Prizes Awarded at Mid-Winter Session in Harmonie Hall.

The closing sessions of the mid-winter meeting of the state board of agriculture were held in Harmonie hall yesterday. The afternoon session opened with a musical programme comprising these numbers:

Miss Mary Lewis Haley, soprano soloist at Scotch Presbyterian church, New York city, solo, "Haymaking," by Needham, Miss Edna Estelle Hall, accompanist; Mr. Yakov Spivakowski, violinist, "Canzonetta," by Ambrose, Miss Hall, accompanist. Del Riego's "Oh, Dry Those Tears, Miss Haley, Mr. Spivakowski playing the obligato.

Mr. E. G. Seeley presided over the session. Mr. James F. Brown, the secretary, regretfully announced the illness of the speaker of the morning, Mr. F. E. Dr. Clinton has made the study of potatoes a special hobby, and has found blight to be common in this state. Those troubles that occur on tubers are not subject to spraying but those on the leaves are.

Dr. Newcomb was introduced and made a short address on "Bovine-vaccine." He stated that bovine-vaccine met with much the same reception as anti-typhoid, both discoveries by Professor von Behring. His experiments include the inoculation of 70,000 cattle with the human germ which protects the cattle against tuberculosis disease.

Mr. Frank Ward of Batavia, N. Y., followed with an address on the horse. At the evening meeting the Rev. John Calvin Goddard of Salisbury had the address on "The Future of the Small New England Town."

The awards in the exhibit were made as follows. In apples Westland Farm, E. E. Brown, superintendent, won first prize; W. A. Stocking of Westgate, second prize; C. H. Savage, of Storrs, third prize.
