FAIRBANKS STAGE MAKES GOOD TIME

The Fairbanks stage arrived in Valdez yesterday at noon, making the run in nine days and twelve hours, which is considered good traveling for this time of year. When about a mile outside of town the stage, while coming at a swift gate, ran into a stump, precipitating the passengers into near by snow banks. One of them, Mrs. M. McIntyre, received quite a shock from the unceremonious fall, but fortunately escaped serious injury. The passengers from Fairbanks were: Mrs. M. McIntyre, A. T. Scheller and Jos. Voeghtlin.

Another in-coming stage left Tonsina yesterday morning.

Earl Hyde arrived from Cordova in a small boat, just in time to see the Yucatan, on which he desired to sail, cast off her lines and depart.
