LINCOLN COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS

In the table of returns published by us yesterday several errors occurred, all of which, however, have been corrected, and the tabular statement published by us this morning is an exact transcript of the returns on file at the County Clerk's offics as canvassed by the County Commissioners. The result shows not on'y a great amount of "scratching." but it the same time shows that a large numbar of voters failed to vote at all for different county officers, as well as for Pres-idential El ctors. The following figures establish the correctnes of what we have just stated. There were cast for Congressman Senator (long term) Senator (short term)/JULT 1946 1919 1911 Assemblymen (average)...... 1905 Sheriff Clerk ... Clerk District Attorney 1913 (instants) Treasurer 1909 Assessor Auditor and Recorder 1922

BILL BETHARDS, a character known, to many people here, shot and killed James Brophy at Schelburn about two weeks The Schelbarn Prospect of Nov., 11.20.

9th giv s the following particulars: On Monday night last a difficulty oc-curred in J. C. Scott's saloon at Ruhy Hill, during which a man named James Brophy was shot through the head and killed, some say by Wm. Bethards. Dethards was arrested and brought to this place We questioned him with regard to the affair and elicited the fol-lowing: On the night of the killing lowing: On the night of the kiling, Bethards and some friends visited John Wagner's saloon and had a good time singing, etc. After an hour or so Betharis and friends left Wagner's and went to J. C. Scott's saloon, where quite a crowd was assembled, among whom was Brophy (the man killed.) While Bethards was standing at the bar dr nking, Brophy and another man had some words and he tried to quiet them, but in his effort to do so a scuffle ensued. during which a pistol was fired, the ball striking Brophy in the head and killing him. Some say the killing was purely accidental; others that Bethards killed the man. Bethards hims if d nics the charge. An inquest was hill by Julge charge. An inquest was near the second L. P. Davis, but the testimony was conto fix the guilt on any party. Brophy was a young man about 28 years of age, and a poncer of the Schell Creek Range, owning in some of the most prominent mines. We believe he has a broth r in Belmont, Nye county." The affair creat-ed quite ou excitement here, both men being well known.
