Metireery started out as though he would blank the visitors in both hits they put up, but everybody will be and runs. But Rolly Pomeroy stopped better satisfied when the lid's off. all those fool notions in the fourth and training ended. It was slow-Demaggio could get it. Also, Rolly pearance of the entire Phoenix crew had done some very creditable work in fashionable wearables put out by out in the field, himself. In fact, there seemed to be no disposition on the part of the locals to let very many balls get into Morris' mit, so every one of 'em accepted at least taken charge of the concessions at the one delivery of Mr. Leechy Oviedo's park, and is going to prove a very to slam out into the midst of the players. One result was that Pomgroy acquired five puts outs so quic that his head rang-or should it be spelled wrang?

Mesa got five safeties out of itand would you believe it-four of them were for two sacks each? The old gag about being a good old ba player if he could just hit, received considerable jolt from this little lin of facts, but it was also noticeable that whenever hits meant run Messrs. McGreery and Toner didn distribute very many hits. ability to tighten up in a pinch what gets more than one hurler with his manager.

As a pitcher, Herb Hester was some fielder, He broke a solemn he substituted that busky and reheaded person for McGreery in th venth. And Toner lolled aroutrying to get the stiff out of his arr until Griffen and others had wrun him for three hits and a run in h two innings, and then to square Hester traded jobs with him. As have remarked, Hester pitched thousand per cent in the fielding de partment. In that first of the nint he made Griffen roll a lazy one down to Toner, and in crossing over to take the throw at the bag, beat the Runs .. big Tempean just enough so's Griff', Hits .... ## "A TURN OF LUCK" COLISEUM TONIGHT

Tonight at the Collseam the send of Bob McGreer's promised "sur prise plays" will be offered. This one s called "A Turn of Luck" and it is tabloid version of one of the most popular musical comedy sketches that ever graced the boards. The leads are in the bands of Rena Vivienne and Earl Hall. As "Feaches" W. L. Pet. Miss Vivienne will more than live up the name. The part will give her the best opportunity she has yet had had to demonstrate her great ability and no one will go away disappointed Earl Hall, too, will have a part after his own heart. It is a straight role and he will play it for all that it be seen as a couple of Hicks and if will not be because they don't

Bob McGreer, Eddy Young and rene Barker all have good parts and he chorus will be kept busy with a sungh of specialty numbers that promo make this the biggest hit the drama-Ellis Musical Comedy have yet put

"A Turn of Luck" means a good turn of luck for the audience. It will keep them busy following all the Edith Story and Romaine Fielding on that is crowded into the story more attractive than anything yet Try your luck at the Coliseum.
