TEMPE

At the regular meeting of the town council, Thursday evening, routine business matters were taken up and passed upon. Regular bills were allowed and the clerk ordered to draw warrants. The report of the town marshal was read and ordered filed. The clerk drew a warrant for $20 from the street fund in favor of the marshal for incidental expenses on the streets. The question of buying a lot north of Normal street between Eighth and Dewey, in order to open up a street, was brought up and reported to the marshal for investigation. The mayor made a report of his talk with Mr. Chandler with reference to signing a contract for supplying power to the water works plant and the furnishing of a proper bond. There had been some difficulty to reach an understanding. The council is now seriously considering the question of installing an electric light plant in connection with the water works. This would be a very wise move on their part, as it would require but very little extra expense for dynamo, wiring, boiler, etc. The man who is hired to look after the water works could also take charge of the electric plant. As the revenues derived from the electric plant would amount to in the neighborhood of $600 per month it certainly is a proposition well worth considering.

Mr. Celaya, who recently opened a grocery store in "Old Town" is rapidly building up a good trade. He carries a full line of groceries and an excellent assortment of fruit.

If the young gentlemen composing the proposed juvenile band would get together and form an organization and elect a leader, providing they have not already done so, they would soon be able to secure instruments. In an interview with Mr. Finch, he said: "One or two individuals have been to me and asked for the juvenile band fund that was entrusted to my care. They have never come to me as an organization, therefore, I have not felt justified in giving the money to anyone who might apply. I will gladly hand the fund to the proper parties, and will do all in my power to assist them. There is no reason in the world why the boys should not get together and organize a band that would be a credit to the town, and one that all could feel proud of. The first thing to be done, however, is to organize, and go at it in a business-like manner. Here's success to the juvenile band."

A large, well selected and jolly crowd last evening attended the Japanese library ball at Curry hall. The spacious ball-room had been transformed into a veritable bower of loveliness. Bright colored bunting hung gracefully draped from the corners and all sides of the room, gathered at the center, forming a nucleus beneath a huge Japanese umbrella, around the edges of which were hung many Japanese lanterns of varied bright colors, while other lanterns were profusely scattered about the ceiling. The walls at the sides and ends were entirely hidden from view with a mass of palms and pepper boughs. Over all the electric lights shed a subdued glow and clearly brought to view the happy smiles and graceful movements of the assembled dancers. The sound of light-footed participants keeping perfect time to the strains of sweet music in a waltz or two-step, the merry laugh and occasional hum of conversation heard above the sounds of the instruments formed a pleasant memory, long to be remembered. In one corner of the hall stood a dainty Japanese tea table beneath a second huge Japanese umbrella, a charming Japanese lady serving the tea completed the pretty arrangement.

We ask just enough and not any more. The best goods are found at Hyder Bros' store.

A. work, Mrs. Lila MacDonald also expressed her interest in the M. I. A. work and the harmony that existed in their efforts to advance the cause of truth. Mrs. Rita Pomeroy then recited "To Rent." Mrs. Jeannette Johnson favored the audience with a song, "Don't You Remember Sweet Alice, Ben Bolt?" After this the games were again resumed and then lunch was served by the young ladies, consisting of the good things of life, augmented by some of the most appreciated for a long time. Thus the festivities continued until about 11 o'clock, when the social was declared adjourned, and everybody went away happy and pleased at the splendid evening's entertainment.
