BEGIN CONSTRUCTION OF NEW BUILDINGS MONDAY

White City for the Congress Will be Completed as Rapidly as Possible.

The building committee of the board of control of the Sixteenth National Irrigation congress and International Industrial exposition decided this morning that it would notify the contractors given contracts for the erection of exposition buildings that construction must begin Monday. The contract for the Agricultural building, which will be the most pretentious building on the exposition grounds, was let to A. W. Hayden. Contractor Wallace Hensel secured the building of the Forestry and Machinery building, and the Horticultural building will be built by Contractor Stevens, who is now engaged in building the Convention hall. Stevens will be given more time for the fulfillment of his contract than the others. The contract for the addition to be made to the grandstand is to be let yet. The Casino, the old Floral hall and Society hall, the first two owned by the Albuquerque Traction company and the last named owned by the Mutual Benefit society, have been secured by the board of control and will form a part of the White City. In all there will be ten large exposition buildings and a large number of small ones.

To Visit All Counties.
 With the exposition buildings in course of construction, the board of control will be free to proceed with other matters pertaining to the congress and exposition. A committee will make a tour of the territory within ten days for the purpose of arousing more enthusiasm in the outlying counties. The program of this committee has not been completed but it is understood that a visit will be paid every county seat in the territory. Col. W. S. Hopewell, Col. Twitchell and Governor Curry, it is believed, will head this committee. Col. Hopewell, chairman of the board of control, said this morning that he was well pleased with the progress being made in all departments. More trophies and prizes are coming in daily, and the exhibits from Washington will begin to arrive next week. The building of the exposition building is the most important matter in hand just now.

More Trophies.
 Col. Hopewell received a letter this morning from Charles Reinken, secretary of the John Becker company, of Belen, in which Mr. Reinken said that the Singer Sewing Machine company had promised the John Becker company that it would offer the best machine made by the company for the best exhibition of New Mexico grown sugar beets shown at the exposition. A large acreage of beets has been planted in the vicinity of Belen and all up and down the Rio Grande valley for that matter, and there will likely be a strong rivalry for this prize. The prize is one of the most practical and useful yet offered for any agricultural or horticultural exhibit.

Word was received this morning from Denver that the American Livestock association, with headquarters at Denver, had decided to give two prizes for livestock exhibits made at the New Mexico livestock show, which will be held in connection with the International Industrial exposition. The letter bearing the good news was signed by T. W. Tomblin, secretary of the association. The prizes will be silver cups. One will be offered for the best carload of range feeding cattle and the other will be for the best carload of range feeding lambs.

WOODMEN LODGES ARE RECOGNIZED BY HEAD CAMP

Lodge in Session at Peoria Votes to Extend Jurisdiction to New Mexico.

"New Mexico O. K. Voted in this morning."
 The above telegram was received this afternoon from C. O. Young, who is at the head camp of the Modern Woodmen, now meeting at Peoria, Ill. as a representative from Palmer Social Camp of Albuquerque, and it is good news to the Woodmen in New Mexico who rejoice that their fight to have New Mexico admitted to the jurisdiction of the Woodmen lodge has ended successfully.

It is also an assured fact that an official camp of the Woodmen will be established at Albuquerque and that the Woodmen affairs for the territory will be administered through the lodge here.
 The Woodmen located in New Mexico have been making a hard fight to gain recognition from the head camp of the organization and though they were practically assured of victory some time ago through a high official of the order, they decided to send Mr. Young as representative to the head camp in order that the matter would not be overlooked. In addition to Mr. Young several members of Palmer Social Camp attended the sessions at Peoria, and assisted in having New Mexico's claims brought before the camp.

They pinned badges on the delegates, and impressed them with the fact that New Mexico Woodmen were asking only for their rights. They also assisted materially in advertising the International exposition in this city this fall by distributing advertising matter at Peoria and on their way to the meeting.

SHERMAN IS ALL RIGHT SAYS ATTORNEY KLOCK

Albuquerque Man Well Acquainted With Vice Presidential Nominee and Says He Will Add Strength to the Ticket.

George S. Klock of this city is very well acquainted with Hon. James S. Sherman, who was nominated today at Chicago, for vice president of the United States on the Republican ticket. Mr. Sherman resides in Utica, New York, which was Mr. Klock's former place of residence, before removing to this city. Mr. Sherman has represented the 27th New York district in the House of Representatives since 1886, excepting in the 52nd Congress, the years 1891 and 1892. Mr. Klock was asked for his estimate of Mr. Sherman. He said:

"I have known Mr. Sherman since 1874 and from 1879 until 1902, the year I left Oneida county, was very closely associated with him in the politics of our district. Mr. Sherman is a man of very great ability, of cordial manners and agreeable disposition. He has rendered very important service to the United States, always as found on the American side of public questions. He has originated much useful legislation and which has been of great benefit to his country."

"His service as chairman of the committee on Indian affairs has been of special importance to the territories of New Mexico and Arizona."

"Mr. Sherman was graduated from Hamilton college, New York, in 1878, and immediately entered upon a public career. The first public position conferred upon him was that of mayor of the city of Utica in 1884. In 1886 he was first elected to Congress and has been continued in that position with the exception above stated."

"I knew the father of Mr. Sherman quite well. General R. U. Sherman. The general was an important factor in the public life of New York state, and represented the first Oneida district in the New York state assembly for several terms. His services were very much appreciated, when a member of the body. All members of the Sherman family have taken a very great interest in public affairs and have executed every public duty conscientiously and with credit to their constituents."

"Mr. Sherman is chairman of the national Congressional committee, and it was under his leadership that the 60th Congress was chosen. Mr. Sherman is very popular throughout the state of New York, and will attract to the Republican ticket a very cordial support, not only from members of his own party but from other parties."

Mr. Sherman, I personally know, has always been friendly to the people and to the interests of New Mexico and his nomination for vice president will give much strength to the general movement advanced now so prominently for the admission of New Mexico to the Union as a single state. Mr. Sherman is in his 54th year and is in good health, and an orator of power."

DONAHUE BOUND OVER WITHOUT SAIL TO GRAND JURY

Hearing This Afternoon Also Results in Witnesses Being Held Under Bond.

Jack Donahue, charged with shooting and killing Justiniano Chaves at the Badaracco Summer Garden Wednesday night, will have to remain in jail until the September term of the Bernalillo county district court. Justice of the Peace Romero this afternoon refused to admit him on bail to await the action of the grand jury. The action of the committing magistrate was a surprise to the spectators, considering the evidence of the two prosecuting witnesses, Ambrosio Peres and Martin Garcia.

Peres and Garcia were the only witnesses summoned at the hearing today. The defense desired to ask both witnesses questions regarding what they told Judge Romero the night of the killing when they called at his house. Peres reiterated his testimony of yesterday, which was merely that Chaves had been shot and that he and Garcia wanted him to come and see him. Garcia went a little farther, saying that Judge Romero told them that they ought to go for the police and that he told the judge that Chaves was killed by Donahue. This last bit of evidence was not drawn from the witnesses by the attorneys but by the court. The court asked Garcia if he did not say at the house that night that Donahue had killed Chaves.

The defense was somewhat confused as a result of not being able to summon Judge Romero as a witness in the case. Judge Heacock, who is assisting Attorney Medler in the defense, said this afternoon that he did not know at the beginning of the case that Judge Romero was at the killing or he would have summoned him as a witness. The committing magistrate will, with all probability, be summoned before the grand jury.

At the opening of the brief arguments at the close of the testimony, Judge Heacock, speaking for the defense, said that if every part of the evidence produced at the preliminary hearing were true it would not be sufficient to prove the probable guilt of the defendant. The defendant was not placed on the witness stand and the defense offered no witnesses. At the close of the arguments, when the court announced his decision of holding Donahue without bond, the defense made a plea that the witnesses Garcia and Peres also be placed under bond. Judge Heacock said that he wanted no better evidence than that of the witnesses to prove the defendant not guilty. Garcia and Peres were ordered to furnish bonds in the sum of $100 each to appear before the next grand jury as witnesses.
 The gun from which the fatal shot was fired is still missing, though another search was made for it yesterday afternoon. It was believed that the gun might be hidden some place in the vicinity of the summer garden. The buildings and the garden were searched and the acquia, which runs a hundred feet away from where Chaves was killed, was dragged, but without success.

At the hearing yesterday the witnesses reiterated the testimony given before the coroner's jury, with a few variations. Peres and Garcia still maintained that they were thrust from the saloon by Webb without cause. The testimony of Peres was a little clearer on the point of what happened to Ed Haines when the latter was knocked down. Peres said that he saw Haines fall but did not know who hit him. There was some confusion in the testimony as to how long it was after the time Haines was knocked down and the shooting. One witness said that it was several minutes and the other said that it was only a moment. In his testimony yesterday Haines said that he remembered seeing Chaves walking about excited before he was struck from behind, and that he had an intuition, just before things became a blank, that someone was coming after him. Haines did not hear the shooting.
