Meeting of the Oregon Constitutional Convention.

Columbia Multnomah enter fight in Sacramento

In view of the approaching State and National elections, and of the necessity of a reorganization of the Democratic party in the several and counties, the present meeting of the Con-is purely an occasion for the expression of the the Convention wish to say that they will do nothing to gratify personal desires or ambitions, but only the best interests of the party and of the state.
