

There is nothing of special political interest to report this week. The campaigns in several states are progressing but not with the usual vigor and a full vote is not likely to be polled.

Professional life in Orleans county, but most of it in Montpelier, where he had quite an extensive practice, and was associated with the late Hon. Lucius B. Peck.

Serenade to Gens. Sheridan, Hancock and Sickles.

These three distinguished Union Generals were in Washington on Monday evening, and received one of the most imposing serenades ever witnessed in that place.

The events of the rebellion have taught us many lessons. If we forget these we are untrue to our flag and country.

There has been 1,054 deaths in a population of about twenty-two thousand. There must be painful suffering there and elsewhere that demands renewed exertions on the part of citizens in sections free from such afflictions.

California.

The latest dispatches say that returns from forty-eight counties show a vote of 77,598, of which Haight, democrat for Governor, has 42,300; Gorham, republican, 33,742, and Fay, also republican, 1,558.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Whole Vote, Republican, Democratic. Rows for 1860, 1862, 1864, 1866, 1867.

Now where are the "great Democratic gains?" Except in 1865, when there was only a Supreme Court Justice to elect, and when neither party put forth its strength, the Democrats have not since 1860 polled so small a vote as they have this year.

Substituting the truth for the above statement, we find the following result (taking, as we have said in the case of California the vote for 1863 instead of that of 1865, when there was no contest):

Table with 4 columns: State, 1860, 1867, Gain. Rows for Connecticut, Kentucky, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, California, Maine.

So it appears by the actual record, which cannot be truthfully gainsayed, that instead of a gain of seventy-five thousand we do not count Montana—the Democracy is down for an actual loss.

The Andersonville Prisoners.

A medical work now in course of publication in New York embodies some information on this still painful topic, which cannot be without interest.

More than thirty thousand were crowded upon twenty-seven acres of land, with little or no shelter from the intense heat of a Southern summer or from the rain or dew, with coarse corn bread from which the husk had not been removed.

Now the question is will trees be operated upon ever bear, or live to bear more than once after such operation. Can any one give us the result of an experiment after that length of time?

IOWA.—A letter from Gen. N. B. Baker, of Iowa, (formerly of N. H.) to a friend in Chicago says of the coming State election: "The Republican party will carry everything by overwhelming majorities—State officers, Senate and House.

TEXAS AND YELLOW FEVER.—The ravages of yellow fever in Texas are frightful. Not only the chief cities, but the small hamlets in the central and southern portions of the State, have been visited.

TIMOTHY TITCOMB'S new poem "Katharina," will be published September 21, by Messrs. Charles Scribner, & Co., New York.

ADVERTISING AGENCIES.—It is now something like thirty years since the establishment of the first Advertising Agency in this country.

It is estimated that at the present time there are several hundred men who make this their business, but of these no more than twenty are known to any considerable extent, and by far the most important are two or three well known firms in New York city, among which the house of Geo. P. Rowell & Co., No. 40 Park Row, occupies in some respects the most prominent position.

At their office may be found on file newspapers from every section, from Mexico to California, and from their books can be learned the rates for subscription and advertising.

The house named in this article is authorized to contract for our paper at our lowest rates, and we assure customers at a distance that we prefer to receive orders through them, rather than to contract directly with parties who are unknown to us, no matter how good or responsible they may be.

PAINT HURD.—A correspondent of the Windsor Journal cautions the people against being lugged and swindled by a set of fellows who are about painting roofs with what they call "Petroleum Metal Paint," which is nothing more than coal tar, and which spoils the water, and continues to wash off, every rain; thus defeating the object many have in putting it on, which is to preserve the wood.

—Thomas White of Greenville, Mich., accidentally killed his son last Friday, while out squirrel hunting with him.

—Senator Sumner has 29 engagements to lecture in the West, at $200 each.—He will fill them before the meeting of Congress in November.

—When Bonner appeared with his new horse Dexter on the Harlem race course for the first time, the other day, all the "gentlemen" took off their hats to the horse.

—There is a spring of remarkable curative powers near Gettysburg, Pa. It is said to be the only lithia spring in America, and the New York Board of Health are about making experiments with its waters.

—A democratic caucus in Pennsylvania demanded of the convention that it should run a soldier for a certain county office. The proposition was favorably received, but on inquiry, no democratic soldier could be found in the county.

—Young Ladies—"Going to make a flower bed here, Smithers? Why if I quite spoil our croquet ground?" "Gardener—"Well, that's yer pa's orders, Miss. He'll have it laid out for 'Orticular, not for 'Usbandry!"

—A Democratic orator, in denouncing Ben Wade, called him an agrarian who wanted to divide all the lands among the people. He was astounded at the interruptions of "That's the man for me," "Good for him," "Bully for the grarians."

—The whole of the first series of the 7-30s has been funded except about three million dollars, and it is thought that a large portion of this amount has been lost or destroyed, so that it will not be presented for payment.

—The remains of the son of the Great Napoleon, in whose favor his father abdicated, and for whom the title of Napoleon Second was assumed, are to be removed from Vienna and laid in the newly restored burial vaults of the Abbey St. Denis, France.

—Sportsmen all over the West are complaining of the scarcity of prairie chickens. The protracted and incessant rains of spring-time, which lasted away into the summer and into the egg laying season of the chickens, interfered with the work of incubation.

—About three weeks ago the house of Simeon Putnam of Danvers, was entered in the night and a gold watch and chain and gold bracelet stolen. No clue to the property was found till Wednesday last, when the property was left in Mr. P.'s buggy in his stable, in an envelope, bearing the words, "Forgive me."

—An aged lady, member of the Tyringham (Mass.) family of Shakers, one day recently, took from her closet some articles of dress, telling some of the "sisters" present that they were the clothes she wished to be buried in. A few minutes afterward she went to bed, where she died almost immediately.

—An editor wrote an article on the fair sex, in the course of which he said: "Girls of seventeen or eighteen are fond of beaux." When the paper was issued he was rather shocked to discover that an unfortunate typographical error had made him say, "Girls of seventeen or eighteen are fond of beaux."

—The following conversation occurred between a graceless boy and his teacher: "What does your father do when he sits down at the table?" "He asks for the brandy bottle." "I don't mean that. Well, then, what does your mother do when you sit down at the table?" "She says she will bring our necks if we spill any grease on the floor."

—Queen Victoria has nearly ready a volume of her own writing: the staple of which will be an account of several journeys made by herself and her husband in Scotland. It is said to contain many pleasant references to her traveling companions and servants, the too famous Brown figuring among the number.

—The authorities of Munich for some years past have required that in all cases of children dying in their first year, the parents should declare whether or no the infant had been suckled by the mother. A statistical table of the last two years shows that out of one hundred deceased, eighty-eight were not so brought up.

A WONDER FOR THE WORKSHOP.—Every Mechanic should have ready at hand a box of Grace's Celebrated Salve, as it is a ready remedy for accidents, such as cuts, bruises, contused wounds, burns, scalds, poisoned skin, and eruptions, caused by operations in the factory, dye-house, or printing office. Only 25 cents a box.

ALEXANDER THE GREAT.—Alexander conquered the world, and then went for the want of another to subdue. But James Pyle has conquered the world of spurious Saleratus makers, and is reaping a rich harvest from its immense sales, and is very far from crying about it. Pyle's saleratus is the people's friend. 16 ounces to a pound.

There is nothing more intrinsically beautiful in the natural adornments of the human form than a fine head of hair. Without it the most comely features are almost repulsive, and the plain becomes positively ugly. Grey hairs, although accounted an honor to the old, have never been so considered with respect to the middle aged and the young. Too often it is looked upon as a result of dissipation; yet many of the latter are innocently afflicted by these misfortunes, which they could easily remedy by a use of the proper means. Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative, "one of the finest articles for the hair" will effectually prevent and cure baldness, grey hair and almost all diseases of the scalp. None should be without it.

THE MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGAN, after many improvements and modifications, has now reached that degree of perfection in construction, and that moderation of cost that bring it within the reach of many who could not afford the expense of a good piano.
