of this valley is already being felt. One indication is the following extract from a private letter received by E. A. Fowler from a friend in Visalia, Calif. in connection with other business. Visalia has a sugar beet factory and people there know its value. They have also heard of the Salt River valley as an agricultural paradise, even without the beets. Here is the extract: "I drove out to the S. E. Provolt ranch, and he informs me that his address for the next ten days will be Visalia. He is already selling out and expects to drive to Arizona with a pair of horses. I am very much interested to note the progress made in Arizona sugar beet culture and hope some time to secure a good position as agriculturist in your locality."

ARE HERE TO STAY—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Goodrich have returned from their wedding tour in Washington with the full intention of making Phoenix their permanent home. Mrs. Goodrich was formerly Miss King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. King. The state of Washington looks good to Mr. Goodrich, more especially in Summer, but it seems the Salt River valley looks better and Phoenix is glad to welcome the new residents.

TRINITY CHURCH—During the past summer Trinity church has been renovated and a new vocal organ put in place of the old organ which had been used for many years. The Messrs. Well and Armstrong, baritone; Messrs. Cocks and McDowell, tenors; Mrs. Tafel and Mrs. Cade, sopranos; and Mrs. Jessop, contralto. Miss Alice Redewill is organist.

Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Baptist Young People's Union at 6:30 p.m. Baraca class for young men, Junior Union at 3 p.m. Preaching at 7:30. Music under direction of Prof. J. Homer Grunn of the Arizona School of Music.

A FEATHER FOR A JELLY CAKE One of the exhibits at the fair grounds that will attract a great deal of attention is a display of four feather articles from the Arizona Ostrich Farm, whose saleroom is at the corner of First and Adams streets. The case was specially built for this display, and contains one black, and one white plume; one black and one white fan, each one valued at $25. The reason that there is a great deal of interest attached to this display is the fact that Mrs. Pickroll has arranged to give the choice of any article in the display to the exhibitor of the best jelly cake at the fair.

COMING MUSICAL EVENTS—Phoenix is to have a number of high class musical attractions the coming season. The first on the date December 11 is the appearance of the Maud Powell Concert company, including Maud Powell, who ranks as the greatest living solo cellist and Anne Ford the English pianist. January 4th the violinist Ralph Wylie who won a distinction triumph in his concert here last winter. Jan 14th is the date for Carrie Jacobs Bond the noted song writer and interpreter. Mrs. Bond is considered one of the most charming entertainers before the public.

FREE REST ROOM AT FAIR—The Territorial Fair association has provided a large tent 6x100 and floored the same for use as a rest room. The ladies of the Florence Crittenton Home of this city will have charge of it and thoroughly equip and furnish it and make it a place of rest indeed. The tent will be partitioned into several commodious rest and dressing rooms and a department will be provided as a nursery. Everything will be free at the rest room but a small charge will be made for the rent of go-carts and baby carriages which will be provided for that purpose. Everybody is very cordially invited to make the tent their resting place.

A PLACE TO EAT—The Florence Crittenton Home will conduct an eating booth under the grandstand at the fair again this year. The ladies served lunches with such great success last year for their famous home made New England pumpkin pies and home made apple and mince pies that they have again decided to serve their old time lunches. Monday the lunch booth will be presided over by the ladies of the Florence Crittenton Circle, Tuesday the ladies of the Christian church will serve, Wednesday the ladies of the W. C. T. U. and probably the ladies of the Baptist church will serve. Friday, and again on Saturday the ladies of the Crittenton Home Circle will serve. Each day those famous New England pumpkin pies, apple and mince pies, all home made, will be provided by the Home management. The Home deserves the same liberal patronage it received last year.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A. J. MCUNE.—Mrs. A. J. McCune, who died at 1603 E. Monroe St., will be buried Sunday Nov. 8th. The funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Mrs. McCune has always lived a good life so she was contented to go at God's call. She had been a Christian for four years and was a very kind and loving mother. She always took a great deal of comfort in making her home pleasant for her family. She leaves a husband, four small children and one sister in Arizona, two sisters and three brothers in Iowa, to mourn her death. She had a great many friends here who will be sorry to hear of the sad news of her death.
