SUDDEN DEATH

Of Mrs. Harriet T. Hewitt, Wife of Elisha Hewitt.

Many will read with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Harriet T. Hewitt, beloved wife of Elisha Hewitt, which occurred yesterday at her beautiful home, 228 York street. She had been in impaired health for a year or two past due to heart trouble, and in a sudden attack of the disease she passed away. Dr. O. T. Osborne of 232 York street, her attending physician, was summoned but she was beyond medical aid. She leaves her husband, who was for many years a prominent Chapel street druggist, and two brothers, Arthur Wright, a lawyer formerly practicing in this city, and Paul Wright. Her father was the late Colonel Dexter R. Wright, who was first colonel of the old 15th C. V. and afterward for many years was a leading New Haven lawyer and for some years corporation counsel of New York. The deceased was a woman of education and refinement and of very lovable traits of character.

HELD UP IN WEST HAVEN.

John King of West Spring street, West Haven, was held up and robbed Thursday night while returning from work about 11 o'clock. Mr. King, who is a railroad brakeman, was near his home when a couple of men attacked him and took several dollars from his person.
