"SHORTY" EISER DEAD—A. V. Eiser, known more popularly as "Shorty," a former resident of Phoenix, died April 2 at Larson's camp, near Williams, Ariz. He was a native of Ohio and was thirty-nine years old. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. C. E. Caton of 717 Montezuma avenue, Phoenix, and a brother, who resides in Toledo. He was buried at Williams, April 6.

FILE $2500 SUIT—Norton H. and Ina Wilson have filed suit in superior court for $2500 against the Phoenix Railway Company for damages sustained by Mrs. Wilson when an automobile in which she was riding was struck by a street car on April 21, 1912, on the Cave Creek road. The plaintiffs allege negligence on the part of the car crew.

GETS $50 VERDICT—John C. Kean was awarded $50 by a verdict in Judge Phillips' court yesterday afternoon. Kean sued C. E. Hazelton. Kean was riding a bicycle when a pair of horses driven by an employee of Mr. Hazelton became frightened. The horse knocked Kean from his wheel, breaking several ribs and keeping him out of work a month. The contention in the case rested on the alleged negligence of the driver. The plaintiff charged that the driver was nodding in sleep, while the defense made good its claim that he nodded his head while pulling on the reins to control the horse.

The surveyor-general has also approved mineral survey No. 2099, embracing the King of Lead, Rex Plomo, Amended New Haven and the Red Horse lode mining claims, situated in the Chiricahua mining district, Cochise county, Arizona, and claimed by J. C. Riggs.

CREIGHTON PARENT TEACHER—The Creighton Parent Teacher association will hold its monthly meeting at the school house on Friday, April 10, at 2:30 p. m. Come and hear the program, which is sure to be interesting and helpful. Mesdames Fish, Forman, Graimes, Groom and Duncan are the hostesses.

HAS MOTORCYCLE—L. E. Graham, who lives nine miles southwest of the city on the Buckeye road, reported to the police yesterday that he had found a motorcycle lying in the ditch near his home. It is a Warner, with an Arizona license tag No. 2554. It had evidently been stolen and ridden down that way and abandoned.

A GREAT SIGN—Phoenix is rapidly becoming one of the best lighted cities in the southwest. Every few days another business electric sign is added on a street. Last night one of the largest yet erected was put into commission. It is a perpendicular electric sign of the Arizona Gazette, extending from the first story to the third floor, and made material in lighting up North First avenue.

HOLDS HIS FIRST COURT—City Magistrate John McBride, appointed Tuesday evening to be the city magistrate, was sworn in yesterday morning, and yesterday afternoon held his first session of municipal court. He evidenced that he is going to grasp the work readily and that he is not only going to handle cases fairly and with justice to the defendants as well as to the city, but with expedition. He had several drunk and disorderly cases, on the most of which pleas of guilty were entered. He gave sentences of five days or five dollars fine, suspended sentence in two instances and continued one case for further investigation.

POLITICS THICKENING—Word comes from Yuma where General A. J. Sampson has been spending the winter and spring that he will probably be a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator. Hon. J. L. Hubbell of Apache county is suspected of having senatorial aspirations. The Washington Post of last Thursday said, following an interview with M. Hubbell: "Mr. Hubbell is urged to make the race for United States senator to succeed Mark Smith. He has not given answer to his friends because Arizona is ordinarily democratic and a democratic nomination has been equivalent to an election."

Cook Bible school, which is conducted by the Presbyterians here for the purposes of training native Indian evangelists, held the closing exercises of the school yesterday evening at the First Presbyterian church which were attended by a large crowd of members of the church and those interested in the work of the school. The school expects shortly to be well enough established to erect its own building which will be near the United States Indian school. This is the third session of the school, the other two years having been spent in Tucson. The exercises with few exceptions were wholly in the hands of the Indians who made their speeches in English. The graduating class contained one Maricopa Indian, two Mohaves, one Navajo, and two Pimas. These will go into the work among their people. Their names in the order of their tribal relations are: Lewis Colt; Gilbert Davis, Thon Kahahon, John Curley, James Ellis and Joseph McDonald.

A READER WANTS TO KNOW
To the Editor of The Republican.
Sir: Can you tell me through the columns of your paper, why the county officials allow manure from city corrals to be spread over the county roads? It is ground up fine by passing vehicles, into fine dust. Then a very little wind fills our houses with it. It is certainly something that should be stopped. I refer to Watkins street, the first street running west from Center, north of the river, to Seventh avenue.
Respectfully yours,
A SUBSCRIBER.

EASTER SALE
Friday afternoon, April 10th, the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold their regular tea and will have for sale home cooked food, homemade candies and aprons. Every body is cordially invited to come and have a social time.—Advertisement. It came to Tap Booth as a result of gun shot wounds inflicted at the hand of Dr. A. L. Wiggins.

EMPTIES PISTOL

Upon examination of the body it was found that five shots fired, three entering the head, two near the root of the left ear and one higher, and two passed through the body in the region of the heart. One of the bullets was found lying on the body under the underclothing and from appearances it had penetrated a portion of the chest.

Wiggins after the shooting disappeared and was next gotten track of when word was received here by Sheriff Adams and Under Sheriff Wolf, who appeared on the scene at an early hour, that he was in custody at Phoenix having gone directly to the office and surrendered himself.

Booth was not well known by his companions and it appears lived in fear of his life the whole time. He constantly carried his gun and had it under his pillow when he met his death. Alfred J. Burge, another employee, was aroused by Wiggins inquiring for the camp foreman. He replied that the crew had two foremen and wished to know which one he wanted. Wiggins replied, "The planting foreman," and was shown the cot on which Booth slept. Burge not considering the matter gave no other attention to the man until he heard him call, "Tap, Tap, Tap," rather loudly.
