pond in a suit brought against Morgan by the Bristol Savings bank to recover on a note for $5,000 given him in 1889.

THIRTY POLICY HOLDERS. Thirty of those who hold life insurance policies in the Metropolitan Life Insurance company and who assigned their policies to Dr. A. B. Fuller, have been summoned as witnesses in the trial of Dr. Fuller's case. They have been in attendance since Thursday as witnesses, but have not yet been called.

THE STEAMER SUNSHINE CASE. Judge Wheeler in the superior court yesterday allowed the attachment of the American Chemical company upon the insurance of the steamer Sunshine, in the suit brought by the chemical company for damages for the obstruction of their canal by the burning and sinking of the Sunshine, to be transferred to G. E. Martin, who gave a bond for the amount for his brother, E. H. Martin, who is defendant in the suit. E. H. Martin, whose body was also attached and who is in custody, may sue for false imprisonment on the ground that the plaintiff has not right to attach property and the body in the same suit.

Furgury in Southbury. Dec. 19.—The grain, feed and grocery store of H. R. Stone was broken into Tuesday night. The safe was blown open, but no money was found, only the books, which were badly smoked. The store and post office of Hloock Brothers was entered the same night. No stamps of any amount were taken and no money had been left in the store. Letters were broken open, but several hundred dollars in checks mailed the evening previous by Mr. Stone for the bank in Waterbury were not disturbed. From the letters opened it would seem they were not strangers to the people, as those selected were those which would be likely to have had money in. The night before the Woodbury post office was entered.

The class of '83. Yesterday's Springfield Republican remarks: "The New York Tribune has hit upon the reason for H. H. Babcock's appointment as collector of the port of New Haven, instead of the practical politician, McGann. Or rather upon two real reasons—one that it had come round full time to put into office some member of the famous Yale class of 1883, the other that it is a victory of 'Skull and Bones' over 'Scroll and Keys,' Mr. Babcock being a Bones man. In connection with which the Tribune remarks concerning these societies: "The meeting-place of all three societies are in buildings of solid masonry without windows. Men slide into them stealthily in the edge of the evening and emerge with a scared look in the early morning hours. With the exception of the odor of cooked victuals, they give forth no sign to the passer-by. Freshmen view them with awe, and seniors who are 'let' in the elections look upon them with uncooled aversion. A great deal has been said about them by persons who do not know anything about them; nothing by persons who do. They are all so profoundly mysterious, 'Bones' most so of all."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The Crescent Annual and Its Contents—Another Secret Society, Etc. The '94 Crescent Annual appeared yesterday in an appropriate blue cover. The editors are Gilson, Bradley, McIntyre and Starkweather. It contains half-tone engravings of Mr. Zimmerman, president of the Athletic association, the Girls' Glee club, Crescent Dramatic club, Banjo club and the two athletic teams. A complete list of the scholars and of the various clubs is given, with a number of cuts executed by Starkweather. The book is a very good one, reflecting great credit on the editors for their successful work.

Besides the numerous secret societies already in the school, another one has been started. It has been in the school about a month and no doubt will soon become a feature in the school life. Unlike the societies which are at present in the school, it is the only senior society, the object being of a literary and social character. The members at present are Morris, Gilson, Butler, Starkweather, Beck, Cooney, Rodman and Cheney. The pin is a triangle with three sprays branching from the center, and contains the three Greek letters P. A. P.

THE JEPSON TESTIMONIAL.

Artists Who Have Rendered Their Services. Communications have been received from the following old pupils of Professor Jepson tendering their services at the testimonial concert to be given in his honor at the Hyperion, Monday evening, January 3, 1895.

Mr. Ericson F. Bushnell, Miss Elizabeth C. Gaffney, Mr. Harry Rowe Shelly, Mrs. Nora Russell-Haesche, Mr. Richard T. Percy, Miss Mary Hine Mansfield, Miss Madge Roberts, the "B" quartet, the Espagnola Mandolin club.

This evening the members and ex-members of Gounod society, also other graduates of the schools who are familiar with the choruses to be sung will have a rehearsal under the direction of Professor Jepson at Veru hail, Orange street.

The following selections will be furnished the singers: "He Watching Over Israel," from the oratorio of "Elijah," "Achieved is the Glorious Work," from the "Creation." And the "Hallelujah Chorus," from the "Messiah." Mr. Arthur T. Jackson has been selected as chairman of the committee of arrangements, and Mr. Harry Asher has accepted the invitation to preside as master of ceremonies.

A Curious Suit.

Manchester, Dec. 19.—Robert Edgar has brought suit for breach of promise and $2,000 damages against Sarah Edgar, his cousin, claiming that she became engaged to him in Ireland, that he paid her passage over, and that she refused marriage after all the preparations had been made, including the years old, and the plaintiff fifty-four, a widower, with several children. It is said to be the first case on record in this state of a suit of the kind by a male plaintiff.

WEST CHESHIRE.

The north center school will have a Christmas tree this year. The teacher boards at Mr. Peck's and is liked very much by the children.

Miss Ida Frost of the north district school has been quite sick with a swelling in her ear. She is some better. Miss Lina Doodittle has been filling her place. The Y. P. S. C. E. will give an entertainment at that school house New Year's night. Quite a fine time is anticipated. Mrs. Brown of New Haven is visiting her daughter here, Mrs. H. F. Peck. The Odd Fellows dedicated their new hall last Tuesday night. They had a fine time.

PLANTSVILLE.

The Congregational church will have a genuine old-fashioned Christmas tree Christmas eve, with a musical and literary entertainment. The Rev. Mr. Rouse preached a fine sermon Sunday last to a large audience. He says we are enthused with God's spirit, the same as the piano takes the spirit of the player. The reverend's whole soul seems to be in his work.

L. P. Norton's new store is quite an improvement. The new hotel is an ornament to the town, and take it all together, this is an enterprising little town.

MILLDALE.

Mr. Nestor Wedge has returned to Bridgeport after a quite serious illness at his father's. Miss Price, the new teacher, boards at Mr. Fred Dickerman's. The young folks enjoyed the skating here last week and sleighing as well. The rally day exercises at the north district Sunday school, Cheshire, two weeks ago were very fine.

SOUTHINGTON.

Dec. 18.—Adna Woodruff, master carpenter, has built a fine building in Plantsville on the main street for L. P. Norton, merchant, which must be admired by anyone who likes a good looking building. On the two corners of the front of the building doorways are made with colored glass transoms over them, while on the front of the building, dividing the lower from the upper story there is a break in the material used, and a difference is made by using fancy board-like shingles, which run the width of the building in a narrow strip about two feet wide.

The Quinnipiac river, which must be considered an important river in the city of New Haven, as it passes through this town, is small in comparison with the Naugatuck, and must not be mentioned in connection with the Thames or the Housatonic, and yet it is an important waterway. It is still used in turning water wheels, but not so many as in years gone by. In its length through the town it has nineteen bridges. People are making ready for Christmas and the holidays and the season of Joy and gladness will be a pleasant one for everybody this year.

The work which farmers are engaged in doing in the winter time goes on. Loads of wood and hay are delivered to customers from day to day, and it is fair to presume that a good return in the way of cash comes to the farmer. Farm work in winter is pleasant.

Everything and all things which take place here from one week to another are working together for good, and this community was never better off than it is now. It is hoped that we will all have the fullest share of the good things which come to all at the season of Christmas and New Year, and that the spring will bring with it green fields and flowers and pleasant mornings, which we all will like more than ever before. We hope that good will be accomplished here in many ways, and it is also hoped that we will all take a wider interest in affair than heretofore.

There are those among us who enjoy all the good there is in life and let us know it and help to enjoy our lives day by day. When we meet such people it is a source of pleasure to us, and when we feel later on that we are doing too much work we must look back at some of the meetings we have had with our friends. Life is being enjoyed here as never before.

Along in the forenoon and about 11 o'clock Wednesday it was cold and the wind was blowing hard among the trees.

Edward Conway has opened a steam laundry. There were bright stars seen Tuesday evening, and it was a beautiful evening to let one's self grow looking at the beauty of the land and the buildings as seen by the subdued light of the stars.

St. Agnes' society is to give a social at Germania hall on Friday evening, January 11.

The writer received a handsome almanac Wednesday morning from Representative Levi D. Southworth. He has some more.

One day and then another comes along and no two of them are much alike, because yesterday was such a good day. We like to meet each other in the streets and chat and say a word or two and move on, and in a while we will look back at it all and know how pleasant it was. When we are first told how important each one of us is it does not seem to be true, and we heed not the friendly advice which come to us in such a way that we do not feel that it is advice for us to heed, but it must not startle us. It is simply to let us know how well we are liked in the place where we are. The future which is perfect is always with us, and we are each using a little of it at a time and are doing well with it.

The work of the assessors just completed shows the town's grand list to be $2,252, 082, an increase over the preceding year of $14,714. Though small, it is encouraging, considering the past two years during which manufacturing and investments have had to stand a heavy strain. Of the above amount $43,941 is held by non-residents. Below is given the total of the most important class of property:

Houses, $949,858; lands, $344,619; mills, etc., $208,100; horses and mules, $27,238; cattle, $15,988; sheep, swine and poultry, $16,111; carriages, $68,500; stock, $107,381; merchandising trade, $64,750; manufac-

"All in a Row."

It is a unique sight to view at Carlsbad the motley row of drinkers of all nations, languages, manners and costumes hurry, or slung by a strap round the neck or over the shoulder, and patiently waiting their turn to sip of the precious fluid. For three centuries or more, all sorts and conditions of men, from the king to the tramp have pilgrimaged hither in search of new life or relief from pain. But we cannot in these competitive days afford the time and money to travel so far afield, so it is brought to your doors bottled in its natural and original form at the Spring, or in powder evaporated on the spot, and so well known as the Carlsbad Sprudel Water, and Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. The signature of B. W. & M. LINDSAY CO., Sole Agents, New York, is on every bottle. Beware of imitations.
