

THE DAILY APPEAL

H. R. Mighels: Editor.

Sunday Morning, Nov. 10, 1867

THE NEW YORK HERALD takes occasion to stir up an excitement through the medium of one of its special, traveling correspondents in the South. The hobgoblin story that "a negro uprising" is imminent in Virginia is, no doubt, the creation of an active imagination stimulated by a wish to make a certain sort of capital which may be made available for the purposes and plans of the President, in whose interest the Herald is at present employed. The idea that the freedmen who remained so quiet and peaceful at a time when their liberties were being fought for are, now that their freedom has been attained, meditating the massacre of the "Chivs" is as preposterous as its originator is unreliable. These specious outcries of alarm are no new trick with the gaunt wolves of rebellion. The man who threatened to shoot any sheep that bit him was in just about the sort of peril that besets the ex-slaveholders. But if they can contrive a pretext for the formation of a standing army like that which has been recruited in Maryland, we may be sure they will do it and that the Herald will help them, so long as it pays.

BRITISH COLUMBIA, which embraces Vancouver Island, the Fraser River country and New Caledonia is said to have a majority of citizens who are in favor of annexation to the United States. The infusion of Yankee enterprise and spirit which the mining excitement of a few years since brought about, operating upon the impatience felt by the colonists of the cumbersome and oppressive rule of the English Government would very naturally create this preference. It would seem that annexation is to be desired for many good reasons, not the least of which is the isolated position of that part of the British possession, sandwiched as it is between Washington Territory and the new American acquisition of "Wahusla." The annexationists no doubt perceive the advantages which would be derived from having their country represented by a Delegate at Washington, and are also actuated by a desire to reap the many benefits which would result from free trade with California and Oregon. The peaceable acquisition of that belt of territory is much to be desired by this Republic.

THE LOUISIANA REPUBLICANS have certainly enunciated very broad and liberal views as the substance of their platform, if reports be true. "Universal suffrage, universal amnesty, universal education and no confiscation" are at once thoroughly in conformity with a Republican form of government and, at the same time, as generous as even Horace Greeley would ask. We certainly hope that Louisiana may be safely reconstructed upon this wise and liberal plan—if it shall be made to appear that the advantages which will accrue to the ex-rebels thereby will not be seized upon to the injury of that State and the nation.

THE NEXT PRESIDENCY.—A Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, of the 8th October, has the following:

The nomination of General Grant, by the Republican Convention, is generally spoken of as a foregone conclusion. Senator Wilson, Speaker Colfax and General Howard are three of the names mentioned with his for the second place on the ticket. Every body considers that Wade is dead so far as the Presidency is concerned, and almost everybody admits that Chase is in the same boat. Herat Seymour will undoubtedly go before the next Democratic Convention with strong backers. Andrew Johnson will be so dead by that time that even the secessionists will almost decline to touch him. General Sherman will not be in the market for anybody's bidding. Just now McClellan's stock is in the ascendant. There are many persons who believe the Democrats will find him their most available man.

MORE OF THE MRS. LINCOLN SCANDAL.—The man who held the position of gardener at the White House, during a portion of the late Mr. Lincoln's administration, and who now keeps a rum mill in New York, has been trying lately to sell to newspaper correspondents letters which he asserts to have been written to him by Mrs. Lincoln, in which she requests him to commit forgery and perjury for the purpose of defrauding the Government. He also promises, for a consideration, to give a full history of the secrets of Mrs. Lincoln's domestic affairs, upon which he claims to be well posted.

The New York Commercial Advertiser asserts that Mrs. Lincoln received $10,000 from one, and $5,000 from another contributor in that city, before Mr. Lincoln's death, and probably without his knowledge.

JOHNSON AND GRANT.

It is evident that Johnson is very much in doubt about making a forcible resistance to Congress without he can assure himself that Grant can be relied upon as the friend of his "policy." The report that the Presidential organs at Washington have taken it upon themselves to demand from Grant an expression of his position with regard to impeachment is indicative of the uneasiness which the President feels at his persistent reticence at a time when his radicalism is being vouched for by Republican speakers and editors all over the country. One of the extraordinary devices for getting Grant to commit himself is reported under date of Washington, September 17th, as follows:

"The declaration last night of Hon. Montgomery Blair in his speech that General Grant had rejoiced over the result of the recent elections, has thrown the Radical Presidential Grant-wire-workers into quite a fever to-day, and they were busy endeavoring to obtain a contradiction of the statement. In this they failed, and the failure has given great comfort to the Chase interest, which believes Mr. Blair's statement and insists that Grant don't wear Greeley's uniform, and cannot therefore be trusted. The friends of Grant are urging him to write a letter and show his colors."

That Blair's statement is a lie made out of whole cloth is not to be doubted; but we have a right to suspect that it was uttered, knowing that Grant would not take the trouble to deny it, and that his silence might be construed, by the public, into an assent. If the President could feel certain that the General was with him, we may be sure that he would not only dare Congress to impeach him, but would disperse its members at the point of the bayonet if they attempted his suspension. His rashness may lead him to try such a course at all events.

SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

[From the Virginia Enterprise of yesterday.]

SAN FRANCISCO, November 8.—The Merchants' Exchange Association, having given the Chamber of Commerce a perpetual lease without rent of the rooms set apart for the Chamber in their new building, the members of the Chamber intend to commemorate the occasion by a public dinner on Tuesday evening next.

The Trustees of Calvary Church have negotiated for the purchase of a 50-vara lot on the corner of Geary and Powell streets, upon which it is proposed to build a new church. They are to pay $85,000 for the lot. The congregation has refused an offer of $75,000 for their church property on Bush street.

Gold in New York at 3 P. M. to-day quoted 137; sterling dollar at 100 (100). Legitimate tenders are quiet at 72 buying and 72 1/2 selling. Government securities were quoted in New York this afternoon at 103 for fifties and 103 1/2 for seven-thirties.

New York telegrams of to-day's date quote California flour steady at $13 50; wheat quiet at $3 20 @ $3 25; wool, 16 @ 28c; hides, 10 @ 20c for California dry.

Liverpool telegrams of yesterday's date quote California wheat at 10s. 6d. per cental.

Mining stocks are irregular with limited transactions. Closing prices indicate a firmer market.

Flour—Quiet. We quote city brands superfine at $3 75 @ 7 25; extra, $7 50 @ 8.

Wheat—The market is quiet and prices nominal—say $2 45 @ 2 55.

Barley—Small sales at $1 60 @ 1 65 for old and new.

Oats—Sales of 702 sacks light Bay at $1 72 1/2; 600 sacks good coast at $1 80.

Whalers from the North Pacific fleet are beginning to arrive quite freely, ten having come into port since the 1st instant, of which five arrived yesterday.

FROM HAVANA.

HAVANA, November 8.—A revolution has broken out in Hayti in favor of Montez and against Salnave.

HAVANA, November 8.—At Port au Prince, October 12, the Assembly demanded of the Minister the release of Montez, maintaining that he is unconstitutionally kept in shackles. A mob of six thousand armed men and women surrounded the House of Assembly, who managed to escape. The mob cheered Salnave, at whose instigation they threatened the city. Salnave is taking every measure to secure the permanent occupation of the presidential chair.

CINCINNATI TURNERS VIOLATE THEIR PLEDGES.—Cincinnati, October 17.—Fifteen members of the Cincinnati Turners' Society, who voted against the Constitutional amendment, have been called to answer before the Executive Board of that society why they should not be expelled, having in so voting violated one of their pledges made upon joining the society, to advocate and support everything tending to give equal rights to all men. Only two out of the fifteen have appeared for trial thus far. One of them cleared himself, and the other was convicted and expelled.

FROM EUROPE.

[BY CABLE.]

PARIS, November 7.—There have been serious riots incited by the party of action in various parts of Italy—particularly Milan, where troops were called to quell the disturbance. Many of the rioters were killed and wounded.

FLORENCE, November 7.—Garibaldi had 2,000 troops in the engagement on Sunday. The Papal troops were badly beaten till the arrival of the French troops, who turned the tide of battle. It is asserted that 5,000 French, under the command of General Fohler, participated in the action.

PARIS, November 7.—Information from Rome says the Pontifical authorities intended to prosecute the citizens who voted for a union with Italy, but Napoleon advised the Pope not to do this.

LONDON, November 7.—The Times predicts that, should Napoleon fail to bring about a general conference of the Powers to settle the Roman question, he will abandon the defense of the imperial power of the Pope and leave Italy free to decide the future position of Rome.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 7.—It is reported that the Sultan is making unusual military preparations and that he has purchased a number of needle guns and rifled cannon and is strengthening the fortification of Kars.

BERLIN, November 7.—All the towns of Schleswig-Holstein have joined the Zollverein except Altona.

MANCHESTER, November 7.—The charge of murder has been abandoned against the rioters. The remaining indictments of the prisoners now entered will be prosecuted for misdemeanor.

LONDON, November 7.—The disturbances were caused by a want of employment and scarcity of food and still continue. Devonshire riots are reported in Torquay, Exmouth and other places.

The troubles in Exeter have been suppressed, and the town is quiet.

A Royal Commission has been appointed to inquire into the alleged facts of the Protestants of the Church Establishment in Ireland, with Earl Stanhope as Chairman.

The Times comments severely on Seward's late dispatch to Minister Adams in reference to the Alabama claims.

LANDLORDS RESPONSIBLE.—The San Francisco Call of the 7th inst. contains the following item:

One Pinkerton lost a certain amount of money at the time of the What Cheer House robbery, some time ago. He was a guest of the house, and his money was on deposit in the safe of the institution. The proprietor refused to refund his losses, and Pinkerton brought suit. The case went to the Supreme Court where it has been decided in Pinkerton's favor. Thus landlords are held responsible for the loss, by robbery, of the property of guests entrusted to their care.

GOING TO BEAT THE WORLD.—Says yesterday's Enterprise

Crocker, of the Central Pacific Railroad, says that once he commences laying track from Crystal Peak down the Truckee, he will beat any work of the kind that has ever been done in the world.
