ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hypocrite. Manager Bunnell has shown more than usual good judgment in securing for this evening the Hon. Howard Martin with his beautifully illustrated views and wonderfully interesting talks on Japan and China at the Hypocrite. Mr. Martin has met with extraordinary success wherever he has appeared, and having held the position of secretary of the United States legation to China a number of years and many years a resident of Japan is fully capable of giving a most vivid and instructive lecture, having been in touch with all the high officials of both empires. Mr. Martin comes commended by the best people of New York as a lecturer of exceptional ability, and we are making no mistake in predicting a large attendance this evening. His lecture on China yesterday was a fine treat, highly enjoyed by all present. Sale of seats now open.

Hoyt's Great Political Satire, "A Texas Steer," will be presented on Saturday evening next, produced by the original company. The play is so well known here that further comment is unnecessary. Sale of seats is now open. Manager Bunnell is to be congratulated in his selection of the Christmas attraction. With his customary foresight he has secured Augustus Daly's famous company of comedians in the ever successful comedy, "7-20-8." This great company in the delicious comedy will without question draw a large holiday audience. Sale of seats now open.

Grand Opera House. "Coon Hollow" will play a return engagement to-night and Friday and Saturday evenings. There will be a matinee on Saturday. An exchange says: "Miss Floy Crowell as 'Clyde Harrod' is a really remarkable success. In looks she is beyond mere prettiness, though her beauty is that of the evil one in the play, but off the stage she must be a most charming young lady. Her mastery of the cracker dialect is perfect. There is a wonderful plantation scene, with a furious lot of dancing by the field hands, and Miss Hamilton gives a pikaninny dance which is a wonder. The scenery is very fine, particularly the bursting of the dam, the steamboat race and the cotton press.

The cast: Philip Hury, Theodore Hamilton, Art Beecher, C. E. Dudley, Jared Fuller, Ben Clark and Tom Eastman, Arthur Hackley, Ralph Markham, Bingley Fayles, Drogene Sharp, Alf Hampton; Lem Stockwell, Horace Mitchell; Uncle Bob White, H. J. Kennedy; Chip and Sophie Chalkler, Louise Haven; Jean Boehmer, Louise Arnett; Clyde Harrod, Floy Crowell; Rose White, Ella Spencer; Georgia, Miss Louise Hamilton.

The Christmas attraction at the Grand will be the well known favorite, Dan McCarthy, who will appear in "The Bride of May" Monday evening and Christmas day matinee and evening. On Wednesday matinee and evening "The Rambler from Clare" will be given.

The lecture hall, annex at the Grand is now open free to the patrons of the theater. The attraction this week is Miss Jennie Morello and her educated spaniels, who go through a fine performance, showing how carefully they have been trained by Miss Morello.

Poll's Wonderland Theater. The wonderful singing of Marius DeLaur and Alice Debrimont, who are rendering grand opera with all the wealth of voice and costume and stage settings that grand opera usually suggests, explains why Wonderland is so thronged. These artists are fresh from Europe, where they sang the leading roles in grand opera in the chief cities. Fun also abounds at the Wonderland. Harris and Walters present a very funny comedy sketch, during which Mr. Harris introduces some side-splitting references to matters that touch the ridiculous part of public affairs in New Haven. Then the New Haven boys, Healy and Feed, make lots of fun with their nimble dancing and eccentric knockabout tumbling. The six Reed Birds, the Lenton brothers, Robetta and Doretto, Billy and Daisie Golden and the Ryders with their trick monkeys make up the balance of the comedy cast, furnishing an entertainment that for fun could not be surpassed.

May Be a New Haven Man. Last night's Bridgeport Farmer says: "It is believed that the successor to Deputy Marshal W. A. Lewis, who has resigned, will be a New Haven man. Although it is the most important in the district the latter city has not had a deputy under the present United States marshal and there is good reason to believe that he will now add a New Haven man to his staff."

GREAT LUCK AT POKER.

It Enabled Wolcott to Stay With the Sharps for One Interesting Hour. (From the Washington Post.) "I suppose Senator Wolcott is one of the coolest men living when engaged in a game of chance," said Albert Watson of Denver. "Like most men whose early manhood has been spent on the frontier, he learned the value of a poker hand and the best way to keep cases as soon as he learned law, and he was known as a 'limit' player all over Colorado before his fame as a lawyer had spread outside of Denver. When playing taro he always did, and does yet, bet as much on the turn of a card as the dealer will allow him to, and when he sits in a poker game the other people want to keep their eyes wide open and play their cards mightily close up to their chests.

"Wolcott once found himself in a game of poker where three of the other players were playing a sure game. They were professionals and were after a big bundle of money that he had in his possession, as well as looking after that which the fifth player, a mining operator named Durkin, was known to have. Wolcott knew in twenty minutes after the first hand was dealt that the intention was to rob him, and he wore his wits trying to find a way to get out of the game without making trouble, but he couldn't discover a means to save him. At last he was dealt a pat flush of diamonds, made up of the five, seven, eight, nine and jack. He skinned these cards over and did a mighty piece of thinking. He felt in his bones that a flush would be of no account in the world when it came to show down, but he chipped in and stayed to draw cards.

"To his surprise he wasn't raised before the draw. He looked over his bright red diamonds again and concluded to draw a card in order, if possible, to straighten the sequence. He pondered a long time between discarding the five spot or the picture, and at last tossed away the jack and called for a card. The dealer looked surprised at his wanting any, but gave him the card. Wolcott picked it up and found he had got the six spot of diamonds. He never turned a hair. The betting began, and he nursed his sequence, and just stayed along, letting the other fellows do the raising. At last it got down to Wolcott and one of the professionals. Finally there was a call and the other man showed four queens. Wolcott laid down the five, six, seven, eight and nine of diamonds and swept in the pot. The game stopped right there. I reckon that was the greatest piece of luck that any man ever had in a poker game.
