SPARKS FROM DOUGLAS ISLAND

DOUGLAS, Nov. 13.—Word was received on the last Jefferson that D. Webster, manager of the Treadwell store, stood the trip to Seattle quite well but was not improved in health. There will be a meeting of the firemen at the Treadwell club this evening. After the meeting Hose Company, No. 6, will entertain with a program and refreshments. Douglas firemen are invited.

E. C. Kilburn, a brother of Wm. Kilburn, the shift boss at the Treadwell mine, was an arrival on the Jefferson.

Bert Graham left yesterday for a few weeks' vacation at Tenakee.

Ed Atchison, of the cyanide plant, has entered St. Ann's hospital a victim of the grip.

J. E. Woods, an old-time resident of Treadwell, returned from Valdez on the Mariposa and has accepted a position with the electrical force.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burk entertained at dinner last evening.

Miss Bertha Riedl, a sister of Geo. Riedl, who was operated on for appendicitis, will leave the Weyerhorst hospital this week.

Frank Mull, formerly employed at the Treadwell barber shop, returned on the Jefferson from the States.

Today is ladies' day at the Treadwell swimming tank.

Odin Hewit underwent an operation for tumor in his arm at the Weyerhorst hospital yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Manners and daughter, Miss Elsie, were southbound passengers on the Jefferson for their home in California.

The flooring is being laid in the new gymnasium at Treadwell, which will soon be completed.

Anier Wasdahl, alias "240" Swede, will sing his favorite song at the firemen's smoker tonight.

May and Esther Cashen are rejoicing over a new "Armstrong" plane bought by their father Mr. Jerry Cashen.

Henry Van Holder, of the Mexican, was operated on by Dr. Weyerhorst yesterday, for blood-poisoning in his right hand.

James Daniels, foreman at the Mexican mill, is expected home on the next trip of the Spokane.

Mrs. W. Schramm received slight injuries by falling down the slippery sidewalk yesterday morning.

Mrs. Burry and baby will leave the Weyerhorst hospital this week.

J. Hopper and family came from Skagway on the Jefferson to make their home in Douglas.

The City of Rome has been put into its winter quarters on Mayflower island.

The Orpheum theatre in Douglas, as conducted by Spickett & Melvor, is having phenomenal success. The patronage is so strong that Melvor has determined to have a full vaudeville performance every night from now on.

FISH TRAPS CLAIMED TO BE A MENACE

A petition asking for the abolition of fish traps in Alaska waters is being circulated among the natives of the coast by O. M. Pley, a fisherman. Other petitions are being generally circulated with the same object in view. It is claimed that the fish traps are a menace to the food supply of the natives, and that under the present system they threaten to deplete the waters of salmon and thus seriously injure a most important industry and deprive many white, as well as native fishermen, of the means of making a livelihood.

The petitions will be presented to Congress and the territorial legislature, and a native delegation, it is said will go to Washington.

TANNER NOW LEADS STUBBINS

The official returns are not all in as yet, but the precincts to be heard from will not make any material change in the standing of the candidates. The only precinct of importance not reported is Craig on Prince of Wales island. The Socialists will likely have the largest vote there when the returns come in. The returns from Sulzer were received yesterday but brought no change in the Shoup-Reck race for position in the legislature, as neither of them received a vote in the precinct.

Stubbins who was in the lead on the non-partisan ticket by one vote, drops into second place with Tanner leading by the same margin. The vote of Sulzer increases Tanner to 848; Stubbins, 847; Shoup the low man on the ticket has 626, while Reck, the high Progressive, has 596. Appended is the vote of Sulzer.

Tripp 7, Tanner 9, Valentine 0, Le Fevre 0, Bland 13, Swanson 11, Ingersoll 9, Shoup 0, Stubbins 7, Svindseth 7, Thompson 9, Reck 0, Dawes 0, Olson 0, Thomas 1, Twelt 11, Noland 11, Heath 11, Stukey 11; total 21.

COURT TERM IN TWO DIVISIONS

The term of court which opens here on December 9, will be presided over by Judge Peter D. Overfield of the Third division, while Judge Lyons will hold court at Valdez. The most important cases set for trial at that place are the Washington-Alaska bank cases, in which Capt. E. T. Barnette and others have been indicted on various charges.

Judge Overfield will open a term of court at Cordova on Dec. 14, where there are a number of cases to be tried, among them that of the United States against Joseph F. Diggs, former postmaster of Cordova, who is charged with embezzlement of post-office moneys.
