The Borradaile new store rooms on Railroad avenue are rapidly approaching completion, and A. Simpier, proprietor of the "City Shoe Store," expects to be in his new quarters—the west room of the new buildings—on or about the 1st of February. The galvanized iron cornice work was placed in position yesterday.

The misunderstanding between the city authorities and the architect and contractor for the new building on the corner of Third street and Railroad avenue is settled. Architect Crilly was seen this morning and he stated that he had seen Mayor Subright this morning and that the mayor told him that the explanation of Contractor Strong was entirely satisfactory and they might proceed with the work.

The Attachment Suit.
The attachment suit brought by Weinman & Lawless against Miles Allen for the recovery of the money and chattels which they furnished the defendant in exchange for a worthless check, is on trial to-day before Justice Crawford.

This morning Messrs. Lewinson and Weinman testified to the transaction which they had with Allen. Marshal Cobert testified to arresting him and taking possession of the things in Allen's possession. The check, which was returned from Santa Fe with the information that there was no account there, was placed in evidence.

This afternoon the attorneys are engaged in a legal controversy.

Wyoff & Moore and Felix Lester are representing Allen and T. N. Wilkerson represents the plaintiff. The attorneys for the defendant have raised the question whether the money in the hands of Cobert as an officer can be attached, and this question is being argued pro and con at the time of going to press.

CONTINUATION OF
SPECIAL SALE

FOR ONE WEEK LONGER!
Until Saturday, Jan. 8, Inclusive

Ladies' Capes and Jackets—We still have an immense stock of these goods on hand. We don't want to keep one over. There is only one way to gain this end—Cut the Price. We're doing this with vim. Capes worth $2, now $1.25; capotes worth $5, now $3.50; capotes worth $8, now $4.50; Jackets worth $5, now $3.50; jackets worth $8, now $5; jackets worth $10, now $6.50. We are not giving fictitious values on these goods, but prices at which they sold.

Ladies' Kid Gloves—
We have been selling them for $1.25 to introduce them. They are splendid $1.50 value.
Your money back if they burst. During this sale at $1 per pair.

Underwear—For the whole family, 25 per cent off our regular prices.
These regular prices must have been way down, judging by the underwear we sold, and the public's verdict of same. This originally our $1.50 garments to $1.25; our $1.25 garments to $1; our $7 1/2-cg garments to 50c; our 75c garments to 50c; our 90c garments to 75c. And others at same rate.

Dress Skirts—Cut right, lined right, sewed right, and bought right.
All these qualities combine to make it an easy matter for us to sell them right, at all times, and sometimes to make people wonder how we can sell them so cheap. This is to be one of these times.
Remember, this is not a money-making scheme, but a closing out affair. Ladies' skirts worth $2, now $1.15; ladies' skirts worth $2.50, now $1.60; ladies' skirts
worth $3.25, now $2.25; ladies' skirts worth $5.50, now $3.75.

Dress Goods—There is nothing more appropriate or acceptable for a Christmas gift than a nice dress pattern.
We have a limitless assortment of these goods at a most varied range of prices.
Dress goods worth 25c, now 17 1/2c; dress goods worth 50c, now 33c; novelty goods worth 75c, now 47c; all wool ladies' cloth, 32 in. wide, worth 50c, now 30c; dress patterns worth $1, now $4.25; dress patterns worth $2, now $5.75; dress patterns worth $3, now $7.25. Many more equally good values too numerous to mention.

Ladies' Belts, Pocket Books, Linen and Silk Handkerchiefs at equally reduced prices. White Hemstitched and Scalloped Handkerchiefs at 3 for 25c

ROSENWALD BROS.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Personal and General Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There.

Daniel Cassidy was this morning appointed postmaster at Cleveland, N. M.

J. H. Kuhns, the general storekeeper for the Santa Fe Pacific, left this morning on a freight train for Gallup.

A girl, baby, weighing fourteen and one-half pounds, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Grande, 309 Tijeras avenue, at 9 o'clock this morning.

Otto Richter, formerly a wealthy dry goods merchant of La Porte, Ind., is here for his health and also looking for a location. He is visiting with Judge Crumpacker this afternoon.

Last night Justice Ribble joined in marriage Juan Martinez and Miss Annie Oppenorth, after which he blessed them in his usual bland and happy manner. J.
J. Oliphant and wife witnessed the ceremony.

Wilson H. Morrow, a former resident of this city, has located in Pawnee, Okla., and is the editor of the Pawnee Dispatch.
Mr. Morrow will be pleasantly remembered here by his numerous musical friends.

The Bittern company, now down in southern New Mexico, will pass up the road in a few days and appear at Santa Fe. K. Billings, the advance agent, came in from the south last night and is now at Santa Fe.

Leonard Skinner, the saw miller at San Antonio, out in the Sandia mountains, is here to-day, and states that the valleys of the mountains are practically dry, and in consequence there is very little good grass.

The only attraction in either old or new Albuquerque, this evening, as far as THE CITIZEN can learn, will be the grand free concert at Orchestra hall, and Manager Trimble invites the public to attend. After the concert, which will last about an hour, there will be dancing for several hours.

"We will be in the swim for a short time now," said Oreste Bachechi this morning, when he pointed to a hundred or more barrels filled with Lemps bottled beer, and which had been unloaded in front of the wholesale house of Bachechi & Giomi. As Capt. Ed. Kaufman, the Lemps representative, said the other day: "We can't be beat and Bachechi & Giomi know it."

Hon. B. S. Rodey, the Railroad avo-cates, who was east on a visit to his wife and children, and incidentally made a trip to Washington, D. C., returned last night, and called this morning at this office. He is a candidate for the office of United States attorney for New Mexico, and stated that he secured, while at Washington, the names of half a dozen senators, who agreed to work for his appointment.

A. M. Blackwell and B. W. Kelly, two big guns of the wholesale grocery establishment of Gross, Blackwell & Co., and their special bookkeeper, C. C. Robbins, came in from Las Vegas last night, and registered at Sturges' European. They are to-day inspecting the store and books at their Albuquerque home, and that Manager C. F. Waugh and Bookkeeper Karickson all right.

C. R. Snyder, J. Bullock and T. Botton, the former with his wife, came in from Eria, Kansas, last night and registered at the Highland house. The men are farmers, and while here will look up some valley lands for the purpose of locating and becoming identified with the property now prevailing in this city and valley.

M. C. Turner has been appointed substitute mail carrier by Postmaster Grunfeld pending the civil service examination. Another will be appointed within a week or two so that the regular carriers can take their vacations.

H. H. Stone, conductor at Williams, and J. G. Metrail, engineer at Winslow, both popular and worthy employees of the Santa Fe Pacific railway, are in the city and have their names on the register at the Highland house.

Frank Booth is now the stenographer and secretary at E. J. Post & Co.'s, and under the efficient management of Bookkeeper Campbell, he will soon become a capital hardware manipulator.

Mrs. Dora W. Howard, the wife of the editor of the Bee, has been appointed postmistress at San Marcial as successor to Mrs. M. A. Vencelli, who has held the office for many years.

True to our well established custom never to carry over goods from one season to another, we will start in next week to close out all of our Winter Goods at prices never before approached.

Wait for announcement in next issue of this paper.

from the north last night and has his name on the register at Sturges' European.

Rev. Henry Evans, of Denver, left last night for Bland, where he will assume the duties of the Methodist church. Rev.
Evans spent several days in this city.

Capt. Sol. Block, the general merchant and Indian trader at Grants, out west, was here yesterday, purchasing goods and receiving New Year congratulations from Albuquerque merchants.

Capt. C. M. Tyler and F. M. Eddings, ex-Missourians, met at the depot last night their friend, J. P. Edwards, of Butter. Mr. Edwards had been down in the Mesilla valley, and is now on his way home.

Louis Smith, who was in the employ of the Santa Fe Pacific at Winslow, now holds a position for the company at Gallop, where he and wife reside. Mrs.
Smith is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.
McCue, of this city.

The chief engineer of the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company, F. E. Harrison, accompanied by his wife, came in from Santa Fe last night, and registered at Sturges' European. Mr. Harrison is in fine trim to start his work on the new ditch, and expects to move along the proposed route, setting stakes, in a few days.

Col. R. W. Dobson returned to the city last night. He was called to his old home at Fort Madison, Iowa, by the death of his father about two weeks ago. He visited with his people for one week and then went to Chicago. He and Clerk of Court Owen went out to La Fort, Ind., and spent one day pleasantly at the home of Judge Crumpacker in that city.

Dr. A. D. Smith and wife, of Winchester, Ind., will arrive from the east tonight, and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Gainsley. Mrs. Smith being a sister of Mrs. Gainsley. The doctor, who years ago was a popular dentist of this city and then moved and won his wife, see Miss Wright, will remain here for a few days and then continue to Los Angeles, his wife remaining during his absence with her Albuquerque relatives.

GOLDEN RULE DRY GOODS CO.

On account of the big business last week we were unable to take inventory. We will continue our Inventory Sale this week. Remember, this is positively the last week to get the benefit of very low prices.

To Clean up Cloaks and Capes.
Many of you have waited for this great sale; you have not waited in vain. The cloaks must go. It isn't a question of loss, that's not considered. Stylish, up-to-date garments were never sold at such a sacrifice before in this section. All Cloaks and Capes the Price is cut in two.
All go at one-half former price.

That Dress Goods Stock.
Is top heavy. We've gone carefully through it and cut prices right and left. There'll be some empty dress goods fixtures in this store a week hence.

Colored Dress Goods.
Former price, 35c to 45c per yard. Now 25c.

Another Lot of Novelty Goods.
Former price from 50c to 75c per yard. Now 35c.

The Black Goods.
Must go along with the rest. Staple as wheat; good as gold, but that won't save them from sacrifice. We said that this sale should reach every corner of the store and we meant it, every word. All profits cut off. These Black Dress Goods at actual cost.

A Silk Slide.
Bunched into lots are many of these beauties, some at one-half, some at two-thirds early season's prices. Silks for waists, silks for gowns, silks for any purpose, and priced on a par with ordinary woolsens. Silks at 25c, 25c, 30c, 40c, 50c, 75c and 90c per yard. Who cannot afford a silk dress, waist or skirt at these prices?

A Handkerchief Hustle.
Several big lots that were used in the Christmas decorations will be sold. Nothing wrong with them but the price and dust. 5c buys any of the lot. 10c buys initial Silk Handkerchiefs.

Here's a Corset Chance.
All odd lines, broken assortments of size or color, no matter how staple, stacked upon the counter in lots and reduced to prices that will move them in a jiffy. If your size or style of corset is among them, then you're in luck.
All go at 50c each, worth up to $1.50 each.

Housekeeping Goods.
At mill prices, but it's only for a week, and we've set out to give our buying public a benefit that they'll talk about.
We are going to sell, cottons, shirtings, sheetings, outing flannels, towels, crapes, etc., at such prices that you can well afford to replenish your home outfit for months to come. Good Bleached and Unbleached Muslins, 5c; Shirtings, 4c per yard; Sheetings, 12 1/2c to 20c; Outing Flannels, 5c to 8 1/2c; Towels from 5c upwards; Crapes from 3c upwards.

The Blankets, the Bedspreads, the Comforts.
All have been stripped of their legitimate profits and turned loose to swell the procession thus: One-third off Former Prices. A big lot of short
