THE MANAGER OF CAMPAIGN

Is Still a Question Yet to Be Settled

The Conference at Cincinnati Postponed to July 1 at Washington.

Cincinnati, June 20.—Secretary Taft's visit to his home city, so far as it concerned the selection of a republican national chairman, was fruitless of its mission.

Frank H. Hitchcock, who managed the preliminary campaign of the war secretary, might have had the chairmanship but at the moment he declined to permit the use of his name because of the condition of his health.

A telegram was received by Mr. Taft from Mr. Hitchcock today requesting that he be not considered in connection with the chairmanship. He said that his physical condition was such as to render it substantially impossible for him to undertake the onerous duties of campaign manager at the present time.

It is significant that after a conference last two hours, Taft, Sherman and the members of the sub-committee of the national committee decided to postpone action on the chairmanship and treasuryship of the national committee until July 1. On that date a meeting of the candidates and members of the sub-committee will be held in Washington finally to determine the matter which could not be solved today.

An announcement of the action of the conference was made in a statement, issued by the direction of Taft this afternoon.

It is significant that after a conference last two hours, Taft, Sherman and the members of the sub-committee of the national committee decided to postpone action on the chairmanship and treasuryship of the national committee until July 1. On that date a meeting of the candidates and members of the sub-committee will be held in Washington finally to determine the matter which could not be solved today.

An announcement of the action of the conference was made in a statement issued by the direction of Taft this afternoon.

The events leading up to the issuance of the statement are interesting and to a degree significant. The members of the sub-committee of the national committee were requested to assemble at the residence of Charles P. O'Connell at 11 o'clock this morning. Then it was expected the conference would not consume more than an hour and a half. That, at least, was the idea of the committeemen when they left the hotel. As a matter of fact, the real conference did not begin until half past twelve. The delay was caused by some interviews which Taft had with the members of the Ohio state committee and some members of other states who had come to Cincinnati to see him. These interviews, it is understood, had a more or less direct bearing on the selection of a national chairman.

The war secretary was put in possession of information concerning the matter which he thought he ought to have before reaching a conclusion on so weighty a question. At the preliminary conferences the whole Ohio situation was discussed carefully and its bearings upon the approaching national contests was considered. The secretary was urged not to be hasty in announcing a choice of a campaign manager.

Finally when Taft, Sherman and the members of the sub-committee came together they were in a position to consider the subject in the light of information from all sources. The conference was entirely executive. Despite however, an agreement was reached that it should not be discussed by the parties to it, it is known that considerable differences of opinion arose as to the choice of a national chairman.

Taft, it can be said, felt that in all the circumstances, it would be the part of wisdom to postpone definite action on both the chairmanship and treasuryship for a time. Later in the afternoon he said to a representative of the Associated Press: "It was deemed wise to defer action for the present, both as to the chairman and the treasuryship of the committee. It was not a question that had absolutely to be decided to day. One decision was finally reached; momentous issues may depend and we felt that it might be well for the smoke of the battle at Chicago to clear away before determining the matters before us. We have plenty of time and the sub-committee, which has full power to act, may be gotten together almost any time. The time—July 1—place—Washington—was quite satisfactory to all parties to the conference. When we convene there, we shall be able to reach a conclusion satisfactory to all."

Hitchcock, Taft added, was in a state bordering on nervous collapse and needs a good rest. Taft's discussion of the subject with members of the committee was substantially an elaborate discussion. With this view the committee was fully agreed. It will be noted that the official statement does not say that Hitchcock declined the chairmanship but declined to be considered for the position on account of his health.

No statement was authorized by anybody that he declined the proffer of the place, or that a proffer had been made him. It can be said that the proceedings today have not eliminated Hitchcock from consideration and he undoubtedly will be an important factor in the equation which is to be re-acted by the conferees when they meet at Washington.

The secretary will remain the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft until tomorrow afternoon when he will leave for New Haven, Conn., to attend the meeting of the Yale Corporation, of which he is a member and to be present on Tuesday at the reunion of his class of '78.

Sherman left tonight for Cleveland. He was accompanied by former Governor Herriek and a few other friends.

A report is current here late tonight that Senator Lodge and Chester Long of Kansas were named given prominence in today's conference of the sub-committee of the republican national committee with Taft. No official confirmation of the rumor can be made at this hour but it is not considered at all impossible that these names were mentioned.

INSISTENT ON HITCHCOCK.

Republican Leaders at Chicago Are Urging His Selection.

Chicago, June 20.—The republican leaders of all sections of the country who remained here a few days after the convention refused to accept as final the declaration of Hitchcock to accept the chairmanship of the national committee, which carries with it

BUSINESS SKY CLEAR

The Nomination of Secretary Taft Impregnates the Financial Atmosphere with Ozone

New York, June 20.—(Special.)—I am pleased to be able to advise you that the action of the republican convention in nominating Secretary Taft and Congressman Sherman has had the effect of clearing the financial atmosphere materially, and we have a right to look for an improvement in business from this time on. Even democrats generally admit the success of the republican ticket this fall.

Everyone believes implicitly in Secretary Taft's exceptional qualifications for the office of president and all who know him do not hesitate to say that every interest will receive at his hands considerate and fair treatment. I am sure Arizona will find in him an appreciative friend.

Arizona was ably represented in the convention. The standard plank is positive and to the point. As Senator Foraker has wisely stated, republicans should turn their attention to a common enemy from this time on and forget irritating differences. The best interests of our country are at stake.

We have a right to expect that demagogues will be plentiful after the Denver convention and unless republicans and conservative democrats take a prompt, positive and active stand, the improvement of business may be materially retarded until after the election.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP TO SOUTH AFRICA

He Has Decided to Start on His Big Hunting Trip on April 1.

Oyster Bay, June 20.—After a hot and tiresome journey from Washington, President Roosevelt reached Oyster Bay late today and tonight he and his family are again domiciled in their summer residence on Sagamore Hill for his annual presidential vacation of three months. The usual preparations have been made for the establishment of executive offices here, although the president hopes to pass the most restful summer which he has had since he entered the White House, but he will be in constant touch with governmental affairs, and give his customary close attention to all matters requiring his consideration.

It was learned today that President Roosevelt has fixed April 1 next as the date of his departure on a hunting trip to Africa.

KEENE'S STAKE WINNERS

The Two Year Old Colin Added $14,500.

New York, June 20.—His fifteenth successive victory was added to his record today by Colin, James R. Keene's unbeaten two year old when he won the Tidal stakes at Sheepshead Bay in easy fashion. The Tidal stakes for three year olds is worth $14,500 to the winner. Today's victory, with that of Ballot in the Suburban on Friday, makes Keene's returns from the two races close to $25,000.

His string of winnings had practically put Colin out of the betting, the odds quoted being 1 to 5. Four horses were sent away to a fine start. Colin quickly went to the front and from that moment led the field easily with great apparent reserve and won by a couple of lengths. Dorants was four lengths before Stamina who in turn was eight lengths before Chapultepec. Time, 2:04.

STEVE ADAMS CASE TOMORROW.

Grand Junction, Colo., June 20.—Everything is in readiness for the opening on Monday of the trial of Steve Adams for the murder of Arthur Collins, manager of the Smuggler-Union mine at Telluride in 1902. The state alleges that Adams, while waiting trial in Illinois on another charge of murder, confessed that he killed Collins. It is expected that the trial will last a month.

A NEW HAMMER THROWER

Torrington, Conn., June 20.—In competing in field track games here today, in connection with the usual field day of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of this state, John Flanagan, of the Irish-American Athletic club, established a new world's record for the hammer throw by sending the hammer a distance of 175 feet, 1 1/2 inches. The former record was 173 feet 7 inches.

M. F. Horr, of the same club, threw the discus 142 feet 3/4 inch, which it is claimed is a new world's record.

MARRIAGE OF MISS REID DAY AFTER TOMORROW

An Event in Which British Royalty is Deeply Interested.

London, June 20.—When Miss Jean Reid, the daughter of Ambassador Whitehall Reid, goes to the altar in the chapel royal on the afternoon of June 23, to be married to Hop John Hubert Ward, she will wear, aside from her engagement ring, but three pieces of jewelry. Those will all be old-fashioned bracelets. They were given presents by King Edward and Queen Alexandra to Ward.

The king and queen and all the members of the royal family are taking the greatest interest in the marriage of Miss Reid, which will be an unique event in several respects. It is the first time the daughter of an American ambassador has been married in London, and Miss Reid is the first American girl to form an alliance with a member of King Edward's household.

As the chapel royal seats less than a hundred persons, invitations to the ceremony of necessity have been limited to members of the royal family and a few of the most intimate friends but the reception which will follow will probably be the largest ever given in Dorchester house. Everybody prominent in the political and social life in London will be present. Wonderful wedding gifts have been presented.

LONG DRAWN LAND SUIT.

End of the Trial of the Montana "Smoke" Case.

Helena, June 20.—Forty-one days argument in the case of Fred J. Bliss against the Anaconda Copper Mining company, known as the "Smoke" case, were concluded in court today before Federal Judge Hunt. This is said to be the longest argument in the history of legal controversies.

The case was started on May 5, 1905. During the trial 25,000 pages of typewritten testimony were taken. This amounted to 6,500,000 words. The briefs consist of 3000 pages. The decision is not expected before six months.

THE REFORESTATION OF GLOBE MOUNTAINS

An Officer of the Bureau Says They Will Again Be Thickly Wooded in Twenty Years.

Globe, Ariz., June 20.—(Special.)—That the mountains about Globe will be covered with heavy pine forests in less than twenty years, is the statement made by L. S. Miller of Washington, D. C., assistant chief inspector of the bureau of forest extension.

These mountains were formerly thickly wooded but the timber was all cut out as the mines of the Old Dominion Copper company and others were opened. Miller made a thorough examination of the hills and was astonished at the luxuriance of the young pines coming up.

THE STOCK MARKET UNSPEAKABLY DULL

The Little Motion It Has Given It by Professionals.

New York, June 20.—Today's stock market confirmed the tendency of the previous days of the week by the arrest of yesterday's fall of prices to lapse into intense dullness. The news offered nothing to account for the new reversal of the narrow movement and it was obviously caused by the restriction of dealings to the hands of professional operators. The support evident in Union Pacific was the most effective factor in the market. There was an unsettled closing due to a sudden decline of Rock Island securities.

GRAIN.

Chicago, June 20.—July wheat started with a loss of 1/4 @ 1/2 c to 3/8 @ 5/8 c at 86 1/2 @ 87 1/2 c, sold at 87 1/2 c and fell off 86 c. The close was easy at 86 1/2 @ 86 3/4 c.

July corn opened 1/2 c lower to 1/4 c higher at 63 1/2 @ 70 c, declined to 63 1/2 c. The close was barely steady at 63 1/2 @ 63 3/4 c.

September oats opened 1/2 c lower to 1/4 c higher at 45 1/2 @ 46 c, held within that range, closing firm at 45 1/2 c.

METALS.

New York, June 20.—The metal markets were quiet as usual in the absence of cables. No quotable change was reported. Tin was dull and rather easy, ranging from $27.75 @ $28.12 1/2. Copper continued quiet, with lake at $12.87 1/2 @ $13.00, electrolytic $12.62 1/2 @ $12.87 1/2, and casting at $12.50 @ $12.62 1/2. Lead was unchanged at $4.47 1/2 @ $4.52 1/2, and spelter at $4.47 1/2 @ $4.52 1/2. Iron was quiet.

Sheep receipts 2000; market steady. Natives $3.00 @ $3.20, westerns $3.00 @ $3.25, yearlings $4.80 @ $5.50, hams $4.00 @ $4.15, westerns $4.00 @ $4.45.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES IN NORTHERN MICHIGAN

Many Villages Destroyed and Valuable Timber Land Burned Over.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Fires in northern Michigan forests fanned to gigantic proportions by gales of the last two days, have destroyed at least three villages and rendered hundreds of persons homeless. They swept over thousands of acres of timber land and caused damage estimated at about $200,000. The heaviest loss has been sustained in Presque Isle and Sheboygan counties, although Leelanau, Charlevoix and Otsego also suffered.

In many towns today the lamps are lighted as the sun is obscured by the heavy smoke. The village of Case, in Presque Isle county, was destroyed today. A special train conveyed the homeless villagers to Onaway, where they were sheltered tonight. Logand, a little town in Sheboygan county, was also abandoned to the flames tonight. Many women and children were taken in wagons to the Indian river.

While a big fire at Wolverine today was being fought, a forest fire threatened another section of the village. While the Wolverine department was engaged, a call for aid was received from Rondo, three miles north. The firemen could not leave Wolverine and Rondo was left to the mercy of the flames. A hotel, several stores and houses and the Michigan Central station were burned.

In Leelanau county a big fire raged. All night the glow of the fire could be seen at Traverse City, 12 miles away. Several farms and buildings were destroyed at Fannett's and a big lumber yard was wiped out. Much valuable timber has been burned.

A BALLOON EXPERIMENT.

The Pommern to Carry a 45 Horse-Power Engine.

New York, June 20.—Dr. Julien P. Thomas announced today that within a few weeks he expects to sail over the city with an engine of 45-horse-power, suspended from the balloon Pommern, which won the international balloon race which started from St. Louis last fall. Thomas said he believed he would be able to drive the balloon 40 miles an hour.

DISSECTION OF PLATFORM

Conducted by the Eminent Dr. Bryan

The Faults He Finds in the Recent Proceedings at Chicago.

Lincoln, June 20.—Under the news caption, "In Full Retreat," Wm. J. Bryan, in the next issue of the Commonwealth, will discuss the national republican convention as follows:

"Republicans who attended the national convention and the spectators who joined in the demonstration in favor of Roosevelt and LaFollette must have felt indignant as they watched the panic-stricken delegates running over each other in their efforts to get away from the LaFollette reforms, many of which have been endorsed by the president himself.

"Republicans who attended the national convention and the spectators who joined in the demonstration in favor of Roosevelt and LaFollette must have felt indignant as they watched the panic-stricken delegates running over each other in their efforts to get away from the LaFollette reforms, many of which have been endorsed by the president himself.

"Congressman Cooper, of Wisconsin, representing LaFollette on the platform brought in a minority report signed by himself alone. Fifty-two members of the committee signed a majority report, one signed a minority report.

"The republican party will find a ratio of 52 to 1 a very embarrassing one to deal with in the coming campaign. Cooper's report contained a declaration in favor of a publicity of campaign funds which was lost by a vote of 89 to 94, more than 9 to 1. Yet the president had been advocating legislation in favor of publicity as to campaign contributions. Taft wrote a letter to Burrows advocating the passage of such a bill.

"How fortunate it was that Taft's letter was finally discovered and published. Burrows, the man to whom the Taft letter was addressed, was the temporary chairman of the convention, and the convention over which he presided turned down the publicity plank by a vote of 9 to 1; who can deny that on this subject, the republican party is retreating.

"Another plank of the LaFollette platform authorized the ascertaining of the value of railroads. This plank was lost by a vote of 91 to 63, nearly 15 to 1. Yet President Roosevelt advocated that very proposition. Here is a retreat on the railroad question.

"In another column, reference is made to the injunction plank: The injunction plank adopted by republican convention is a retreat from the position taken by the president and from the position taken by Taft in his speeches, although neither of them went as far as they ought to have gone in an effort to prevent what is known as 'government by injunction.' Here was a third retreat. The president advocated an income tax, and inheritance tax, but the republican convention was silent on these subjects."

Lincoln, June 20.—Confident of at least one hundred more votes than will be required to nominate him for the presidency, Bryan is already taking an active part in the preliminaries of the convention.
