THE WOMAN BEHIND THE POCKETBOOK.

Is the customer we appeal to. To be sure, she wants the best grocery staples and table luxuries, but she wants no overcharging for that "best." We're not a bit afraid of her, for the simple reason that our prices can't be beaten for the same quality. As a matter of convenience, we will call for and deliver orders at regular stated intervals, or in a hurry if you use the phone.

Office of Ostermoor & Co., New York, Aug. 22, 1905.
O. W. Strong's Sons, Albuquerque, N. M.
Gentlemen—We acknowledge with thanks, your favor of the 17th, ordering fifty "Ostermoor" mattresses, assorted coverings, which carries with it exclusive sale for your city.
The twenty mattresses ordered previously were being shipped when we wrote our last letter, and we do not include this twenty in your order for the fifty. We trust this will be satisfactory to you, as it means that we must refuse to ship any other orders from Albuquerque.
We shall proceed with the work on the fifty at the earliest moment, and trust to be able to ship them within the next few weeks. Again thanking you for this large order, we are very truly yours,

The remains were taken in charge by O. W. Strong's Sons and are held awaiting advices from relatives. It is very probable that the remains will be buried in this city.

Mrs. C. J. Westly, wife of the chief millwright of the American Lumber company, died at her apartments last night as a result of a complication of diseases. The deceased is 26 years of age and is survived by a husband and daughter, besides other near relatives. The funeral was held this afternoon from the undertaking chapel of O. W. Strong's Sons and burial was in Fairview cemetery.

"You Certainly Auto Come to the Torrance County Fair, September 11-12," is the inscription on a badge issued by the Torrance County Fair association. The front of the badge carries a picture of an auto, and the back of it is a mirror. The badge dangles from the lapel of the coat by red and yellow ribbons fastened by a gold pin, and is one of the cleverest advertising features ever gotten out in the southwest.

The territorial fair is coming! You'll see who keeps things rolling then! All hailin', sprinklin' will be done By the Albuquerque Transfer men.

Don't wait for an explosion—cook with gas—the humane way.

THE DIEKMANN CONCERT ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The Bruno Diekmann concert will be the highlight of the Elks' opera house on Friday night, when the musical people of Albuquerque will have an opportunity of enjoying the young man since his second trip abroad, under the tutelage of the best instructors of the old world. Bruno Diekmann's natural ability as a violinist was heard while in its infancy by the people of Albuquerque. On his first return from abroad last year Mr. Diekmann astonished a large musical audience by a wonderful show of improvisation. It is his improvement during the past winter is anywhere near as great as after the first year abroad, those who attend on Friday night may expect something more than a treat.

The program is as follows:
Concerto No. 23—Moderato...Violin Bruno Diekmann.
Sonata Op. 55—Allegro...Beethoven Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Himoe.
Suite III—Adagio...Ries Bruno Diekmann.
Figaro—Günther Alsin II Momento Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Himoe.
Mrs. Maude Summers-Schwenter.

DOOM OF THE DOGS IN CITY OF PORTLAND

IGORROTES ARRIVED AT LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION, AND BEGIN THEIR CANINE CAROUSALS.

After many vexatious delays, the band of head-hunting, dog-eating-igorrotos from the island of Luzon have arrived at last, and the Lewis and Clark exposition is now the scene of daily tomtom dances and frequent dog feasts. Poor Pido and his brother Carlo are hiding out, but the Igorrotos will get them sooner or later, for they have less than six weeks in which to devour all of Portland's surplus dogs. The Igorrotos, forty in number, male and female, arrived at Vancouver, B. C., aboard the United States steamship Athenian, direct from Manila. They were taken to Manila from their homes in the remote hills of the island, never before having seen a civilized city. These Igorrotos are not the one who were at St. Louis last year; they are quite new to America, and their first taste of United States dog was enjoyed in their village at the Portland exposition a couple of days after their arrival.

The village awaited them in what may be called skeleton form, and they set to work and covered the frame works of their houses with material which they brought along. An Igorrote would not feel at home in a house entirely made by other hands.

The Igorrote village is located next to Homer Davenport's pheasant farm at the edge of the Trail, and the weird music of the tomtoms is heard every day and evening.

Chop! Chop! Chop!

Tiresome, isn't it, to get down the chopping bowl and knife and prepare something for the next meal? But the tiresome method is out of date. You can do the work with Sargent's Gem Food Chopper—and do it better—with but little labor. The Gem chops all kinds of food in coarse, medium or fine pieces, as desired. Useful in the preparation of substantial and desserts. You need it in your kitchen every day.
