A very convincing argument can be presented to show the confidence Nash owners have in their cars by calling your attention to those owners who have prevailed upon their associates to duplicate their purchases, to show Nash owners who have repeated their purchases with us, and to let you see two, three, five or even six Nash cars in the same business house.

These are tests I can meet and that mean something.

CASE CONTINUED—By stipulation between R. E. L. Shepherd, county attorney, and counsel for the defendant, the case of Yerron Peters and Joe Brown, charged with driving a car while intoxicated, which was to have been heard in the court of Justice Nat T. McKee yesterday morning, was continued until Tuesday morning. Peters and Brown were arrested early in the week by federal officers and city policemen at Fourth and Washington streets. Federal charges of transporting and having in their possession intoxicating liquors also have been filed against them. They furnished a bond of $500 each for their appearance before United States Commissioner Henke.

GALAS ARRESTED—Joe Galas, a paroled prisoner from the state penitentiary, yesterday was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Meeks and Blanco on a felony warrant charging him with driving away from the scene of an accident after causing injury without stopping to give his name, license number or address. He was placed in the county jail to await arraignment on the charge. Galas is alleged to have struck a car of the Santa Central several days ago with a Ford car and to have left the place without stopping. He was released following the accident but was arrested when no charge was filed against him. The complaint was made against him by R. E. L. Shepherd, county attorney.

ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE—Monroe Pickering yesterday was arraigned before Justice Nat T. McKee on a charge of aggravated assault. The hearing was set for September 28 and he was committed to the county jail under a bond of $500. The complaint was made by Colby Thomas, who alleges Pickering struck him on the head with a rock, causing a laceration of the scalp, a fractured skull and a concussion of the brain. Pickering was charged with shooting at him six times with a revolver.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY—B. H. Valencia, proprietor of the Pioneer stables, yesterday pleaded not guilty in the superior court to a charge of transporting intoxicating liquor, and Judge Stanford set the case for trial on October 31. He was released under a bond of $500. The horse and buggy used by Valencia in the alleged transportation of the liquor was declared forfeited to the state by Judge Stanford yesterday and an order issued that he be sold at auction by the sheriff on Monday afternoon, September 26, at 1:30 o'clock. Valencia was arrested Friday night by Deputy Sheriff DeWitt Blanco and Meeks after they found a gallon of white mule whisky in the buggy which Valencia was driving down Jefferson street.

REWARD OFFERED—One hundred dollars reward! This is the amount that the state game warden's office has offered for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who was reported to have killed a doe and fawn during the past week. Word of this violation of the game law was brought to the attention of Joe V. Prochaska, game warden, through a local business firm and the warden immediately offered the reward.

FUNERAL OF L. R. WHITMER—Funeral services for L. R. Whitmer will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Merryman chapel. The Odd Fellows lodge of Glendale will have charge of the services. Interment will be in Forest Lawn cemetery. Friends and visiting Odd Fellows are invited to attend these services. Mr. Whitmer is survived by a wife and family, who live in San Antonio, Tex.

ALL CLAIM INSURANCE—Whether the Eisenhour Motor company or Sam Mfalkin of Globe are entitled to the insurance on an automobile purchased by Leon de la Mothe, will be determined by the state corporation commission when the matter comes up for hearing on Wednesday. The motor company filed complaint against Mfalkin as agent for the North British Mercantile company. The Eisenhour company sold a car to De la Mothe, the conditional sales contract being sold to the Commercial Credit company, of which Mfalkin is also agent. The car was destroyed by fire before the full payment was made and now both are claiming the insurance.
