SEGARS.
QUALITY

IT TASTES LIKE A TEN

As a rule a five-cent cigar gives the smoker of higher priced segars no pleasure or satisfaction whatever.
Five-cent cigars lack that certain "something" the smoker of finer segars is after.

QUALITY SEGARS

have that certain "something" rarely found in a five-cent brand. This is due in part to our carefully "conditioning" them before placing on sale.

QUITE AN OLD ISSUE

Which Has Arouned the New York Newspapers.

The New York papers are frightened again. They have discovered a new issue—they caught it red-handed just as it was making its exit from the Brooklyn banquet after a savage attack on the life of the democratic party. It is a double-headed monster which the scientists have classified as the "Initiative and referendum." Its purpose is to put out of business the boss, the lobbyist and the trafficker in public trust. Of course it is obnoxious to subsidized papers and to the exploiters of the public who find fortunes in the grabbing of franchises and in the watering of stock.

After these papers have recovered from the frenzy into which they were thrown by Mr. Bryan's remarks about the initiative and referendum, some friend should call the attention of their editors to the fact that the doctrine which so alarmed them is not new at all. It is already in practical use, to a greater or less extent, in nearly every state, and its application is being constantly broadened. The referendum is employed in the adoption of constitutions and it is being used with increasing frequency in the issue of municipal bonds and in the granting of franchises.

Several states have so extended the use of the initiative and referendum as to secure to the people the right to sit in judgment on legislative measures and to compel the submission of any question upon which they desire to act.
Maine will at her next election vote upon the adoption of the plan for "direct legislation," as this plan is called, and the New Jersey house of representatives turned it down by a small majority. Neither is it a new subject with Mr. Bryan. He has discussed it in all parts of the country, beginning more than ten years ago. It was in the Nebraska platform in 1898:

"We favor the initiative and referendum system as an aid to securing a government of the people, for the people and by the people."

It was in the democratic national platform of 1900:

"We favor an amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and we favor direct legislation wherever practicable."

Is this news to the newspapers of New York? We are gradually applying the fundamental principles of our government to new conditions and that application will continue.

For 100 years after the adoption of the federal constitution the people endured the election of United States senators by legislatures; in 1892 the national house of representatives passed for the first time a resolution proposing the amendment necessary to secure the direct election of senators. Since then the House has four times more passed the same resolution and something like two-thirds of the states have indorsed the reform. It will come. And so will the initiative and referendum come in time, for both the initiative and referendum are in harmony with the theory that this is "a government of the people, by the people and for the people."—From Bryan's Commoner.

if no other heirs are discovered, inherit the entire estate.
At a hearing which will be held on the appointment of an administrator next Monday, it is probable that these heirs will be represented.
