The picture with the pensive eyes is Willie's? No, dear, that's young Blake, Who took the West Point highest prize; He went half crazy for my sake. Here are a lot of rhymes he wrote. And here's a button off his coat.

Is this his ring? My dearest May, I never took a ring from him!
This was a gift from Howard Clay,
Just see, the pearls are getting dim.
They say that pearls are tears—what stuff!
The setting looks a little rough.

He was as handsome as a prince— And jealous! But he went to Rome Last fall. He's never written since. I used to visit at his home— A lovely place beyond Fort Lee; His mather thought the world of me!

Oh, no! I sent his letters back.

These came to me from Washington,
But look, what a tremendous pack!
He always wrote me three for one.
I know I used to treat him ill;
Poor Jack! he fell at Chancellorsville.

The vignettes—all that lot—are scalps
I took in London, Naples, Nice,
At Paris, and among the Alps;
Those foreign lovers act like geese,
But, dear, they are such handsome m
We go to France next year, again!

This is the doctor's signet ring.

These faded flowers? Oh, let me see;
Why, what a very curious thing?
Who could have sent these flowers to me?
Ah! now!! have it—Count de Twiri;
He married that fat Crosbie girl.

His hair was red. You need not look
So saddy at that raven trees.
You know the head that lock forsook;
You know, but you could never guess!
Nor would I tell you for the world
About whose brow that ringlet curied.

Why won't I tell? Well, partly, child, Because you like the man yourself; But most, because—don't get so wild! I have not laid him on the shelf le's not a bygone. In a year, Il tell you all about him, dear, —[Scribner's Monthly, tion, and, as we remarked in the outset, he has advertised for another boy. The mightiest events find birth sometimes willing to accept this fact as an adequate in the slightest and most trivial circumstances. The fate of Rome was decided by a flock of gabbling geese; the prosperity and happiness of Pilkin's boy was, shattered by his murderous spelling. Had his orthography been equal to his appearance he might in time have risen to a summit so lofty that the aversof a pation could behold him and eyes of a nation could behold him, and thousands of other boys yet unborn trace out in the sands of time his footprints to success. But as he killed his intended benefactor by assassinating the lexicon, his biographer will be likely to have an easy time of it, and if any of his tracks are ever found they will in all probability be discovered deeply imbedded in the mud of obscurity.

When a Bishop at a public meeting to Eugland asked Professor Huxley, sneeringly, "Does the learned scientist really wish us to believe that he is descended from an ape?" the sharp rebuke was administered by Huxley, "I had rather be related to an ape than to a Bishop of the Church of Eugland who can so misrepresent the votaries of scients.

After he had been on triel two or three days, Pilkins laid before him a large pile of bills and invoices, and explained how he wished them folded up in a certain shape, of uniform size, and a slight indication of their contents written across the end. The boy said he comprehended the idea, and set to work with a vim that caused his set to work with a vim that caused his kind-hearted employer to pat him on the head and remark that he was a good

About this time Pilkins was called out of the office and didn't return for a couple of hours; when he did so, he found the task completed and the boy anxious to submit the work for the approbation he felt sanguine it would receive. Pilkins talked patronizingly to the youngster while he wiped his glasses, but as soon as he had put them on and taken one square look at the papers before him his suavity of manner ceased to be excessive. His brow darkened and his voice grew terrible as his eye qualled before such inscriptions as "frate bile on sum shooger," "pade for vittles and uther things," "bile on kole bot fur hows." "this are many how and the state of the st hows," "bile on a mann ho pute sum glas inter the orfiss winders," "pade fur fixen karridge," "bile fur sum close fur missus pilkuns," "munney give tew a niggore fur wotteren thee streats," "bile fur ate baruls uv pertayturs." There was one brief, fleeting moment in which Pilkins might have been knocked down with a feather, but in the next instant he brought his clenched fist down on the desk with the force of a trip-hammer, splitting the panel, up-setting the ink-stand over the new ledger, and sending things spinning over the flour, while he poured forth ejaculations reproachful, indgnant and profane. Then he turned upon his shattered idol, seized him by the ears, lifted him up about three feet above the floor, brought him down with all the emphasis he could master, and bade him begone from his sight. Character.

Character is a fortune. It pays a better dividend than bank or railroad stocks. The young man who goes forth in the world with an unimpeachable character, can never suffer permanent defeat. The blows which he receives from his antagonists will bound back from such a character, and all the injury they inflict will be upon him who gives them. In every emergency it is the man of character who is sought. Those lack-ing this beautiful jewel may for a time crowd themselves forward, and so long as nothing of importance is at stake, be permitted to enjoy prominence in state and social affairs; but when the crisis comes, when government is threatened, when society is menaced, when it is a special bonor to be prominent, character is scrutinized, and only he whose character is spotless is selected to lead.

CAPLES & MULKEY,

Attorneys-at-Law, Room No. 5, Odd Fellows' Building, WILL GIVE PROMPT AND PERSONAL attention to business intrusted to their care.

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD CO. PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS. Which may be done with one-fourth the usual expense, by using our PATENT SLATE PAINT,

MIXED READY FOR USE. Pire-proof, Water-proof, Durable, Economical, and Ornamental.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better, and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for

One-third the Cost of Reshingling. The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is FIRE-PROOF against sparks or flying embers, as may be easily tested by may one.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK,

And for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands And for tin or from has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and Newer Cracks nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense, and preserved for many years.

This State Paint is

with a brush.

EXTREMELY CHEAP. Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on lin, Iron, felt, matched boards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to one hundred square feet of surface, and although the Paint has a heavy body, it is easily applied

No Tar is used in this Composition,

Therefore it neither evacks in winter nor runs n summer.
On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and press, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. Curling or warped shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Feltroofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying. As nearly all paints that are black contain Tar, be sure you obtain our GENUINE article, which (for shingle roofs) is

CHOCOLATE COLOR

When first applied, changing in about a month to a uniform state color, and is to all intents and purposes SLATE. On

TIN ROOFS Our red color is usually preferred, as one coat is equal to five of any ordinary paint. For BRICK WALLS Our bright red is the only reliable State Paint over introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

These paints are also largely used on out-houses and fences, or as a priming coat on fine buildings.

Our only colors are Chocolate, Red, Bright Red, and Orange.
