

NEW HAVEN, CONN., THURSDAY APRIL 4 1907.

WOOLSEY HALL FILLED FOR BAND CONCERT

SEATSON SALE AT THE HALL BOX OFFICE AT 6 P. M. TO-DAY.

Until This Evening Sale Goes on at Steinert's—Brilliant Programme Arranged With Soprano Soloist and Others—Gala Musical Event.

The "President's Own" band, which is to give a concert in Woolsey hall to-night at 8:15, under the auspices of the University School of Music, will reach New Haven about noon. The men will arrive in their fatigue uniforms.

One of the big rooms in the basement of Woolsey hall has been set aside for them to dress in, as the entire band, when it files onto the big Woolsey hall stage, will be seen in its brilliant full dress uniform—red coats and blue trousers.

As for the leader of the band, Lieut. W. B. Santelmann, he is gorgeous in blue and gold lace.

As a picture, against the white and gold background of Woolsey hall, the band will be in itself well worth going to see.

Since Lieutenant Santelmann took charge of the band, it has given finer music every season; its ensemble has improved so that to-day the band stands where it never stood before, even in the days of Sousa, as the most brilliant band of expert musicians in the world.

As such it has received the unstinted praise of the diplomatic corps at Washington, and its marvelous execution and precision under Santelmann astonished Prince Henry of Prussia, Prince Louis of Battenberg, and their suites at their official reception by the President a few years ago.

So important has the marine band become since the appointment of Santelmann that the place of honor at Presidential inaugurations is unquestionably yielded to it, while no public function of any importance is scheduled without a request for its services. The last important function at which the band participated was the ceremony in commemoration of John Paul Jones at Annapolis, Md.

Woolsey hall box office will not be open until 6 o'clock this evening for the sale of seats. Until then, however, seats may be had at the M. Steinert Sons Co., where the sale has been conducted throughout.

THE MASONIC PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

This association has been located in this city for about thirty years. Its membership consists of the members of the Masonic order between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years. Also their female relatives between the ages of seventeen and fifty years. At the death of a member it pays $1,000 to the beneficiary, each member being assessed $1.10 for said death. The fees for membership are $2 at time of joining, and no more to be paid except at the death of a member. This society has paid in benefits since its organization over $30,000. Its officers are: Hon. N. D. Sperry, president; Norton R. Hotchkiss, vice president; W. A. Beers, secretary; Dr. Frank H. Whittemore, medical director, and a competent board of directors. Its membership is mostly residents of Connecticut.

Blanks for membership can be obtained at the office of the secretary, 105 York street, or P. O. Box 624, city.

LOCAL SINGING UNION.

To Give Grand Concert on April 16. The second annual concert of the Coleridge Taylor Singing Union, Professor Haesche instructor, to be held in Warner hall Tuesday evening, April 16, promises to be of a very pleasing nature.

Aside from other singing there will be selections from the Earl-King's daughter by Gade, the soloists for that work being Miss Jessie Muse and Mr. Bert Jones, local talent, with whom Professor Haesche is much pleased. An innovation will be a recitation by Miss Corinne Adams, a young and talented elocutionist, who never fails to charm her audience.

The organization is a young and struggling one, and the generous patronage of the public is solicited. Price of tickets, twenty-five cents, which can be obtained of members of the union, and also at Loomis' music store, Chapel street.

FASCINATING DISPLAY

Of Trimmed Hats—Unprecedented Sales.

Never in the history of the firm have the sales begun to compare in extent with those which have taken place for the past two weeks. And there seems to be no diminution in the number of visitors and purchasers at Muhlenfeld's. But with the stimulus of enthusiasm born of praise and due appreciation extended to their well organized and capable force of workers, they have managed by working early and late to replenish the stock and keep it up to its high grade of excellence and true merit. And now the display is fully equal to that of Easter. Hats of diversified styles and individual beauty and attractiveness are very much in evidence to-day, and expressions of pleasure and delight are heard on every side. For particulars see advertisement on third page, top of column.

JOHN CURRIE.

The funeral services for John Currie were held at the home of his son, 138 Howe street, yesterday. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Frank Parsons. The burial took place in the Westville cemetery. Clam McLeod, O. S. C., of which the deceased was a member, was represented at the funeral by a large delegation. The impressive funeral services of the order were conducted at the grave.

SONS OF VETERANS.

Annual Encampment Orders Received Here Yesterday.

The twenty-third annual encampment of the Connecticut Division of the Sons of Veterans will be held Friday, April 19, at G. A. R. hall, Cheney building, 926 Main street, Hartford.

Headquarters will be established at the office of Division Treasurer Charles W. Roberts, 926 Main street. The division council will convene there at 5 o'clock p. m. Thursday, April 18, for the purpose of auditing the books of the division. The treasurer is endeavoring to secure from the railroad company the same transportation rates that have been granted in the past. If his efforts are successful the delegates and other visitors will be furnished with certificates entitling the holders to one-half fare and they will be issued and delivered at the encampment. The encampment will be called to order at 8:30 a. m. sharp, after which a business session will be held. From 12 m. to 1 p. m. lunch will be served by the women of the W. R. C. The afternoon session will be given over to business transactions and installation of officers. On Thursday evening a banquet will be served at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Hartford, to which all members of the division are invited; also those who are eligible to membership in the order.

WILLIMANTIC CHURCH.

Raises $10,000 and Gets Mrs. Lucy H. Boardman's Bequest of $20,000.

At a festival even song service and confirmation at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Willimantic, it was announced that $10,000 had been raised during the year ending with Easter Sunday, which will be added to the building fund. In remarks appropriate for the occasion, the Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D. D., bishop of the diocese, congratulated the parish and its pastor, the Rev. Richard D. Hatch, upon its success in being able to raise the necessary money with which to hold a legacy of $20,000 announced at last year's Easter Sunday service.

The legacy was in the form of a codicil to the will of the late Mrs. Lucy H. Boardman of New Haven, who left St. Paul's church $20,000 to be used in connection with building a new church, under condition that $10,000 additional be raised within the year for that purpose. The necessary amount has been raised largely through the personal efforts of the Rev. Mr. Hatch. Nearly the whole of the $10,000 has been given locally.

DISEASES OF PLANTS.

Lecture by State Botanist Before the Horticultural Society.

Last evening the New Haven County Horticultural society was tendered a very interesting lecture by G. P. Clinton, state botanist. The subject of the address was "Botany and the Diseases of Plants." The lecture was very instructively illustrated. Mr. Clinton was enthusiastically applauded by the large number present.

The lecturer showed the varieties of fungus, especially on apples, pears, peaches, grapes, potatoes and raspberries. He described the fungus in its different stages of development, how it entered and how it killed the object with which it came in contact. Spraying he said was the principle remedy, recommending especially the Bordeaux mixture.

Mr. Clinton has very many friends in the society and asked the members to look at him so that they would know him when he entered their greenhouse and premises to look for diseases of plants so that they might not put him off the premises.

A NOTED BOSTON PHYSICIAN in Paxtine has given to the world his most successful formula for an antiseptic wash, which, by local application, cures all inflamed and catarrhal conditions of mucous membrane surfaces, such as sore eyes, sore throat, nasal and pelvic catarrh.

For cleansing the mouth and sweetening the breath it has no equal. Many women say if Paxtine were $10.00 a box they would not be without it. Paxtine has so many uses in the toilet that every woman in New Haven should know about it. 50c at druggists. The R. Paxton Co., Boston, Mass.

DR. OSBORNE'S ADDRESS.

Dr. O. T. Osborne of the Yale medical school read an extremely interesting paper on "The Nostrum Cure" before a well attended meeting of the Bridgeport Medical society at their rooms in the Barnum institute. The annual meeting of the Fairfield County Medical society will be held next Tuesday at the Atlantic hotel, on which occasion it is expected that there will be a very large attendance of doctors from all over the county. An interesting program has been prepared and will be sent out to the mem-

LUCEY PLEADS GUILTY.

ESCAPES JAIL SENTENCE BUT MUST PAY HEAVY FINE.

Case Had Been First in City Court—Lucey Promises to Close the Two Upper Floors of His Place—Prosecutor Woodruff Finds It Hard to Get Witnesses.

John J. Lucey, proprietor of "Jack's" cafe at 135 Temple street, who has been on trial for keeping a disorderly house, decided to plead guilty yesterday morning, and his case came to an unexpected end. Lucey's counsel, Fitzgerald and Walsh, held a long conference with Prosecutor Woodruff in regard to terms, provided the plea of guilty was entered. They reached a settlement about noon.

The principal feature of the terms was the throwing off of the jail pants that had been imposed in the city court.

After Lucey had pleaded guilty Prosecutor Woodruff addressed the court, and said he had been hampered in getting witnesses to testify in the case, or he would have been able to put up a stronger case. If he had subpoenaed some persons who could testify about the character of the place they would have left the jurisdiction of the court. Mr. Woodruff also said that he was largely induced to agree to the terms through Lucey's promise to close the two upper floors of the place to the satisfaction of the authorities. He had agreed to a fine of $50 on each of the two counts for violation of the liquor law, and $100 on each of the two counts relating to the disorderly house.

Attorney Fitzgerald said the defense, too, had been hampered in getting witnesses. Reputable men who had been in the place on legitimate business had begged of him not to summon them in as they feared it would hurt their business.

He said that it was Lucey's first offense, and that in any event his business was seriously injured. Mr. Fitzgerald said it had been agreed that the hotel part of the Temple street place, or the two upper floors, should be closed, and this would mean a considerable loss to his client. He hoped the court would remit some of the costs in the case.

Judge Wolfe said he took into consideration that the accused had saved the expense of a trial, and the agreement that the two upper floors should be closed had great weight with the court. Under the circumstances the court thought that the ends of justice would be as well served without the infliction of the jail penalty.

Judge Wolfe said the hotel had borne a bad reputation for years, and it was a surprise to him that the police, except in one or two instances, had been so profoundly ignorant of the character of the place.

The court said he would agree to the fines and costs recommended by the prosecutor. He understood further that the costs would amount to $150. The fines and costs against Lucey amount to $450. In the city court he was fined $250, and sentenced to six months in jail by Judge Tyler.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Ellen Terry to be Seen at the New Haven Theater on May 3.—The Great John Drew coming June 1.

Manager Bunnell of the New Haven theater has just gotten out a list of some of the attractions for the coming months. Among them the name of Ellen Terry stands out preeminent. New Haven theatergoers are fortunate in this opportunity to see Miss Terry. She has been playing in New York since the middle of the winter and it very likely is that this will be her last visit to America.

The list given out is as follows: April 12—Mildred Holland. April 13—The White Chrysanthemum. April 14—Chancellor Olcott. April 17—Idle of Spice. April 22, 23, 24—The Smart Set. April 25, 26, 27—The Lion and the Mouse. May 3—Ellen Terry. May 4—Hattie Williams in the Little Cherub. May 9, 10, 11—The Gelsa. May 16, 17, 18—The Black Hussar. May 24, 25—Paul Gilmore in At Yale. June 1—John Drew.

COLLEGE OPENS TO-DAY.

College Students Return After Week's Vacation.

After a very pleasant Easter vacation of one week the Yale undergraduates have now returned and will resume their studies at once. The college opens at 8 o'clock this morning and will remain thus for about ten weeks. The condition examinations will be held next week.

The crew, baseball team and track men will resume their work to-day. The public schools, high and grammar, will close to-morrow afternoon for their spring vacation of ten days. The vacation comes after Easter this year on account of Easter being earlier than usual.

GRASS FIRE.

At Woodford's Lot on Whalley Avenue.

No. 9's chemical was called out yesterday afternoon to a still alarm of fire at the residence of H. E. Woodford, 409 Whalley avenue. The grass on Woodford's premises caught fire, and was extinguished by the firemen after considerable work.

JOHN HESLIN.

At 8:30 o'clock this morning the funeral of John Heslin will be held from the residence of his mother, Mrs. Mary Heslin, 719 Grand avenue, and at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church, where a solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated. Mr. Heslin's death occurred Monday.

UNIONS DEMAND MORE.

New Haven Road Employees Want General Increase.

It was learned yesterday that committees from the different unions whose members are employees of the New Haven road have met in joint session and will soon make demands upon the officials of the system for a general advance in wages. It is claimed that the prosperity of the road and the general good times warrant this increase in the wage scale.

For several weeks the machinists, trainmen, engineers, yardmen and freight handlers have been holding extra sessions at which the wage question was seriously discussed. Committees have had the matter in charge, and under the advice of the central labor organizations it has been deemed expedient to make a general demand. This demand for an increase for all employees would entail an immense outlay by the road were it granted, and yet the demand, if enforced by a strike of all hands, would be disastrous. It seems that the road will soon be between two fires.

FREIGHT CARS WRECKED.

Freight cars piled up at Belle dock and at Cedar Hill yards yesterday forenoon so that the wrecker was called out and worked two hours clearing the rails. Traffic was not delayed on the main line and the damage was only to the road's property.

NORTON GETS DIVORCE.

JUDGE SHUMWAY GRANTS SEPARATION FROM MRS. NORTON.

Decision Based on Charge of Infidelity—George Jenkins Recognized as Co-respondent—Case Has Been in Court Since October—Will Be Appealed.

A decision in the Norton divorce case was announced yesterday by Judge Milton A. Shumway in favor of the plaintiff, Edwin Kenneth Norton of New York. He is granted a divorce from his wife, Josephine Birney Norton, whom he married while he was a freshman in the Sheffield Scientific academy. The case promises to continue in the court, however, for a time longer, for Attorney Jacob Goodhart, counsel for Mrs. Norton, has declared that his client will appeal to the supreme court.

Judge Shumway's decision was short and to the point. It reads: "I find that allegations one and eight of the complaint are true, and, therefore, the application of the plaintiff is granted." Allegation one states that Mr. Norton and Miss Birney were married on January 13, 1896. Allegation eight brings the charge of infidelity, naming George Jenkins as co-respondent.

The details of the case are well known, and have been aired continually since last October, when the suit was started. Mrs. Norton's attorney has fought the case for every inch of the ground.

The appeal to the supreme court means that after a delay of a month or two the whole matter will have to be gone through again. The connection of George Jenkins with the case has added complications. He has been represented by counsel throughout the proceeding, and has denied the charges brought against him indirectly. That Judge Shumway has based his decision on allegation eight instead of others to which the plaintiff was trusting more, has drawn him into an important if unpleasant connection with the suit.

Mrs. Norton is well known in this city. Her home is in Fair Haven and before her marriage she was employed in several of the big stores as a cloak model. Young Norton was a popular member of the Sheffield cuss when he went with Miss Birney to Bridgeport to be married by a justice of the peace.

Over fifty witnesses were introduced by the plaintiff, and much of the testimony was that of paid detectives. Detective Louis J. Webb of this city shadowed Mrs. Norton constantly from the time her husband left her until within a short time of the trial.

ANNUAL DANCE.

Retail Butchers and Grocers Entertain at Harmonie Hall.

The New Haven Retail Butchers' and Grocers' association held its annual notable and dance at Harmonie hall last night. The affair was largely attended and was in every way enjoyable and successful. Music was furnished by Lang's orchestra.

PEAT AND COAL.

Coal is fossil peat. The peat bogs of to-day might become coal beds in some future geological age. Professor Potonie, of Berlin, says there is a strict parallelism between the different kinds of peat and coal. When the remains of plants collect under terrestrial conditions an ordinary peat bog is formed. This corresponds with "bright" coal. If the remains collect under water, an organic slime is formed, and this corresponds with "full" coal, or cannel coal. When terrestrial and aquatic conditions have alternated, during the collection of the remains, "strata peat" results, and this corresponds with coal deposits consisting of alternate layers of bright and dull coal. The chemical and physical properties of the various kinds of peat and coal show a similar correspondence.—Philadelphia Record.

THE FORD COMPANY.

SUCCESSFUL OPENING OF THEIR HANDSOME NEW STORE.

Hundreds Visit the New Place of Business and Congratulate the Firm on Their Elegant Display—Interior is Without Doubt One of the Best and Most Beautiful in New England.

The opening of the new store of the Ford company in the Knights of Columbus building, Chapel street, between College and Temple streets, where they have recently removed from their old stand at Chapel and State streets, that they occupied for more than sixty years, was an event deserving of more than a passing notice. This old established house, with a record of more than three-quarters of a century, the early part of the year sold their property to the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, and were obliged to vacate the premises that they had so long occupied with distinction and success.

An auction sale was held in January, and for the past two months their place of business has been closed entirely, and all the energies of the managers have been devoted to fitting up one of the most brilliant establishments of its kind in New England or elsewhere. The new building that they occupy is especially adapted from its high ceiling, marble floors and fire-proof construction, to the uses of this distinguished house. Show cases have been imported from England, and American cabinet makers have been employed in producing most modern results. Electrical and mirror effects from the salons of Paris and electrical effects from the Tiffany studios have been employed, and yesterday they opened their magnificent establishment, which is a credit to the city, and which is the most unique place of its kind that one can visit. It is not a shop; it is not a store; it is not a museum; but it is a combination of them all. Artistic and not commercial effects have been secured, and a visit to their place, whether as a connoisseur or a buyer is worth the while of all our readers. Their exhibition of precious stones is beautiful and fascinating—a bird of paradise, composed of diamonds and other precious stones, to be used for the hair, corsage, or pendant, a diamond and opal brooch or pendant, which sells at $1,200; a diamond heart brooch or pendant, selling at $350; a gold cigarette case, with sapphire catch for $150, and a sapphire bracelet, hand engraved, selling at $115, are beyond doubt bewildering.

Conspicuous is a magnificent painting from an artist who died in 1807; valued at $5,000. This has a group of figures, and is painted on wood. The silver, the glass, the china, the bronze, pottery—are all of the newest concepts from art windows of the world.

Everything in their store is entirely new and displayed under the most artistic conditions; the taste and exclusive character displayed on every hand is marvelous and fascinating. The cut glass represents the newest cuttings, and the china for table use the latest decorations. Plates and cups and saucers for table use are conspicuous for their white, gold and green decorations, and range in price from $5 to $1,000 per dozen. Although most expensive things are found here, delicate, artistic things for $1 each are also included. The stock is exclusively extensive, and people with moderate purses need not be disappointed.
