"That is a needless question,
The maiden quick replied,
There's but one place for bargains—
The fact is not denied.

"Good moru', my blooming lassic, Whither do you go, With bandbox, purse and parcel— Quite a load you know?"

"One place in all Olympia Where value is bestowed; In everything you purchase, Though it be a wagon load.

That place is E. C. Bickford's On Fourth street, Long bridge near, Near the hall they call Good Templar A name we all revere

There are stoves and lamps and tables, And many household wares; There are beds and stands and cupboards, Lounges and easy chairs. "There is everything the heart needs For setting up a home. Then why should one be homeless, Why lonely longer roam?" "You're right my lovely maiden," bazed Jehu quick replies,
"My wife you'll be—I swear it—
Before the next snow flies."

The Best Medicine. J. O. WILSON, Contractor and

Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills: "Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been Permanently Cured by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint r would be found an absolute cure of the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."-J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.
