They Threatened to Dynamite Prison and String Him to Telegraph Pole.

Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 17.—Inflamed by the suicide of Heslip, a band of citizens organized late today and determined to storm the county jail in which Casey was confined. They strung him to the nearest telegraph pole and work similar vengeance on Martin Sheridan, who has been awaiting trial for wife murder six months. It was the purpose of the mob to dynamite the jail which withstood an attack last night just after Casey killed Mrs. Heslip and wounded Mrs. Mann, the attack being planned for tonight. The plan was defeated by Sheriff Callahan, however, who smuggled both prisoners out and carried them to Tonopah in automobiles manned by heavily armed guards. Because of the fury of the citizens, the district attorney has called a grand jury to act on both cases without delay to placate the townspeople.

The most general applause of the day was when Gordon Heimstrom of North Dakota said that his experience as a "prison director has converted him to prohibition, for he had found that 95 out of 100 convicts owed their downfall to drink.
