Notice to Stockmen.

Spaying Cattle and
Castrating Horses
A SPECIALTY.

I am now prepared to go into this field of labor. Stockmen wanting work of this kind performed will do well to give me a call. My work speaks for itself. My address for this month will be care T. L. Hoppin's, Charley McConnell's or Col. Hardin's ranches.

Respectfully,
J. G. HOLLOWAY, V. S.

Sergeant Holloway recommends the spaying of inferior mares, thereby their service will be equal to a horse, always ready for use. They will fill the saddle, fine buggy teams and livery stock and always ready for the market. The fact is they are neater animals for light teams than horses. This is the most successful way of utilizing their service and cutting off this uncongenial end of this kind of stock. Keep nothing but good colliers and fine bred mares for breeding purposes and you realize the same money for your small mare as you do for the horse. Likewise the cow after being spayed is a better and fatter beef than the steer.

Respectfully,
J. G. HOLLOWAY, V. S.
