DEBATE LABOR CONDITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Prospect of unemployment in the country was discussed briefly today in the senate. Senators Kenyon of Iowa and Smoot of Utah, republicans, were joined by Senator Thomas of Colorado, in expressing apprehension while Senator Lewis of Illinois, democrat, deprecated their statements and those of Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor and others, regarding probable depression.

Senator Kenyon, advocating his bill to extend $100,000,000 on public works to prevent unemployment, denied that any "alarmist" statements had been made and insisted that measures by congress to avert unemployment were necessary. Senator Smoot said he feared working men may soon be suffering and Senator Thomas declared that he had "apprehension" of unemployment.

Senator Lewis said the statements regarding labor conditions were "startling, wrong and unjustified." He challenged by Senator Kenyon, Mr. Lewis conceded that temporary distress may ensue, but declared the future of American industry bright.

JUDGES' SALARIES RAISED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Legislation to increase the salary of federal district judges to $7,500 a year, and circuit judges to $8,500 a year, was completed and sent to the White House today, with the adoption of a conference report by the senate.

OH, FRENCHY!

Poilu greeting his sweetheart.

The picture shows a French soldier who has survived the four years of war against the Germans greeting his sweetheart in Holland. When war broke out she fled to that country, where she would be out of danger. The meeting was their first since she fled from France. The poilu obtained leave to go to Holland to see her.

HEADS MOVEMENT TO AID FOREIGN TRADE

Irving T. Bush.

Plans to push America's foreign trade are now being put into execution by Irving T. Bush, president of the Bush Terminal Company. He is now in London arranging vast export plans which include a co-operative enterprise whereby American manufacturers will be able to show American goods to European buyers at a minimum of expense through use of mammoth display rooms in London similar to the huge structure already in use in New York city.

"FLU" IN CAMP AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Because of the prevalence of influenza and pneumonia in virulent form at Camp McClellan, Ala., Surgeon General Ireland has recommended that no more troops be sent there for demobilization until conditions improve. The army health report for the week ending January 24, made public today, showed 74 cases of pneumonia with 32 deaths, in a total strength of about 16,500 men, and 68 cases of influenza.

Outside of Camp McClellan and Camp Hancock, Ga., health conditions in the army camps were reported good. Camps in the south and southwest had relatively high incidence of influenza and pneumonia, as compared with camps in the north and northwest. For all camps, however, there was a decline in both diseases, compared with the week before.

TYPES OF BRITISH INDIANS ARE MANY

(S. Perkas Singh, Indian Y. M. C. A. Secretary in France, in Association Men.)
The different types of the Indian soldier consist of:
The Sikh, a devil-may-care fellow, inclined to be rowdy and fond of congregating round the wet canteen. Courageous and loyal hearted, but like Scotch whisky, the older the stock the better.

The Jat, of the good old rural class, obstinate and thick headed; fearless and rough. Prefers his own sect's company.
The Gurkha, above all a soldier (inside and outside a uniform). A cheery little chap, guileless of ideas. A bottle of beer, a football to kick and a victim for the khukri is all he wants.
The Punjabi Mohammedan. Proud looking, a good friend and a bad enemy. Says his prayers five times a day. Has his sins forgiven and begins method in his madness.

The Hindustani Mohammedan. All polish and manners. Screens his heart with a choice flowery language.
The Pathan. Manly, dignified, faithful, but fanatic and extremely revengeful. Generous, noble hearted and yet worse than a Jew when he takes to money lending. Though a prince of fellows, his feelings are a nest of hornets. Appears a simpleton, but has
