FITCH TO PRESCOTT—C. H. Fitch, project manager of the Salt River valley project, went to Prescott yesterday morning to take a short rest in the Arizona Switzerland.

BACK FROM PRESCOTT—The Misses Lucile and Ruth Tisdale, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Tisdale of 622 North First street, returned home last night from Prescott.

OUT AGAIN—The Busy Southwest, the house organ of the McNeill company, made its fourth appearance yesterday. It is an interesting number, the big feature being the center "double spread" carrying illustrations of twelve handsome young ladies employed in various departments of the concern.

RETURN OF MISS WHITFIELD—Miss Sara Whitfield, progressive candidate for county school superintendent, has returned from her vacation and is preparing to engage in active work in behalf of her candidacy. She found that her friends had not been idle in her absence and that a strong and growing sentiment in her favor was already under way.

LITTLE STRANGER ARRIVES—A. L. Jones, assistant county school superintendent, is the happiest man just now, for he is the fond father of a seven-pound girl who came to his home yesterday. The anxious times are past, yet Mr. Jones was all anxiety as he kept at his duties yesterday, to get back and make friends with the little stranger.

CANDIDATES' EDITION READY TO CLOSE—An effort is being made to "close copy" on the candidates' edition of The Republican tonight or early Friday morning. A number of candidates have not been seen, and there are several desirable spaces left and those who wish to place their candidacy before the voters of the state, should telephone Jo Conners at 422 today, and to insure their being space left, it should be done early.

ON BUSINESS BENT—Election campaigning has evacuated the offices of the court house. Yesterday three automobiles carried away another crowd to join the rally at Buckeye, in the cause of vote-catching. In the party were Clerk of the Board of Supervisors James Miller, Jr., who went to join W. A. Moer and Frank Luke, J. E. McClain, George A. Macdonald, Sheriff Jeff D. Adams, J. A. R. Irvine and O. S. Stapley.

BIGLEY'S BROTHER-IN-LAW—Leo Bigley, the well known young man about town received information yesterday of the marriage of his youngest sister, Miss Vera A. Bigley, of this city, to Frederick Mott, of Gallup, N. M. The wedding took place in New Mexico's black diamond town Monday, Aug. 31. Mr. Mott is a very popular young man in Gallup, where he is the manager of one of the leading stores. Mrs. Mott is well known here as a most charming girl. Leo Bigley never has seen and does not know his new brother-in-law.

NEW NOTARY—A notarial commission was issued yesterday at the office of the secretary of state to P. C. Anderson of Safford.

VISITING MESA—Mrs. J. L. Gass and Mrs. Mrs. P. Gass are the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. E. P. Stultz at Mesa, for a few days.

FIRST MAYOR OF DOUGLAS—M. W. Adamson, the first mayor of the city of Douglas, was among the visitors to Phoenix yesterday.

HOME FROM DENVER—Miss Lily Wilson of North Second avenue returned home last evening after spending the summer in Denver.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS—There are telegrams at the Western Union for: J. R. Hankin, J. H. Layman, Frank Marek, Stephen A. Goodman.

KEEGAN GOES HOME—J. J. Keegan, president of the Arizona state fair commission, left yesterday for his home in Globe after attending the sessions of the commission in Phoenix, Monday and Tuesday.

ZANJERO'S HOUSES—The reclamation service is now ready to receive bids upon the specifications and plans for the houses of the zanjeros of the project. The plans are at the Water Users' building and can be seen by any interested parties.

SMALL BLAZE—The fire department was called out shortly before one o'clock this morning by a blaze at Seventh avenue and Grant street. The fire, which was in a small un-occupied house, was extinguished before serious damage was done. The origin of the fire is unknown.

MATRIMONIAL—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Samuel Preston Graham and Louise Bigelow, both of Maricopa county; Simon Herbert Rucker and Eula Lee Smith, of Maricopa county; and to David H. Hughes and Floy Ogletree, both of Pima county.

LEAVES FOR IDAHO—Mrs. J. Walter Boyd, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ella Books Sanders, departed Tuesday evening for Roswell, Idaho, where Rev. Boyd has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church. Mr. Boyd preceded the ladies to their new home several days ago.

DOGS WANT HOMES—J. W. Canning, the humane officer cannot find dogs enough to supply the latent demand. But he does not like to keep them long on hand. He has now a nice white and brown dog, a good playmate for a boy; also a white and black small female dog, young and particularly smart and handsome.

MINERAL SURVEY APPROVED—The surveyor general has approved mineral survey No. 3129, Ophir, California, Black Prince, Black Queen, Hayes, Eureka, Bisbee, Western Slope, Fillmore, Lincoln, Hobo's Dream, Iron Mask, Crown King lode mining claims, situated in the California mining district and claimed by George H. Crosby.

SCHOOL PHYSICIAN ON DUTY—Beginning next Monday, Dr. C. B. Palmer, city school physician, will be in attendance at the new Monroe street school to examine children who expect to attend the Phoenix public schools this fall and winter. His hours for the week will be from 10 o'clock until 12 o'clock each morning.

LETTUCE GROWERS ATTENTION—To further foster the growing of lettuce in the valley on a large scale, the Phoenix Lettuce Growers' association have called a meeting for 10 a. m. on Saturday in the rooms of the board of trade. The object of the meeting will be to complete the organization and to sign up acreage for all interested in the growing of lettuce on an extensive scale in the vicinity of Phoenix.

TO MAKE PHOENIX HOME—Mrs. Josephine Roething, who has been residing at 909 East Pierce street during the summer, left this week for San Diego, her former home. She is so well impressed with Phoenix that it is her intention to dispose of her property interests in San Diego, and as soon as this is accomplished, to return to Phoenix and make her permanent home here.

W. C. T. U. MEETING—The Women's Christian Temperance union will hold the first regular fall meeting this afternoon at 2:30 at the headquarters on West Monroe street, beginning at 2:15 o'clock. The topic for the afternoon is "Evangelistic Work." G. F. Rhinehart of the state temperance federation will address the meeting, which will be led by Mrs. A. J. Bell. The devotional exercises will be in charge of Mrs. Jordan. Strangers are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

BACK FROM THE COAST—M. C. McDougall, vice president of the Phoenix National Bank, returned yesterday from Santa Barbara and other coast points where he has been spending the vacation with his family. He reports that business men on the coast, while unavoidably affected by the conditions brought about by the European war, are not looking for anything more than a temporary depression, and expect that conditions will rapidly adjust themselves. bumper crop and the opening of the Panama canal have both had a marked effect in producing a feeling of optimism among the coast bankers, and with the opening opportunity for American trade with South America tend to strengthen business conditions at home.

MANY WOMEN WILL VOTE—Those people who think the women of Arizona are not going to take part in the primary are badly mistaken, according to Irene Ellis Saunders, who is managing Jo Conners' campaign for the legislature. "Women are taking a great interest in the coming contest, and in many cases they are better informed regarding the issues than the men. Many have read the statutes carefully, are thoroughly informed regarding the present laws and those needed, and are interested in seeing capable men selected for the different offices. My prediction is that there will be a large number of women in the legislature which convenes in January of 1917 and they will acquit themselves with credit." The speaker having acted as attaché at several legislatures and in the same capacity in the constitutional convention, knows something about politics.

BIG LABOR DAY PARADE PLAN

Order of Formation for the Cavalcade of Trades Unionists Next Monday—Winners of Last Night Prize Waltzes

The finals in the series of prize waltzes that has been going on at Riverside park will be held in the dancing pavilion there tonight. There have been four preliminary contests and the silver medal winners in these have been Mr. Jack Waters and Miss K. Staples; Mr. and Mrs. Bissell; Mr. G. Gomez and Miss Helen Kirkpatrick, and David Porter and Miss Gladys Rendeck. Tonight these four couples will meet in the final contest and the winners will receive gold medals emblematic of the championship. It will be a contest that will require the greatest skill of the contestants, one of the conditions requiring the couple to dance up and down and reverse on a space sixteen inches wide and thirty-two feet long.

Every local in Phoenix is working hard and the big parade in the morning will be a bumper. The line of march will be from the hall at 238 East Washington, west on Washington street to Second avenue, north on Second to Adams, east on Adams to Central and south on central to Jefferson, where the parade will disband and the marchers take auto to Riverside. Bert Davis, president of the Phoenix Trades Council, will be the grand marshal and the Pioneer band will furnish the music. The Trades Council will lead, forming in front of the hall at 238 East Washington. The locals will form as follows:

1. Carpenters, Fourth street north south of Jefferson.
2. Lathers, Fourth street north of Adams.
3. Barbers, Fourth street, south of Washington.
4. Cooks and Waiters, Fourth street south of Jefferson.
5. Electricians, Third street, north of Washington.
6. Musicians, Third street, north of Adams.
7. Painters, Third street, south of Washington.
8. Plasterers, Third street, south of Jefferson.
9. Plumbers, Second street, north of Washington.
10. Pressmen, Second street, north of Adams.
11. Tailors, Second street above pressmen.
12. Theatrical Protective Association, Second street, south of Washington.
13. Typographical, Second street, south of Jefferson.

The Message of the Sea
Manager Gavaness has arranged an exceptionally good program for his patrons today. His leading feature is a Gaumont special—than which there are none better—entitled "The Message of the Sea", while he also has a splendid Vitaphone single reel called "Buffalo Jim", a picture that took the east by storm for the time that it was running. The last reel on the program is a stirring story of police and politics "Let No Man Escape", from the Esplanade studios at Chicago, in which Francis X. Bushman and Bryant Washburn take prominent parts.
