BLACK HAWK JUNIOR

THIS celebrated horse will be kept the ensuing season commencing to May and ending in September, at the stable of Lyman Pelton in Orwell, Addison county, Vt

This beautiful horse is 15 1-2 hands high, his color a beautiful black, age six years in June. Blackhawk Junior was sired by the old Blackhawk of Bridport. His dam is black weighing 1100 lbs. His stock is unsurpassed and in great demand. This horse took the first premium at the Addison County Fair, held in Vergennes. He also took the first premium at the Essex County Fair held in Keeseville, N.Y. in September. With the exception of being larger than his sire, he resembles him closer than any one that can be produced. For beauty, speed and action he challenges the world to beat him. The subscriber was offered $3000 on the 1st of May, by McGilmore of Baltimore.

Breeders of good horses are respectfully invited to call and see him.

Terms—$12 the season. Pasturing furnished. Accidents and escapes at the risk of the owner.

N. B. No business done on the Sabbath.

NEW UNION STORE.

OUR plan of a Union Store is now and novel. It offers advantage to purchasers and sellers not to be realized at any other establishment in New England. Any person making a purchase of three dollars at this establishment, becomes a life member, and the Goods at the lowest rates. No responsibility is incurred and they are at liberty to withdraw at their pleasure. It has been in operation only two weeks, and the list of members has gone up to one hundred.

Another advantage consists in the great variety of Goods sold and to be sold, consisting of American, English, French & German Fancy and Staple Dry Goods, Groceries, Glass Ware, Hardware, Cutlery, Looking Glasses, Shoe Kit & Findings, Drugs, Medicines, & Dyes.

Each Department comprising a very complete assortment which will be replenished as sales are made.

Titcomb's Patent Bee Hive and Protector.

BY the use of this Hive, Bees are protected through our severe winters, on account of the even temperature of the air within it and its peculiar arrangement for ventilation, that not a swarm has been lost from the many hives used within the three years past—It is a complete protector against the attacks of neighbouring bees, bee-moths, &c., and affords peculiar facilities for replacing old brood combs by new ones. It is unequalled as a stock hive, swarms issuing from it from two to three weeks earlier than from any other hive. The surplus honey is readily obtained from it, in a pure state, without injuring the bees, in boxes of suitable size for family use or the market.

This Hive is constructed on philosophical and scientific principles, and needs only to be seen to ensure its use by those who are acquainted with the instincts and natural habits of the honey-bee.

Ferguson's Arrow Root Starch

THE Subscribers have been appointed sole Agents for the sale of Ferguson's Manufacturers' Arrow Root Starch, and expect to be constantly receiving it in sufficient quantities to fill order to any extent. It is warranted pure and made from Arrow Root only.

From the testimonials furnished us by Mr Ferguson, it appears that "This article has been used in a number of manufactories in New York and New England, the past year, with unparalleled success. It forms a sizing for Cotton or Woolen Yarn, of great consistency and extraordinary cheapness. It takes the place of glue altogether, as that article is not added to the sizing made of this Starch. It renders the cloth firmer and more elastic, and gives to the goods a rich gloss that Ice and Moss and other expensive preparations cannot bestow."

The following are extracts from letters lately received:—

"It is prepared similarly to other Starch for sizing. It makes the the threads of woolen yarn smoother and stronger than other Starch; one pound of it is worth three pounds of potato starch for sizing woolen yarn. I have heard it highly recommended for cotton

(Signed) DANIEL BAGLEY

Pittsfield, April 28, 1851.

"We have used it nearly two years, and find it far cheaper and better than glue or any other Starch. I am confident it would be much better for the cotton manufacturers to substitute it instead of potato starch."

NOTICE

Extend your orbs of vision for the Cooking Stove on Wheels.

Look out, Look out, Look out,
When you hear the sound of the bell,
Turn about, turn about, turn about,
Lest thine own last end it tell.

Look out, look out, look out,
When the whistle sounds shrill and clear,
Turn about, turn about, turn about,
For the Iron Horse rushes on his career.

Look out, Look out, look out
For Tupper, Bryant, Hemans, and Moore,
Turn about, turn about, turn about,
