To Rational Invalids.— In sickness every portion of the body sympathizes with the seat of the disorder. When the stomach fails to perform its functions, the liver, bowels, nerves, muscles, veins, arteries, &c., are all more or less affected. These delinquents require a medicine, combining the properties of a stomachic, an alternative, a purgative, a tonic, and sedative to bring them back to their duty; and all these elements, in their pures and most effective forms, are united in
