THE GREAT TENAKEE SULPHUR SPRINGS

BETTER KNOWN AS

The Famous Hoonah Hot Springs.

An analysis has been made of the Springs and it is proven beyond a doubt that they are the most beneficial medical springs west of the Mississippi river.
The water contains magnesia, iron, sulphur and many other curative properties. Tenakee has a postoffice, and a general store competing with any general merchandise store in Alaska.

A First-class Restaurant has lately been established. Fish and game served—both kept for guests—prices moderate. Hunting unexcelled. Bear and deer are plenty, gr.ouse pheasant, geese and ducks in season, climate mildest in Alaska, scenery grand, wide beach and no surf. Rooms, cottages and cabins for rent—everything furnished except bedding Take steamer Georgia leaving Juneau every six days. For further particulars write ED. SNYDER TENAKEE, ALASKA.

Claire,

THE WELL KNOWN MILLINER OF JUNEAU AND DOUGLAS
Has opened her Winter stock of Millinery

AT MRS. LAUGHLIN'S 3d St.

The Millinery this Season is most elegant and durable, at prices quite reasonable. CLAIRE has something to suit all. The ladies will do well to call early to get the best selections; all are invited to call and see, whether they wish to purchase or not. Remember the place, Mrs. Laughlin's, Third street, Douglas.

FOR SELF-GOVERNMENT.

The latest champion for self-government for Alaska is the Pittsburg Dispatch. It sees in the constant troubles with administration in this district symptoms of the evils of attempting to govern a people without their consent.

The Dispatch says:
"The rumored removal of judicial officers in Alaska and the scarcely disguised statement that this was necessary to protect the people of that territory from being plundered by the very official machinery instituted to secure them justice has deeper significance than the breaking up of a single set of rascals.

"In the first place it illustrates the difficulty of sending officials by the political doctrine of selection to govern distant territories without the check of representative institutions. In the case of the judge whose original abuses led to his removal some time ago the use of his judicial power to take away men's property was proved in a higher court, and the punishment of removal and imprisonment was inflicted. Now Assistant Attorney General Day's investigations disclose that the appalling violation of judicial integrity is not confined to one case, and a number of other removals are announced or foreshadowed.
It is plain that the people of Alaska have had no protection against flagrant official injustice, and they are not likely to have any permanent security against the recurrence of such things until they have some sort of representation, both in their territory and at Washington."

AN EMERGENCY MEDICINE.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one third of the time required by the usual treatment. As it is an antiseptic all danger from blood poisoning is avoided. Sold by J. Heubner.

W. B. Hoggatt, of Juneau, upon reaching his former home in Indiana, gave the following to the local press:
"The business men in Alaska are generally opposed to a territorial form of government. The politicians and professional men are the ones that favor a territorial government. It would create offices which they would like to fill.
Now the only officers we elect are municipal officers. We elect city councils and fight over them as vigorously as the people here in the states fight over the election of higher officers. All officers other than municipal are appointed by the government at Washington. There are 27,000 miles of coast line and only about 35,000 residents of Alaska. There are few crimes in Alka. Often, I think the less government there is, the better the people are. Of course we have our local community codes. In the last fifteen years there have been only three murders in southeastern Alaska." Mr. Hoggatt estimates that one-third of the entire population spends the winter in the United States or other countries. The people leave Alaska in the fall and return in the spring.

MUST BE QUICK.

Pains in the stomach and attacks of the colic come on so suddenly and are so extremely painful that immediate relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of sending for a doctor in such cases if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. No doctor can prescribe a better medicine. For sale by J.
Heubner.

The searching investigation by Judge Day rubbed the skin off the back of several "hosses" in this neck of the woods and we had concluded not to ride 'em any more for a while, but so long as the sons-of-guns kick when we stick the spur into them we like to see 'em buck. It took us nearly three years to get them lassoed and now we are entitled to a little fun watching them throw themselves when we put our new Gunnison saddle on 'em.
Whoa, you bronchos.—Juneau Transcript.

CURED PARALYSIS.

W. S. Bally, P. O. True, Texas, writes:
"My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frostbites and skin eruptions. It does the work," 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by J. Heubner.

The Juneau Transcript says: John Johnston, the mining broker, who recently bonded the Mammoth Group, consisting of eleven claims on Lone Mountain on Admiralty Island, has rebonded them to an eastern syndicate represented by W. H. Hile, the well known mining engineer, for the sum of $765,000. This is the property known here as the States-Stratton property on Admiralty Island about thirty miles southwest of Juneau.

Business men of Alaska will submit a plan to the United States government for the dredging of Dry Strait, near Wrangell Narrows. It is claimed by Alaska residents that the route will shorten the distance between Seattle and Juneau more than fifteen miles and save the great expense of widening and deepening the narrows. The government has been considering improving Wrangell Narrows for the past two years. Major Mills has made the necessary surveys and the plans have been forwarded to Washington. It will require at least $2,000,000 to remove obstructions from the channel and dredge out sand and mud banks. It is estimated by those promoting the plan that Dry Strait could be dredged and secured from danger of refilling for $500,000.—Alaskan.
