You certainly have not spared me, but meted out full judg-ment on my sins. Yet, all unworthy as I am, I might rake together a poor de-fense from the ashes of a misspent past. My father, as you know, began life as a common laborer in the mines that afterward became his own. He worked his way upward by methods which, swered. "But why do you ask?" whether my moral sense approves of them or not, I am too weak of fiber to either a jest or an insult," was her redid not comprehend the dignity of toil, but bowed down, poor soul, to the hollow effigy which in this country goes by the name of aristocracy. He resolved that his son should be a gentleman—that is he should be called the distance.

that is, he should be college bred, dress well, spend money lavishly, drive fast horses, keep an expensive establishment horses, keep an expensive establishment—in short, become a genteel loafer. He rigidly excluded me from all knowledge of his business—time enough for that, he said, when he should have passed away. My business was to be pleasure. His greatest delight was to see my name in the papers beside doubtful titles and still more doubtful reputations. I think had I startled Paris with one of those scandals which furnish gossip for the jackals of society and a dozen columns of American reprint he would have been perfectly happy. But somehow my innate American decency kept me from the worst degradation. I went to Paris,

> Joyce expostulated. He was badly frightened himself, but with a company of militia at his back he foresaw the pleasure of overawing the malcontents and repaying them for the threats to his august person in a double measure of humiliation. He therefore contested the sudden and unaccountable exhibition of will on the part of Mr. Monckton with considerable acerbity. He was silenced, however, when the young man turned upon him, frowning, and said:

> "I am the owner of these mines, Mr. Joyce. If I have forgotten the fact too long, do not remind me of it today. If you are prepared to obey my orders, I shall be glad to retain your services; otherwise"---

"Of course, of course," interrupted the factorum hastily; "your will must be mine. I merely desired to express my views-ahem!-of the situation." 'Very good," said Monckton quietly. You will send a message to the village and invite the men to a conference through their delegates. I will return

Gentlemen—Too much cannot be said of the little Camera. I have more than 14 dozen pictures and have had but one bad one and that was my own fault. Since I have had your Camera I have had it with me on my wheel wherever I go, and it is a little gem. If I could not get another I would not take $50.00 for it.
Very truly yours,
(Signed)

Gentlemen—I think the Camera is great. I can turn out just as good work with it as I can with Eastman's Kodak of same size, which sells for $20.00 in some places. I am a professional photographer and know a little about it.

C COOK STOVE

To the ladies of the household in town or country it is a little gold mine. Thousands of careful, prudent household managers, who have no time or necessity to engage in evaporating fruit for market as a business, but who have frequent use for just such an article as this for making smaller quantities of dried fruit, berries and vegetables for their own use or for sale, will find it the most satisfactory and profitable investment they could make. A lady can easily lift it on and off the stove, as it weighs about twenty-five pounds. It has interchangeable galvanized wire cloth trays, which will not rust or discolor the fruit, etc., and will last for years. It is made of iron, except tray frames and supports,

Can be used for broiling beefsteak, fish, etc., using the lower tray for this purpose.

Handsome metal base. Can be used on any kind of stove. Dimensions—base, 22x16 inches; height, 26 inches; eight galvanized wire cloth trays, containing 12 square feet of tray surface. No extra fire. Always ready for use, and will last a lifetime. Easily and quickly set on and off the stove as needed, empty or filled with fruit. for Rural People it is without a Rival.

Has it ever occurred to you that, with a little labor, wasting apples, berries and vegetables can be quickly evaporated and are then worth pound for pound for flour, sugar, coffee, but-ter, rice, oatmeal, etc.? HOW TO OBTAIN ONE FREE. To any one sending us 10 new paid-up yearly subscribers will be sent FREE, securely packed and crated, one of these U. S. Cook Stove Dryers, with outfit complete; or it will be sent you for 5 new paid-up yearly subscriptions and $2.50 in cash added; or it will be sold to subscribers for $5.00 in cash. In all cases the Dryer will be sent by freight, securely packed and crated; freight to be paid by the receiver, but as the Dryer only weighs so pounds the freight charges will be trifling. SIRS:—The U. S. C. S. Dryers sold by us this season have given good satisfaction. Mrs. Andrews, of Ellington, N. Y., says she can easily dry 2 bushels a day. Yours respectfully.

Mrs. F. PIER. LAIDIO, Fulton county, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—We did not get the Cook Stove
Dryer until the drying season was nearly over.
It is a gem to any one who wishes to dry all kinds of small fruits, and also all kinds of fruits on a small scale. It is marvelous the rapidity with which it prepares green fruit for the sack. No one can describe its merits unless they try one. It is worth the price asked for it for corn alone. Yours truly.

To those who think of investing, I have no hesitation in saying that money put into real estate in Olympia and Thurston centry at this time would be a good investment.

To those who wish to sell, I have to say that my connections in this line of business will enable me to find purchasers for their property among the many strangers constantly coming and going through the country in search of enances for investment, who would otherwise than the property and unimproved for sale. Also, some very desirable farms.

Attorney-at-Law AND PROPRIETOR OF THURSTON COUNTY ABSTRACT. Olympic Block, Cor. Fourth and Main.

Y Abstract, and an experience of more than twenty years in searching the records of Thurston county in regard to title enables me to give prompt attention in regard to same.

I have a complete and the only abstract of the Records of the Probate Court of said county, prepared during the eight years that I was Judge of said Court.

I have the only abstract that was ever attempted to be made of sales of property for taxes in said county.

I negotiate loans for those wishing to borrow or lend on real estate security. (In the matter of loans, I represent only such local capitalists as are my clients.)

I have for many years represented, and at this time represent, as agent of residents and non-resdents, a large holding of real estate in the city of Olympia, and in Thurston county, for the sale of which negotiations can be made through me.

I also have upon sale, for fixed prices, a large amount of real estate, both city and country, which I am ready to show up on call.

I am ready and equipped by the labor and experience of more than twenty years for the transaction of a general real estate business, in which line I respectfully offer my zervices to those who desire, either to purchase or sell, to borrow or loan.

To those who think of investing. I have no
