The three top liners again change about this morning. Stover Isaac goes to the very top, and this morning he stands on the coveted pinnacle wondering how long it will last. It is a beautiful "neck and neck" race for the second place this morning, there being but the narrow margin of 17 points in favor of Joe O'Connell. Birdie Fowler and Mildred Manley were the star girl performers yesterday, each gaining one round of the ladder. Concho Soto, checked in nearly a thousand points, giving her score a substantial gain that took her up just one notch.

A GOOD REPUBLICAN
Joe O'Connell, came into headquarters with a smile and said: "Oh, I have a dandy check here," and reaching down in the inside pocket of his coat, he pulled out a check for the sum of $3 for a year's new subscription for the daily to none other than the standard bearer of the republicans, Ralph Cameron. Joe, seems to have a line on the politicians of the territory. Joe, who but a small man, has been prominent in former Arizona legislatures, as page, and his gentlemanly bearing won and held the friendship of many men of affairs.

BUSY DAY.
This is another Saturday, and it will be another busy day at contest headquarters, but that is alright, hustlers we like to work, pile it all around us, we will not yell "stop." However, it would be nice if the contestants would check in their work rather early in the afternoon then continue work, and turn the rest in later, so that the office force will not have to lose too much sleep.

DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.
Subscribers of The Republican who are delinquent, particularly those who owe several months back, have a good opportunity to boost the score of their favorite contestant by paying the arrears and in advance as far as is due in arrears, and count all for points. These amounts may be sent to the contestant or to The Republican direct, with instruction to whom the points are to be given, and in this way young hearts may be made exceedingly glad for the helping hand.

CONTESTANTS NOTICE
The Republican has had a lot of order blanks and letters printed for the use of contestants who wish to write to friends or to people who may subscribe or renew present subscriptions, thus adding the one interesting item. These blanks will be gladly this evening, so don't forget, boys and girls, to call for as many as you can use to advantage.

THE W. C. T. U.

A Formal Welcoming of the Association to Denver.

Denver, Colo., After two sessions spent in business meetings the National Women's Christian Temperance union which began its 35th annual convention at the Auditorium today devoted this evening to listening to addresses of welcome from Governor Henry A. Buchtel, Mayor Robert W. Speer and other state and city officials and to responses by the presidents of the several branches of the organization.

One of the unexpected happenings of the day was the resignation of Mrs. Susan M. D. Fry of Evanston, Ill., as corresponding secretary. Mrs. Fry tendered her resignation with the annual report at the afternoon session.

THE FRISCO SHORTAGE RUNS INTO THOUSANDS

It is Supposed That the Money Disappeared About the Time of the Fire.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—Instead of a shortage of $33,000 in the city treasury experts who have just finished an investigation, report the amount in excess of $60,000 and $14,000 belonging to the state.

The experts reported also that from the time of Treasurer MacDonald's first term of office, from 1903 to 1906 to within 30 days before or after the great fire the money was safe in the treasury and that it must have disappeared within a period of thirty days. It has been found that the money was turned over by Treasurer MacDonald to his successor, C. A. Bantel, and that the shortage occurred during Bantel's term of office, about the time of the fire.

A WHITE ELEPHANT ONLY IT IS BLACK

Which the Police Department Finds on Its Hands.

Mattie McBerth, a crippled colored woman who until Thursday lived at the Crittenton Home is confined in the city jail serving out a sentence of five days imposed in Judge Thomas' court yesterday afternoon on the charge of starting an uproar at the home which resulted in her expulsion. Mattie is now without a home and friends. Her case has been presented to a number of colored citizens of the city.

According to the officials at the Crittenton Home Mattie is subject to spells of sultriness during which she refuses to live up to the regulations of the home and in more than one way was a menace to the welfare of the other inmates of the place. On Thursday morning she refused to perform the chores assigned her saying that she was sick. Mattie had worked the sick room several times before to effect, and the directors of the home decided on adopting a means to break her of it.

On being sent to her post she feigned blindness, to which she is at times subject. She was permitted to return to her room but instead of remaining there she roamed about the home bothering the other patients. When she saw the matron of the home coming after her she rushed to the balcony and out onto the roof where she stood shouting "murder, help, and etc." On being brought to the room she fought fiercely inflicting several cuts and scratches on the hands of the women and matron, at the same time uttering curses and blasphemy.

Mattie is about forty-five years old. The police officials are at a loss to know what to do with her. Owing to the fact that she is crippled and at times is practically blind she is a great burden. She says that she has a brother living in Louisiana. An effort is being made to communicate with him in the hopes that the woman will be taken off the hands of the city.

AT A DIZZY HEIGHT.

Something Went Wrong With the Parseval Balloon.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The Parseval dirigible balloon met with an accident at a height of 6000 feet this afternoon as a result of which it became unmanageable and dropped rapidly down to the earth. Major Parseval and his assistants escaped and made a safe landing. The accident consisted in the bursting in of the compartment forming the tail of the airship.

DREYFUS AT THE CAMPAIGN.

So Brandenburg the Purveyor of the Cleveland Letter Styles Himself.

Dayton, Oct. 23.—Broughton Brandenburg, who was arrested yesterday in connection with the Cleveland letter case sold to the New York Times, was released today on a $500 bond, signed by his attorney, and it is said he will go to New York.

Brandenburg stoutly maintains his innocence and calls himself the Dreyfus of the campaign of 1903.

ANOTHER SLAP AT UNCLE JOE.

Peoria, Oct. 23.—Speaker Cannon is especially condemned in a clause of the resolutions passed at the final session of the Illinois Federation of Labor. The clause met with opposition but was finally passed.

Many of the Japanese porcelain factories are not paying expenses, and production has been reduced by 30 to 40 per cent. In Tzu-maki-mu twenty-eight of the eighty porcelain factories have suspended, owing to the decrease in American and Chinese imports.
