RULES:

1. Any reader of THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN may compete in this contest except employees of this paper and members of their families.
2. On this page, each week for ten weeks, will appear ten questions, the answers to which will be found in the ads appearing on this page. Each week there will be ten different questions and each week $10 will be awarded to successful contestants in the following manner: $5 to the best and nearest correct list of answers; $3 to the next best and nearest correct list of answers; $2 to the third best and nearest correct list of answers.
3. In making the awards the judges will take into consideration the age of contestant, the neatness and originality displayed in submitting the answers as well as the correctness of the answers.
4. No answers will be considered which are written on both sides of the paper and all answers sent by mail must have sufficient postage to insure delivery.
5. The winners of the preceding week will be announced each Tuesday and all answers to receive consideration must reach the Business Office of The Republican not later than noon of Saturday following the publication of the questions.
6. The name and address of the advertiser must always appear in the answer to each question, no matter in what form the reply is sent in.
7. Upon the announcement of the names of successful contestants they may come or send to the Business Office of The Republican and receive the award.
8. Address all communications to The Busy Ad Man, care Republican. Write name and address on outside of envelope. Observe all rules carefully.
