What is Scrip?

Land Scrip, is a document or written evidence of a right to a specified area of public land under the terms and limitations of the act of congress, creating the same. It is a certificate for land issued under authority of the government. This Land Scrip is accepted as cash in the land office. It is absolutely safe and we furnish you a guarantee with it whether you want two or three sections or only a small tract.

Land is the Thing

We desire particularly to direct attention to this method of acquiring public lands. Let us tell you all about it.

SALT RIVER VALLEY NEWS

Day" program rendered by the Sunday schools of Fowler and Cartwright jointly, beginning at 10 a. m. There will be no preaching services at 11. Dinner will be brought and served picnic fashion on the church grounds. In the afternoon a mite box opening and program will be given by the mite box brigade of the Woman's Home Mission society of Cartwright. This "day of days" has been carefully planned and hoping that will be both interesting and helpful to those who come. All are welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkey and family of Osborn were planning a day's visit in Cartwright Sunday morning when in walked and old time friend from Oregon, Will Green. That did not upset their plans in the least as Mr. Green was for many years a resident of this part of the valley, and has many friends and relatives here that he was anxious to see, so he came along with the Wilkey family and they spent the day with Mr. Green's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Green. As they returned in the evening they called on a few other friends and drove by S. S. Green's another brother of Mr. Green's, where he remained for the night. Will Green was for some time superintendent of the Sunday school at Cartwright and his coming will add to the delight of the children on "children's day" as he expressed his intention of being present that day. Lewis Wilkey remained over for a longer visit with Baird Green.

Johnnie Lively and his bride of a few weeks visited over Sunday at the home of his aunt Mrs. McWall. They attended church services at Cartwright. Helen Stauffer of Phoenix, another niece of Mrs. Wall was visiting her at the same time.

John Price, who was called to the bedside of his father in Texas, is expected home again soon.

Etta Smith had one of her fingers seriously hurt Saturday.

Mrs. Hill and son entertained a company of friends Sunday.

Mrs. C. T. Root called on Mrs. J. G. Brooks and Mrs. Connell, Friday afternoon.

Mr. Pickrel and his daughter, Miss Alice, visited the National Ostrich ranch Monday.

All the birds on the National ranch are being fed at present. The Bennett ranch is furnishing the hay. The owners find that the extra feeding is a great help, as the ostriches are much fatter and thus produce a better grade and a larger yield of plumage.

Otto, Abram, Emma and Estella Glossbrenner visited the Feebach children Sunday. Emma extended her visit over till Monday afternoon. James Feebach visiting for the same length of time with the Glossbrenner boys.

M. List drove to Phoenix Thursday to get some recruits for his baler crew. Mr. List has finished baling a crop of oat hay for Ralph Root and has pulled into the Bennett ranch to begin baling there.

Mrs. M. C. Glossbrenner and daughter visited with Mrs. S. N. McClure Thursday afternoon. Estella remained over night.

C. T. Root and Miss Neale were visitors in Phoenix Wednesday.

Chas. Cartwright has begun to cut an extra fine piece of oat hay on the Manford Cartwright ranch, Thursday. This is one of the cleanest first crops in the valley this year. The alfalfa being only two years old and there is no weeds or foxtail.

C. T. Doyle drove to town Saturday for more binder twine for her husband.

J. G. Brooks has purchased a new binder and has cut all his grain crop and is now at work on a 40-acre field for Ernest Mann. Mr. Kile is employed to run the binder and is using his own team of mules which he purchased last week from the parties that shipped a car of Texas mules into Phoenix. Mr. Kile paid $430 for his mules and thinks he got an extra good bargain. Mr. Kile is an experienced hand at running a binder, having come from the grain section of Oklahoma where binders are used more extensively than they are in Salt River valley.

Miss Fannie Breedlove accompanied by her room-mate of the Tempe Normal school, Miss Maud Shivers, spent from Friday till Sunday with home folk. They attended the church services at Cartwright Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Doyle drove to town Sunday. A close friend of Wilson Vinson was also a visitor at the Vinson home Sunday.

A large number of our people attended the graduating exercises of the Phoenix high school at the Elks' theater. There were several of our young people among those who received diplomas and we as a people congratulate them.

Miss Katie Bone, who is one of the graduates from Phoenix high school remained in town the greater part of the week, the guest of Miss Blanch Hughes.

Mrs. J. T. Bone and daughters, Jennie, Callie and Hughie, attended the commencement exercises of the Phoenix high school.

Mrs. P. D. Gardner and daughter accompanied Miss Maggie Doyle to Phoenix Wednesday.

Mrs. Mosier and daughters Mrs. List and daughters were also Phoenix visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of West End visited Mr. and Mrs. Kile Sunday. The Misses May and Blanch List, Hulda Brown and Maggie Doyle were also visitors at the Kile home Sunday.

C. C. and S. S. Green's thrasher has started the season and was at work a part of this week on the Marlor ranch.

Mr. Eddy of Glendale was through this neighborhood Wednesday selling Bibles and other things. He dined Wednesday at the home of J. F. Doyle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shawver were among Wednesday shoppers in Phoenix.

M. B. Brooks of Fowler was a business visitor at J. F. Doyle's Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Logue drove to Phoenix Saturday with their baby who was ill, for medical aid. The little one is most well again.

Gladys Howard, who underwent an operation of the throat a little more than a week ago is getting on nicely and did not lose much time from school. Dr. Thomas performed the operation, removing both tonsils.

A misprint in last week's news located Mr. Daniels and his bride in Alhambra instead of Alabama, which is quite a long distance.

Stanley Howard has about finished binding his large crop of grain.

Miss Nannie Brooks of Fowler spent Sunday with her cousins at J. G. Brooks.

Ruth and Charley Bratton of Isaac attended church at Cartwright Sunday night, they reported their grandfather, T. F. Williams, who is visiting at the Bratton home as being seriously ill.

Mrs. Lon Townsend and son, who have spent more than a year in Arizona have returned to her home in Texas. Mrs. Townsend is a sister of W. R. Bratton, where she made her home while here.

Rev. J. H. Smith, pastor of the Fowler Baptist church, called on Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fitzhugh Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. G. Brooks and Mrs. S. N. McClure drove to Phoenix Monday. Others from this part who were there the same day were Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Logan, Mrs. List and son, Ora Rennells, J. A. Vinson, James English, Sam McClure, Shell Mosier.

Mrs. Asa Graham has a new rubber tired runabout and a new driving horse.

Mrs. J. G. Brooks spent Sunday the guest of Mrs. McClure.

Jack Brooks has finished baling his crop of hay and has sold the same to Mr. Clark in the field. Mr. Clark was engaged a part of the week in hauling it home.

Rev. S. M. Cheek of Tempe will preach at Cartwright one week from Sunday on June 6th.

The business and social meeting of the Epworth league will be held at the parsonage at Cartwright Friday night of this week.

Mrs. McElhaney and daughter, who came here last fall, have returned to their former home in Oklahoma. Mr. McElhaney and son Charley are still here.

Harry Sheets of Princeton, Mo., arrived this week for a visit with relatives here. He is a nephew of John Sheets of this place and a brother of the Misses Sheets, who came here last fall and are now in Phoenix. Should he like Arizona he will remain here, otherwise he will go on to California.

A number of friends were pleasantly entertained on Saturday evening by Harry Tovrea at his home. The evening was spent in games and dancing. The guests were served with refreshments of ice-cream and cake. Those present were: Miss Lulu Stump, Miss Zoie Sapp, Miss Elizabeth Faulkner, Miss Emma Faulkner, Miss Edna Sullivan, Miss Goldie Sapp, Reuben Graham, Wesley Miller, Roy Sapp, Chris Sheets, Sidney List, Fred Clark, Tom Graham, Granville Sapp, Phil Tovrea, Abe Haynes, Clyde Tovrea, Marvin Dills, Harry Tovrea, Herman Huff and J. F. James.

Those from Fowler who attended the funeral of Rev. J. B. Hutton, Tuesday, were: George Kay and family, Jack Harris and wife, Mrs. Jerry Irving, Miss Mary Irving, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holly and daughter, Myrtle, and Mr. and Mrs. Hibbers.

Mr. Hutton was the first pastor in charge after the organization of the Baptist church, at this place. He remained here for a year and a half, when he moved with his family to a small ranch east of Phoenix, where he lived until his death, which came as a surprise to his friends here. His son died about a year ago from lung trouble. Mrs. Hutton is left with the care of her son's three small children, their mother being in California, so low with lung trouble that she is unable to care for them. Mrs. Hutton and the children are at present visiting Mrs. Jack Harris and will probably visit in this neighborhood until the weather becomes warm enough for them to go to the coast. They have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Mrs. J. A. Higgins and Mrs. Emhuff were entertained at 12 o'clock dinner, Tuesday, by Mrs. Charles Root, of Cartwright.

W. C. Daniels, with his bride, took dinner on Thursday of last week with his son, Joe Daniels. While Joe was very much pleased upon seeing his father, whom he thought was in Alabama, drive into the yard, he was very loth to pay over to Mrs. Daniels the $5 he had wagered on the wedding announced in Wednesday's Republican, not being that of his father.

Quin Faulkner and daughter, Emma, were Phoenix visitors on Friday.

Mrs. Harmon visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Kay over Sunday, returning to Phoenix on Monday morning. She left on Thursday evening over the Southern Pacific for Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon are planning to move to Phoenix this fall and make this their home.

Ray Bell visited his parents on the Agua Fria on Sunday and remained tired out with the work and care of the home, need a tonic strength-building medicine. Strained nerves and tired bodies do not get well themselves.

Fagged Out?

Worn Women

If you're nervous, run-down, discouraged, and fagged out, don't give up—try Cardui, the woman's tonic. This great medicine has been used for more than half a century by thousands and thousands of women and has been found to be a specific, building medicine for nearly all of the ills from which women suffer.

We have the written testimony of thousands of ladies, relating what Cardui has done for them. Note this letter from Mrs. Charles Bragg, Sweetser, Ind. She writes:

"Tongue cannot tell how much Cardui has done for me. I am on my third bottle and I am much better. Before I began using Cardui, I could not do a day's work. I would work awhile and then have to lie down. Now I can work all day and not be very tired."

"I shall always praise Cardui."

Try Cardui. It is composed of pure vegetable ingredients that cannot possibly harm you. Judging from the experience of thousands of other women, it is almost certain to help you. Try it and get well.

All Druggists sell CARDUI.
