

MARRIED.
On the 23d ult. at North Bend, Ohio, by the Rev. J. T. Brooke, William H. H. Taylor, Esq. formerly of Richmond, Va. to Miss Anna T. youngest daughter of Gen. Wm. H. Harrison.

DIED.
In this Village, on Wednesday morning last, Mrs. Jane L. C. Hunt, wife of Mr. William L. Strong, merchant of the firm of T. F. & W. L. Strong, and daughter of Luther B. Hunt, Esq. of St. Albans, aged 20 years.

In this Village, on the 14th ult. GIDEON HOSKIE, Esq. aged 77. But few enjoyed such uninterrupted health as did the deceased, until the day of his death. On the morning of that day he complained of a slight indisposition, but not in any degree to alarm either himself or family. At noon this indisposition, though not having apparently increased, prevented his going as usual to the dinner-table. Immediately after dinner his daughter-in-law having prepared some food for him which was thought he could eat, found him, on entering the room, a corpse! It was evident he died without a struggle, as he laid in the same position as when she left him a few moments before having one hand in his bosom apparently asleep. Mr. H. was among the first settlers of Milton—when the solitude of the then wilderness was rarely interrupted but by the howl of the bear or the cry of the wolf. His possessions were little but the vigor of youth and a fixed purpose to withstand the hardships always attending the settlement of a new country—and he succeeded, by his industry and prudent management, in acquiring a handsome property. It is not proper here to speak of his domestic, social and public worth—but judging from what is abundantly evident, he has carried to his grave the love of his aged companions, the respect of the middle aged, and the gratitude of the young.

With the exception of one year for forty years, Mr. H. has held the offices of Justice of the Peace and of Town Clerk; and with singular fidelity he has maintained the law of the land as his rule of conduct, firmly believing that that law was only to be superseded by that of his God. In closing this brief sketch, it is not saying too much—that if Law was held as sacred by our present rulers as it was by GIDEON HOSKIE, we should see a far different state of things, and we should not be called to tremble for our Constitution and Laws.

Communicated.
New York City papers and those of Rhode Island, will please notice the above.

In Jerico, on the 20th ult. Dea. William Bond, aged 64, after a distressing illness of about three weeks, which he bore with christian patience and submission to the Divine will.

William Wells & Co. CHITTENDEN Co.
Safford Stevens. COURT, March Term, 1836.
At the August term of Chittenden county Court, A. D. 1835, William Wells of Burlington, and William W. Wells of Waterbury, late partners in trade under the firm of William Wells & Co. commenced their action on note against Safford Stevens of Burlington, demanding in damages two hundred dollars, which said action having been entered on the docket of said Court, the Plaintiff appeared by Henry Leavenworth, Esq. their attorney, and no formal notice having been made to the said Stevens, on motion of the Plaintiff the said cause was by order of Court continued to the March Term of said Court, A. D. 1836, when the Plaintiff appeared as aforesaid, and it having been shown to said Court, that the said Stevens was without this State, said cause was further continued to the Court to be holden at Burlington on last Tuesday save one of August, A. D. 1836—and further ordered that the substance of the Plaintiff's declaration be published three weeks successively in the Press, printed at Burlington, the last of which shall be thirty days before the session of said Court, which shall be deemed sufficient notice. The said Stevens is therefore hereby notified to appear and defend said suit if he see fit.
Given under my hand at Burlington, this 28th day of June A. D. 1836.

Utility.
THE public are hereby informed that the subscriber has invented certain new and useful machinery for manufacturing starch from potatoes, and has applied for a patent to secure his right to the same; and that he is making said machinery at his shop in Jerico, in the state of Vermont. The object of said machinery is more effectually to separate the small stones and gravel from the potatoes in the process of washing—and in the process of grinding, to reduce the potatoes to a more perfect pulp, by which a larger quantity of starch will be obtained than by the usual method. Starch manufacturers are invited to call and see.

TAVERN STAND
And Village Lots for Sale.
THE Tavern Stand on the west side of the river in the village of Keeseville, N. Y. lately occupied by Rodman Brown, including near two acres of land and two good dwelling houses, besides the tavern House and out houses. The above property is situated in the corner made by the great state road running north, and the Port Kent and the Hopkinton turnpike running west, and is well watered. One of the dwelling houses is now at rent for $100 a year, and the Tavern house at $300, and the other dwelling house may be rented, say, at $50 or $75. The whole square will be sold together or in separate parts. But constituting as it does an entire plat, consisting of several contiguous lots, in the most growing Village on the west side of Lake Champlain, in the vicinity of the Iron Lumbering, Flouring, and Woolen Manufactories of the Ausable River, purchasers would do best by securing the whole at once; as the proprietors can dispose of the whole on terms very advantageous to purchasers. And upon receiving $1000 down, can give a credit for the residue, of one, two, three and four years, and $1500 can remain upon interest any length of time. Their price for the whole is $5000, and purchasers will find it for their interest to examine the property and enquire of the undersigned at their office in Keeseville. The sale will be made positively before the 19th of July next, at which time the present lease of the Tavern Stand expires. Dated June 10th, 1836.
