The Jackman Contest.

This case was to-day adjourned until late in Oct. to obtain further evidence on the part of the contestants. W. A. Sanborn, of Fargo, Corey, Woods, and others, testify to a little scheme of speculation but subsequent improvement in good faith may carry Mr. Jackman through all right.

Grand Opening.

A magnificent assortment of millinery goods, ladies' furnishing goods, fancy goods, &c., will be open for inspection and sale on Friday and Saturday, Sept 27th and 28, 1877, in the Fisher building, corner of 3d and Meigs streets, Bismarck. The ladies of Bismarck and the surrounding country are cordially invited to call and inspect the very latest styles. Remember the time and place. 49-2t

The Price of Wheat.

Wheat brought 77 cents per bushel at Yankton last week and $102 at Fargo. This difference of twenty-five cents a bushel, multiplied by an average yield of say twenty bushels to the acre, shows Northern Pacific lands to be worth $10.00 an acre more than Southern Dakota lands. This year Northern Pacific wheat farms have yielded from twenty-two to thirty-five bushels per acre on some farms, the lowest average being twenty-eight.

The Court.

The court convened at Champion Hall on Tuesday. The Judge charged the grand jury strongly in relation to gambling, prostitution, and other unlawful practices, and the jury is now enquiring into those offenses.

The following cases only have been disposed of: Chas. Brady was indicted for petit larceny, plead guilty and got 30 days in the county jail.

John Creden and Thos. Moore indicted jointly for grand larceny, plead guilty, and Moore got a year and Creden one and a half years in the House of Correction at Detroit.

Wm. Reagen, burglary, plead guilty, and got two years at Detroit.

Personal.

J. C. Leach, of Ft. Rice, is in the city. Red Maguire is registered at the Western.

M. C. Hopkins, of the Deadwood Pioneer, is in the city.

Hon. J. T. Williams and Capt. Pagle, of Mankato, are in the city.

C. W. Carpenter, of the N. W. Stage Company, is again in the city.

J. S. McGee, of Beaver Creek, is in the city, and is stopping at the Merchants.

W. L. Hall, agent of the N. W. Stage Company, at Deadwood, passed West yesterday.

Fred Hollemback and his brother Henry, of Fort Henry, New York, returned Saturday evening. Fred has settled down to business again and Henry will remain during the summer and perhaps engage in business also. This makes three of the brothers at Bismarck and they are good citizens, all of them.

Extension of the Sioux Reservation.
The following is a copy of the executive order extending the Sioux reservation on the east side of the Missouri river:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, November 18th, 1876.—It is hereby ordered that the tract of country, in the Territory of Dakota, on the East side of the Missouri river, lying within the following boundaries, viz: Commencing at a point on the south bank of Beaver river, intersected by the 100th degree of West longitude, thence in a direct line to the east corner of the Fort Rice Military reservation; thence in a south-westerly direction along the said military reservation to the east bank of the Missouri river; thence with the east bank of the Missouri to the mouth of Beaver river; thence up and with the south bank of Beaver river to the place of beginning, be, and the same hereby is, withdrawn from sale, and set apart for the use of the several tribes of Sioux Indians as an addition to their present reservation in said Territory. U. S. GRANT.

A true copy.
W. T. HUGHES, U. S. Indian Agent.

For the Fair.

Two large boxes, one sack and one bundle of stuff was sent to the Fair at Yankton. The contributors were as follows:

Col. Wm. Thompson, kohlrabbies, potatoes, wheat and corn.
Samuel English, Hubbard squash and celery.

J. S. Ayers, pumpkin and rutabagas.

Col. C. A. Lounsbury, potatoes.

Hon. Edward Hackett, several varieties of potatoes, beets, carrots, onions and rutabagas.

W. E. Cahall, two varieties of potatoes and several varieties of beets.

Ed. Ware, Chinese cucumber—"the only snakes seen in Bismarck."

John J. Jackson, corn, oats, several varieties potatoes, onions, turnips, rutabagas, beets, parsnips and carrots.

Specimens of coal were also sent from a vein recently discovered by Peter Walker, near Fort Lincoln, furnished by Mr. Armstrong, of the Stage Company.

The display of vegetables was an unusually fine one, though picked up in a day, but of course we cannot brag particularly of our cereals as there are no threshing machines in the country, it being new, and no preparation has been made for grain farming. Enough corn, oats and wheat was forwarded, however, to show that the soil is adapted to its growth. The pumpkin and squash sent, while not particularly fine specimens, show that they will mature in this climate, and they were sent for that purpose.

The display is much better than that sent to the Minnesota State Fair, which attracted so much general attention. The articles were forwarded to Gov. Pennington who will, doubtless, see that they are placed where they will do the most good.

RIVER NEWS.

DEPARTURES.
R. W. Dugan, Standing Rock, Peninah, Yankton.
Alex. Kendall, St. Louis.
Big Horn, Cow Island.

ADVERTISED TO LEAVE.
Rose Bud, Saturday, Buford.

The steamer R. W. Dugan left Monday morning for Standing Rock with 160 tons Government stores.

The steamer Peninah pushed out at 8 a. m. Monday morning with a good passenger list, including the Fannie Beane Combination Company, destined for Yankton. The Peninah will return from Yankton.

The Big Horn departed at daylight this morning with 110 tons Cow Island freight, 100 tons for way points and a good number of passengers. The Big Horn cleaned up all Diamond R. and all Montana freight at this point as she will be the last boat for Cow Island this season.

Mr. Davidson, agent of the N. P. R. R. at this place, has the cars sent to the landing after the train arrived last night, so the freight arriving here last night was loaded on the Big Horn and is now on its way to Montana. This is what we call shoving business in the right way.

The steamer Gen. Meade, from Buford should arrive sometime during the day, as she is now due.

The Silver City, from Cow Island has not yet been heard from.

The new and elegant steamer Rose Bud will leave for Fort Buford on Saturday the 29th. Capt. Buesen commands, which will insure a speedy trip.

Original Poetry.

"Love Thoughts," a poem, is respectfully declined. The author's name did not accompany the contribution, but we again beg our friends not to send us original poetry. We can't use it, and have no place to put it, excepting the waste basket, and don't like it on general principles. This is not because original poetry is not frequently good, but because so many attempts are made to impose upon newspapers by copying the best thoughts of other poets and sending them in for publication, frequently without changing a word, and every newspaper is flooded with illy constructed rhymes, which the authors hope will pass for poetry. A newspaper is no place for poetry, anyway, and only a little now and then can be used to advantage. So please don't ask or expect us to use contributions of this nature. We have almost uniformly refused to print them, but one day, when absent, our foreman charged a fellow fifty cents a line for printing an innocent little ode and the man, the poet, actually went crazy. Poetry on the brain was what ailed him. Another fellow read lines on the ice gorge and other appalling, beautiful and sublime subjects until we published the "Ice gorge" in self defense, and the fellow got laughed at so much that he stopped his paper and left the country. Another time we received a choice piece of original poetry and printed it, but a week afterward found it, with the name of the author, in an old Chicago Tribune. So it will be seen in almost every case where we use original poetry some unexpected grief follows. So don't ask us to publish anything in that line. We can't do it and be happy.

BEANS.

The Celebrated Order of Gen. Andrews Fully Validated.

The Argus gives Gen. Andrews a mainly just and appreciative notice, but we think it gives too much prominence to the too celebrated order of the General in regard to the cooking of beans in the army.

The fact is Gen. Andrews did nothing but publish in military orders one or more sections of the Army Regulations. The health of his troops is a matter of the highest concern to a government. Under-der beans are a cause of flatulency, colic, diarrhea and so on. Hence the regulations prescribe the length of time necessary to cook beans thoroughly. Andrews, who was a Boston man, knew how to make beans as undemonstrative and innocuous to a soldier as they are to a Boston deacon.

Besides, success in war frequently depends upon surprise. In the presence of an enemy orders prescribing silence are issued. Even the daily guards are not permitted to discharge their muskets, but must draw the charges; and all possible precautions are taken to get within striking distance unperceived. Now imagine a brigade making a lone night march in the hope to surprise the enemy just at daylight, when the unwakened senses are the dullest; horses are shod with felt; the men step like cats; with one hand they hold their canteens from swinging, least they make a noise against their cartridge boxes. They stealthily reach the enemy's camp to find him escaped or prepared for battle. The surprise has failed because some lazy company cook hadn't half boiled his beans. Gen. Andrews understood these things. His famous order has made more noise in the world than it ought. It was not intended to make any; on the contrary, quite the reverse.—Red Wing Republican.

The Pioneer says the San Francisco Lode at a depth of fifteen feet, gives ore that yields from fourteen to twenty-one dollars gold to the ton, and is richly traced with silver, promising to develop one of the richest bonanzas in the Hills.

Judge Barnes and E. S. Tyler, of Fargo, will open a big wheat farm next year in Cheyenne valley.

Dear Old Homestead

is the title of a very fine new song, by Miss Anna C. Hiltz. This song has taken a strong hold on the popular fancy. No doubt there are thousands who never forget the "Dear Old Homestead," where so many happy hours were spent in joyfulness and glee, during their childhood days. Price 40 cents, with splendid lithograph of a country homestead.

"Tis a place I shall ever remember,
Should I live to be fifty years old;
'Twas the home of us all in our childhood,
And we prize it, yes higher than gold.
Address all orders to F. W. Helmick, publisher, No. 50 West Fourth St. Cincinnati, O.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Having now fairly established my Wholesale and Retail Clothing House, I am proud to say I have the Largest and nicest establishment of the sort west of St. Paul.

My stock represents many thousands of dollars, and my resources are such as to enable me to always carry the largest and best assorted stock of

CLOTHING,

Gent's Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps in Bismarck.

I am bound to be the Boss Clothier of Bismarck, or anywhere else in the upper country. I desire my name to be known, and my Goods to be seen, wherever there may be a habitation on the Missouri, the Yellowstone, or in the Black Hills.

For me there exists no Opposition.

Competitors may swarm around me, and offer their goods at cost or less, still I can beat them. I can sell for less than they, and still make a living profit.

My patrons will be convinced of the truth of all I say when I tell them of the great advantages I possess, chief of which is the following: My establishment is a branch of the great and extensive Clothing House of

of St. Paul, Minn. Every stitch of Clothing I have is Made by Ourselves. We are manufacturers, and pay no intermediate profit, consequently my customers obtain their goods from First Hands. They pay me a small profit from original cost, and they buy goods from me at Lower Prices than from any other house west of St. Paul.

I make these offers to obtain the Whole Clothing Trade, to which I consider myself fairly entitled. By fair and square dealing, by selling honest goods at Rock Bottom Prices, I hope to obtain hosts of friends and steady customers, and prove myself a living benefit to the purchasing public, who are respectfully invited to call on me before buying anywhere else.
