THE HERALD.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 3.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

We regret to see that some two or three of the Whig papers of Vermont are making an attempt—remarkable for its inanity—nothing else—to carry the opinion abroad that the public sentiment of the Green Mountain State is adverse to the nomination of Gen. SCOTT for the Presidency, and further that the elected delegates are going to carry out their own personal predilections, whatever may be the sentiments of the party on this question. Now, while we have felt disposed to rest easy under all the circumstances attendant upon the nomination of these delegates, believing that however inopportunely their appointments were made, they would by their votes in the Convention aim to give the real sentiment of Vermont in this matter,—yet are we unwilling to see them so boldly claimed as the opponents of Gen. Scott's nomination or as pledged to sustain the nomination of any individual. In the absence of any instructions in relation to this question, we hold that the delegates should go on untrammelled and aim only to give such votes as will be in accordance with the feelings and views of the majority of Vermont Whigs. That our delegates will act contrary to their judgment in relation to this matter we shall be slow to believe,—and should they—through any personal predilections for this, that or the other candidate—fail to give their vote for the man best calculated to give hope and strength to the party, they will but poorly fulfill their mission and give but little satisfaction in any quarter.

We will not presume to express an opinion as to the choice of the Whigs of Vermont for President; but in view of the 'chances,' we are quite confident that seven-tenths of the party are in favor of Gen. Scott as the candidate! His popularity in Vermont is of no sudden growth. He has long held possession of the confidence of our freemen. In 1839 at the Harrisburgh Convention he received the entire vote of Vermont, as well as of New York, even against Clay and Harrison—and his popularity certainly has not diminished since that time. Why then should it be wondered at that very many feel anxious for his nomination now? And why especially should those expressing this preference be branded as disorganizers and factionists?

WHO IS TO BE GOVERNOR?

The question as to who shall receive the nomination as candidate for Governor to be elected by the Whigs seems to begin to excite some considerable interest—and we are not a little surprised to see that some few of our State papers apparently governed in a measure by personal predilections or local considerations, are discussing with some considerable spirit the question as to the locality most entitled to the honor of furnishing the candidate. This it appears is worse than a useless discussion. There is no locality in Vermont where a Whig has worked for the past few years that is not entitled to a Governor provided it has a suitable candidate.

In common with many Whigs among us we regret that the discussion as to a candidate should have been so early broached, and we think we speak the sentiments of the Whigs of Rutland County in saying that while they could cheerfully support either of the gentlemen named in this connection—their preference of the candidates named—under all the circumstances would be for Mr. Fairbanks This gentleman has long been before the party; he has been long looked upon as one likely to be called to this position, and a very general impression seems to have obtained that he was to be the next Governor of Vermont—as he doubtless would be should he be nominated.

DEATH OF MRS. ADAMS. Mrs Adams the venerable relict of the late John Quincy Adams, Ex President of the United States, died at her residence at East Washington, on Saturday last.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The first two days of this convention has been spent in marshalling the lines of different factions preparatory to the general action. A splendid discussion on things in general, and more especially as to the propriety of first creating a platform whereon to put their candidates, or whether first to nominate and suit the platform to the proportion of the nominee, occupied the time of the convention throughout the entire second day, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger under date of June 1st says:

The last card is now playing by the Van Buren men, in an attempt to put Butler and Dickinson, or Dickinson, on the track. Francis P. Blair and John Van Buren are on the ground. John A. Dix is expected from Philadelphia to-night. The two sets of extremists from the North and South are supposed to be in the Butler movement with Kentucky and Indiana, playing into each others hands.

Butler has declined in favor of Cass to conciliate the friends of Gen. Cass, and make them in return support him. The game is seen through and will not succeed.

The Marcy movement is to all intents and purposes dead. The fight is still between Cass and Buchanan, and the chances of Douglass is hourly increasing. The two sets of Mississippi delegates have compromised on Buchanan, with the understanding that on the first convenient opportunity the State shall cast her vote for Douglass. Louisiana will adhere to Cass. The accession from Cass which the friends of Mr Buchanan anticipate will go to Douglass, who on the third or fourth ballot will be a stronger man than Buchanan, and drawing from both the leading candidates.

FRANKLIN HOTEL.

Among the many improvements going on in Rutland we are glad to see the rejuvenized appearance of that old and time honored Hotel the 'FRANKLIN.' This popular and justly celebrated House—the public will be happy to learn—has been within the past spring entirely overhauled from cellar to garret—its internal arrangements materially changed—newly papered and painted—and most elegantly furnished throughout with entire new furniture, bedding, &c.

Mr. Pratt, the enterprising proprietor and keeper of this hotel, has spared no pains or expense in making his arrangements, and his house will now in every respect rank with the first class hotels of the country. To any one acquainted with Mr. Pratt it is unnecessary to say that he is just the man for the place he occupies—and to all others we would say that his well earned reputation is a sufficient guaranty that his house will be well kept, and his guests well cared for.

RUTLAND & WASHINGTON RAILROAD.—An excursion train passed over this road to Troy and back on Thursday to accommodate those anxious to see and hear the great Magyar at that place.

We understand that a large number availed themselves of this opportunity and that the trip was made in fine style—leaving Rutland at 5 o'clock and returning at 7 1-2—giving passengers seven hours in Troy.—This road is becoming the great thoroughfare of the country,—their three trains per day being well patronized.

☞ The Banner says that the track of the Western Vermont Railroad has been laid as far as South Shaftsbury, and will be completed to North Bennington on Saturday next. This road when completed to Eagle Bridge will afford another outlet for Vermont travel going South and will be an A No. 1 road. It has been determined to commence and complete the N. Y. and Bennington Railroad as soon as practicable.

Proposed amendment of the fugitive Slave Law.—Mr Ligget, chairman of the select committee appointed by the Maryland House of Delegates, to consider so much of the Governor's message as relates to the murder of Edward Gorsuch, and the trial of the treason cases in Philadelphia, was made an interesting report, accompanied by resolutions instructing our Senators and requesting our representatives, in Congress to urge an amendmedt of the fugitive Slave law, so as to inforce, by adequate penalties, the attendance and aid of the "posse comitatus" when required by the officer charged with the execution of the law. It is also recommended that the State of Pennsylvania, in order to further the ends of justice, and allay all irritation and excitment between the citizens of Maryland and that State, should pass a law providing for the transfer by writ of error of all cases arising within her limits

Col Benton has published a letter declining a nomination to Congress lately tendered him by a caucus. He says he shall address the people soon, and will run for Congress on his own book if he runs at all.

Fire in Savannah.—The Republican of Thursday computes the entire loss by the late fire in that city at from $50,000 to $75,000. Sixteen dwelling houses, the Methodist Sunday School room, and one carpenter's shop, were destroyed. The buildings were all of wood.

☞ A little daughter of Mr Charles Wells of Montague Mass., was drowned on Thursday last, while trying to rescue her brother, who had fallen into the water.

Thomas Francis Meagher, the Irish exile, held a levee yesterday, A. M., at the office of Pierce and Brooks, Nassau street. He was waited upon by an immense number of persons, both Americans and Irishmen. Among those who called, were some of the most prominent of the Whig and Democratic politicians. In reference to a remark of some person about Kossuth Mr. Meagher said he was not opposed to Kossuth, for if he were he would be only injuring his own cause, which was identical with that of Hungary.

A difficulty occurred last week, on the Hudson River Rail Road on account of the discharge of Mr Houston the road master, and the appointment of Mr Barrett in his place. The laborers refused to obey the latter, and three of them have been arrested for putting stones on the track.

William H. Dundas has been appointed temporary Assistant Postmaster General, in place of Fitz Henry Warren, resigned.

Accident.—Four Persons Drowned. At Suncook Village, on Saturday evening at half past seven o'clock four persons lost their lives by the upsetting of a boat near the factory, in the Suncook river. The particulare, so far as we have been able to collect them are as follows:—Four girls, operatives in the factory, were about to cross a temporary foot bridge over the river, which for want of a railing was deemad unsafe. A Mr. Bartlett being there with a boat invited the girls to cross in his boat, into which they all stepped; when half way across, from being overloaded, or some other cause, the boat capsized, throwing them all into the water.—One of the girls was rescued by a person at hand, but Mr. Bartlett and the other three were drowned—being in the water an hour or two before they could be got out.—Concord Repor'tr.

POLITICAL.—Mr. Robert Scott, of Virginia, democrat, recently addressed a letter to the several Democratic Presidential candidates, asking their opinion on the Compromise measures. Messrs Houston, Cass, Rusk, Dickenson, W. R. King, and Douglass, have already replied, and they are all decisively in favor of maintaining the Compromise. The replies of the others have not yet been made public.

It is said that Gen. Cass's friends have abandoned the idea of opposing the two-thirds rule.

The Model Gentleman.—Stares under ladies' bonnets as if they had stolen the lining from him; takes the inside of the walk, wears his hat in the presence of ladies, never lifts it when he bows to them; takes particular interest in watching them while they navigate the streets in muddy or windy weather; considers himself privileged to utter impertinences to pretty seamstresses and shop girls; is deaf, dumb and blind to any call upon his gallantry, if the applicant is over 20, or has the misfortune to be ugly; accomplishes the puppyish achievement of wearing a glass winked in one corner of his eye; snubs his sisters, calls his father 'the old governor,' sneers at all that is holy in woman, boasts of his conquests, drives tandem, is death on mint juleps, chews, smokes, drinks, and swears.

The Model Lady.—Puts her children out to nurse and tends lap-dogs; lies in bed till noon, wears paper soled shoes, and pinches her waist; gives the piano fits, and forgets to pay her milliner; cuts her poor relations, and goes to church when she has a new bonnet; turns the cold shoulder to her husband, and flirts with his 'friend;' never saw a thimble, dont know a darning needle from a crow-bar, wonders where puddings grow! eats ham and eggs in private and dines off on pigeon's leg in public; runs mad after the last new fashion, doats on Byron, adores any fool who grins behind a moustache, and when asked the age of her youngest child, replies "don't know indeed, ask Betty.!"

☞ How many an enamored pair have courted in poetry and lived in prose!

☞ A gentleman presented a lace collar to the object of his adoration, and in a jocular way said: 'Do not let any one else rumple it.' 'No, dear,' said the lady, 'I will take it off.'

If 'silence gives consent' does it follow that a man has a right to kiss a dumb woman?

CAMPAIGN PAPER.—The publishers of the New York Times propose issuing a campaign paper weekly commencing on the 19th June (inst,) to be continued until after the election. The universal popularity of the Times with the Whigs of Vermont is a sufficient earnest that the Campaign Times will be wanted amongst us.

It will (after the first number.) be mailed on Wednesday of each week to subscribers in any part of the United States, for the whole campaign, at the following rates:

Single copies	50
5 copies to one address	$2,00
10 copies to one address	3 50
20 copies to one address	6 00
50 copies to one address	12 50

☞ Payment in all cases must be made in advance. Postage stamps may be sent for fractions of a dollar.

☞ An Irishman was killed on the Western Railroad on Saturday. He jumped from the train while it was going at full speed, struck on his head, and broke his neck. He is supposed to have jumped after his hat, as it blew off an instant before he leaped from the cars.

☞ The Register says that at Belden's Falls, two or three miles from Middlebury, a decayed tree was recently discovered, which is puzzle to all who have seen it. The trunk, which has become thoroughly rotton, is entirely filled with bird's feathers. The downy portions are in a great measure disorganized, leaving the quills, however, in perfect preservation. The tree is evidently maple. How these feathers—of which there is a quantity innumerable—should have been so thoroughly disseminated through every part of the trunk, is a great mystery.

THE JAPAN EXPEDITION.—It is stated on the authority of the officers of the Dutch frigate Prince of Orange, that the emperor of Japan has strongly fortified every part of the coast, and has a body of well equipped soldiers ready to give the expedition under Com. Perry a warm greeting. The Dutch officers all think our force despatched to that quarter as utterly inadequate to the task of forcing an entry into the city of Jeddo.

THE NEW GOLD DOLLAR.—The Philadelphia News notices a specimen piece of the new dollar gold piece, which has been struck at the mint, and forwaded to the Department at Washington for approval. It is about the size of a dime, with an open centre of nearly the size of the present coin. On the one side is the word 'dollar' under which is a wreath, and on the other side 'United States of America, 1852.'

CALIFORNIA.

The last arrival from California brought $1500,000 in gold.

The fugitive Slave Bill which has for some time past been pending in the Legislature, has passed and will probably become a law. The Press generally opposes it, on the ground that its object is insidiously to introduce Slavery into the State.

A piece of gold weighing 305 ounces and 11 pwts, solid and shining, was found near Senora. This is the largest lump of pure gold ever found in California.

A recent arrival at San Francisco broubht several gentlemen with slaves,—one with twelve, another six, another seven, another five, another eight, and so on.

The Legislature have also directed the State officers to remove with their records back to Vallejo at the termination of the present session; thus recognizing that place as the permanent seat of Government.

A. O P. Nicholson, (Cass's correspondent,) John Forney, Clerk of the House and Edmund Burke, are reported by the papers as severally likely to succeed Maj. Donelson in the editorship of the Washington Union. It is understood that Gen Armstrong will not select an editor until after the National Convention.

☞ An English writer represents the whole American people as standing behind one long counter from Maine to Texas, trading against the rest of the world.

☞ The escape of Thomas F. Meagher, from the British Penal Colony of Van Diemans land, has caused lively emotions of delight throughout the country.

☞ The wheat crop in the Western States is represented as looking extremely fine for the season. The winter, than usually free from favorable. Regular rains the earth moist, and the wear a green and vigorous ance. The only damage to prehend is the rust.
