Rod and Gun.

To-morrow morning Messrs. Dr. Chamblin, Luther Clark and Judge Adams leave for the South Fork of the Humboldt on a two weeks', or more, hunting excursion. A private conveyance, thoroughly equipped, will transport the pleasure-seekers thither, and such experts with rod and gun cannot fail to live on the fat of the land while they sojourn adown the Humboldt. A large party are organizing to follow later in the week. Now that the game law is declared "off," we predict a lively exodus of Eureka's mighty Nimrods.

The Lead Market.

The New York Exchange of August 7th has this: At the beginning of the week sales are reported amounting to about 500 tons at 4.30. The market has improved, and we now quote 4¼@4⅜c. The shipments by the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad Company for the week ending July 31st was 50 tons.

CHARCOAL.

What It is Good for Besides Smelting.

In this camp where millions of bushels of charcoal are used in smelting operations the many other rare qualities which the substance possesses are hardly realized. A scientific exchange has the following: The value of charcoal for other purposes than fuel is hardly understood by the public. When laid flat, while cold, on a burn, it causes the pain to abate immediately; by leaving it on for an hour the burn seems almost healed when the wound is superficial. Tainted meat surrounded with it is sweetened. Strewn over heaps of decomposed pelts or over dead animals, charcoal prevents any unpleasant odor. Foul water is purified by it. It is a great disinfectant and sweetens offensive air if placed in shallow trays around apartments. It is so very porus that it absorbs and condenses gases rapidly. One cubic inch of fresh charcoal will absorb nearly 100 inches of gaseous ammonia. Charcoal forms an excellent poultice for malignant wounds and sores. In cases of what is called proud flesh it is invaluable. It gives no disagreeable odor, corrodes no metal, hurts no texture, injures no color, is a simple and safe sweetener and disinfectant. A teaspoonful of charcoal in a glass of water often relieves a sick headache. It absorbs the gasses and relieves the distended stomach, pressing against the nerves which extend from the stomach to the head."

ORATORY IN THE CONVENTION.

How Varian, Bishop and Others Soared.

When Counselor Varian arose yesterday and descanted on the surpassing merits of Judge Beatty, says the Carson Times, that wise, fearless and irreproachable Judge; gradually working up to a climax which proudly planted the present incumbent of the ermine on a dizzy pinnacle of moral and intellectual greatness. Hard, indeed, must have been the heart which could have denied that Varian's man was the summum bonum of a high grade seeker for office. The only wonder was that Garfield got the nomination. This was the first impression. But when Mr. Bishop followed with a glowing eulogy which picked General Sabin up and irresistibly carried him skyward until his martial figure was almost lost in the clouds; his super-excellence strongly backed by the positive and familiarly irreverent assertion that "God Almighty never made a better man," the current of opinion "chopped," as it were, and the impression left on the ordinary mind was that the gallant General as a warrior stood on an even keel with Marlborough, Wellington and Grant, while in legal knowledge fairly the peer of Blackstone, Storey, Lyttleton, Judge Field and the rest of the boys. The only wonder was that Sabin was not nominated by acclamation. This was the second impression. Finally Mr. J. I. Harris closed with an exordium in which the many genial excellencies of Col. Taylor were so unveiled before the eyes of waiting Nevada, that the only surprise was that the other candidates had the hardihood to allow their names to be presented before the convention. No wonder that the Storey county delegation was solid for him; and even had Mr. King sung out: "Lyon county gives her unterrified four for Taylor!" none would have been astonished.

The Performance of "Oliver Twist."

Johnson & Cooper's Sunny South Company played Dickens' master-piece at Eureka Hall, last night, in a manner that surprised even their warmest admirers. There was not a single fault or hitch in the whole performance, and the unanimous verdict of the large and appreciative audience was that they witnessed the best dramatic performance ever given in Eureka. Want of space prevents us descanting on the merits of the individual performers as we should like to, and as they richly deserve. We simply pay the company the genuine compliment of stating that they are artists in every sense of the word.

Fatal Shooting at Grantsville.

The first blood for Grantsville is recorded. On Thursday last two miners had a difficulty in a saloon and one of them went off to arm himself. Returning, he blazed away at his antagonist and killed an outsider—the wrong man. The shooter then tried to escape, but was captured and taken to Belmont. We condense the above facts from the Reveille's account of the affair, which journal was unable to learn from persons who came through on the stage the names of any of the parties concerned.

Bathing.

Dan Meede, on Clark street, between Buel and Main street, has just fitted up a fine bathing establishment, where you can get any kind of a bath you wish. Try them.

Shooting Match.

Messrs. Williams & Reynolds, of Ruby Hill, will have a shooting match to-day at 1 o'clock, when the silver cup will again be shot for. Each man to pay for his birds.

NEVADA POLITICS.

What a Correspondent has to Say of the Situation.

EUREKA, August 14th, 1880.

ED. SENTINEL: I am very much opposed to the dog in the manger policy, which too often prevails in States, countries and towns. New York has no right morally or legally to dictate to the States who shall, and who shall not be President, nor has San Francisco to say who shall be her Governor, or to make laws governing the State by any combination, as is often the case. Nor has Virginia City and Storey county any moral right to dictate to the State, nor even a combination of the western and railroad counties, to control the State of Nevada. But as barefaced as is the policy, it nevertheless is manifest on every occasion. General Connor, though a loyal soldier, a brave, good man, and undisputed Republican, was slaughtered because he was from the eastern part of the State. Hon. Thos. Wren, for a similar cause, was laid aside, and now Col. Sabin, a soldier, scholar, lawyer, and one of our best citizens, is beaten for a seat on the Supreme Bench, soley because he happens to reside in the East, Eureka. It is true an attempt was made to make it appear that he was in the interest of the railroads and other monopolies, which was refuted so nobly by Col. W. W. Bishop. But what does the votes of the counties show when counted for the candidate of Supreme Judge? That the western counties, and those controlled by the railroad, voted and nominated Judge Beatty, as against Col. Sabin. It will be claimed that Judge Beatty is from the eastern portion of the State, and while he was put in nomination by one of White Pine's delegates, it is true that he is not, and fairly cannot claim to belong to the East. He owns no property, nor could he even secure the White Pine delegation. This may be right and proper, but cannot be overlooked, and will add many votes to Belknap, who is as much identified with the East as is Judge Beatty. The intention seems to be to corral everything in the western portion of the State. It is a death struggle. Seeing that the sceptre is about to depart from Storey, makes her people the more desperate. They now hope again to fasten on the stale, non-representative Sharon, through whose money a Legislature is to be secured. The signs, however, are unmistakably against the scheme, and while Sharon's money may be thankfully received and used, as sure as that day comes, if the Legislature is Republican, the Democrats, if they do their duty, will unite with the Republicans who will not be bought like sheep, and send the gallant Col. Bishop or Hon. Thos. Wren to the United States Senate in place of Sharon, who is not even a citizen of the State, and who insults the State by offering again to misrepresent her in the United States Senate. The Democracy throughout the Great East should instruct their representative candidates to support her favored son, Hon. A. M. Hillhouse, if in the majority, but as a minority, to support Col. Bishop or Thos. Wren for United States Senator.

R.

YANKEE FORK.

Notes Culled from the Herald of August 7th.

Work is progressing favorably on the Custer mill.

A crew of men are at work on both the Custer and Unknown mines, and business begins to look up at Hyde Park.

Several salmon, weighing from 30 to 40 pounds each, have been caught in the Yankee Fork during the past week, and trout are beginning to bite.

Lumber from Fox's saw mill is being successfully floated down the Yankee Fork to the Gravel Mining Company's grounds where the fluming is being done.

The Wood River mines, generally speaking, are only prospects as yet, but look well, and Mr. Baldwin thinks that whole section between Belleview and Galena will soon be a great mining country.

Colvin & Richardson's Salmon River bridge was struck by lightning a week ago. It struck a bolt and followed a stringer to the bank, doing no damage to the bridge. Mr. Colvin, who was near, was considerably shocked.

John Thomas struck a quartz ledge a few days ago on the hill half a mile west of town that gives every indication of developing into a true vein. There is a good ledge somewhere in that vicinity, as very rich float has been found at the bottom of the hill.

Clayton is the name of the new town at the mouth of Kinnikinic, where the Omaha Company are erecting their smelting works. It is named in honor of Prof. Clayton, who, we believe, suggested that as a suitable point for the works. The town is growing rapidly.

The salmon reached these waters the last of July. The Chinese were the first to discover them. They only can make a success of spearing them, for they have the time and patience to lay in wait for them. A 30-pound salmon is worth $2.50. The inhabitants already begin to show the effects of good living.

Robt. Hawthorne and Mrs. Lizzie King were married Thursday evening at the residence of the latter, Judge Carr officiating. This is the first marriage ceremony ever performed in these diggings, although the adjacent Saw Tooth, with its beautiful lakes, its shady nooks and lofty peaks, furnishes an inviting retreat in which to spend the honeymoon. Next?

On Sunday last a fire was started, accidentally or otherwise, in the heavy timber on Silver Creek, north of Custer. The fire has been very destructive so far, and may continue its ravages for some time to come, as the woods are very dry, and rain seldom falls in this country at this season of the year. A fire was also set in the woods a short distance west of Bonanza this week, which destroyed a good deal of timber.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Closing Scenes of the Turbulent Gathering.

When the Convention was called to order at 8 o'clock Thursday afternoon, says the Virginia Chronicle, it was well known that an agreement had been entered into between the delegations from Eureka and Storey, whereby the nomination of Sabin was assured. The agreement was that if Taylor did not receive the nomination on the sixth ballot after the recess, Storey county was to give 26 votes to Sabin. Dr. Lee, who held the four proxies of Lincoln county, agreed to stand in for Sabin clear through if Storey county would relinquish her claim, and give him enough to secure his election, the four votes which Taylor held in Esmeralda to be at the same time transferred to Sabin's column.

That this was the compact was manifest from the maneuvers of the various delegations. The Storey county men failed to keep their promises in all respects, and it was not long before Dr. Lee lost his temper. He said from the beginning that the Storey county men must let go; that they were demanding too much in asking for both Congressman and Judge of the Supreme Court, and that they should never win as long as he could help it. When the Storey county men began changing backward and forward with the evident intention of slipping in their man, Dr. Lee immediately went to the Beatty forces, changing back to Sabin once in a while, when he knew he could do so without giving Taylor a chance for the nomination.

On the 62d ballot, the one on which Storey had agreed to go to Sabin, he received ten votes from the delegation, but before the vote was announced the Chairman changed it to 31 for Taylor. The Lincoln proxies were virtually for Beatty after that.

At different times in the balloting each of the three candidates had the required majority, but in every case before the vote could be announced by the chair, delegates changed the votes of their counties so as to throw the high man below the coveted 51.

The seventieth ballot stood: Beatty 40, Sabin 50, Taylor 11, and on the seventy-first Beatty was nominated, securing 55 votes to Sabin's 34 and Taylor's 12.

The usual congratulatory speeches were delivered by the opposing factions, Bishop representing Eureka and Tilden talking for Storey. After which the nomination was made unanimous.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

In the evening the following Presidential Electors were nominated: R. H. Taylor, of Storey, A. E. Morton, of Esmeralda, and O. H. Gray, of White Pine.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The following gentlemen were named to serve as a State Central Committee during the ensuing year:

Col. Harry I. Thornton.

The Black Hills Pioneer of August 8th pays the following handsome tribute to Col. Harry I. Thornton, a gentleman well known to many of the readers of the SENTINEL in Eastern Nevada:

To the regret of everybody in Deadwood who knows him (and who does not?) Col. Harry Thornton, the famous mining lawyer of the Pacific Coast, takes his departure for San Francisco. Colonel Thornton, as a young man, commanded an Alabama regiment in the Confederate service, and distinguished himself by his gallantry in the field and his wisdom in the council. Settling in one of the Western Territories after the war, he has, by his talents and learning, risen to the front rank of the bar of the great occidental metropolis, and earned substantial fame throughout the country. Able, learned, eloquent and untiring in his energy, with all the genial social qualities that endear a man to the communities in which he is thrown, he has a host of warm friends in Deadwood and the Hills who send with him leaving all good and kindly wishes, and will ever gladly welcome his return to our region.

A New Bank.

Mr. John A. Paxton, of San Francisco, has determined to establish a branch banking establishment in Reno, with a capital of $75,000, to be increased to $200,000 if necessary. Mr. Paxton is the head of the well known banking firms of Paxton & Curtis and Paxton & Co., which have banks at Eureka, Austin and Belmont. Mr. Muller is to be Manager of the Reno branch, and L. C. Batchelder bookkeeper. Business will commence on the 1st of September, in the rooms of the Reno Savings Bank. We understand that the rate of interest will be 1¼ per cent.

The above is from the Reno Journal. It would appear that Mr. Muller is to be lost to this community. He has been a resident of Eureka for years, and no man in this section stands higher than he in the confidence and esteem of the public. We shall be sorry to lose him from our midst.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TO THE LADIES.

Prof. Ed. Adolph

TAKES PLEASURE IN CALLING THE attention of the ladies of Eureka to his method of instructing in the Art of Cutting all Styles of Dress by measurement, the same as first-class cutters use in the leading European establishments. I ask only FIVE DOLLARS for twelve lessons, two hours devoted to each lesson. My method is pronounced a superior one, and my fits to be perfect.

At every place my pupils, WITHOUT EXCEPTION, speak in the highest terms of my method of teaching in Dress, Basque, Polonaise, Cloak and Coat Patterns. The ladies will probably never meet with a similar chance to learn so desirable an art, for such a low fee, to Draw and Cut a perfect fitting Pattern.

Each lady, from 12 to 60 years, with common sense, can learn my invention as good as a learned dressmaker, in 12 lessons for the small sum of $5; and I recommend myself to all respectable ladies. ED. ADOLPH.

For further particulars, apply at the Cosmopolitan, No. 104 South Main Street.
