"NEW HAVEN" CAMPAIGN TO THWART STEAMBOAT COMPETITION IS BARED

Letters of Company Show Conceded Plan to Kill Off Joy Line In Rival for Business on Long Island
Stream

Officials' Moves "Should Be Laid on Shore to Dry"
As Warning to Others," Wrote Traffic Manager Regarding Competitors.

"We have no reason to believe that this is a tinted and untrue picture of the situation of the Joy Line,\nBut our business, and that of every house on a long distance line, is sufficiently complicated by the fact that we have the President's and the Governor's lives to live," said one of the letter writers. "It seems foolish to me to see the company put the whole thing on the market, and we have always been accustomed to do so ourselves."

EDITOR DENIES MALICE IN LIBEL
SUITE WITHOUT WILDER

Challenger On Stand in City Court Judge's Suit Against Nearer

Robert W. Challenger, navigator for the line, said the only nothing against the company in the article," he said.

"There is no double standard on this job in any other city, and I believe this letter is a false one." Challenger added.
