The Tennessee Election.

The election in Tennessee, contrary to general expectation, passed off in the quietest possible manner. The result is a decided Union victory. Governor Brownlow's majority will not be far from twenty thousand. Trimble, Stokes, Arnell, Maynard, Hawkins, Mullins, Munn and Butler, all Republicans, are elected to Congress by handsome majorities. Both branches of the Legislature will be strong Union, which makes the election of Horace Maynard to the United States Senate a foregone conclusion. We give the vote of some of the principal towns for Governor: Nashville—Brownlow 5163, Etheridge 704. Murfreesboro gives Brownlow a majority of 649. Columbia gives Brownlow 1449 votes, and Etheridge 148. Tullahoma gives Brownlow ten majority. Humboldt, in Carroll county, Etheridge 64 and Brownlow 24. Brownsville, in Haywood county, gives Brownlow 764 and Etheridge 133. Gallatin gives Brownlow 309 and Etheridge 122. Many of the negroes voted the Conservative ticket. Some of the freedmen who voted the Radical ticket have been discharged by their employers. Employment will most likely be found for them by Gen. Groesbeck. The freedmen evinced great pleasure at the idea of voting, and in some instances marched in solid column to the polls. Now that the election is over, it is to be hoped that the troubles in Tennessee will cease. The election has been conducted fairly, the negroes being allowed to vote as they in their judgment thought best. They have been addressed by Conservative and Union speakers; but it is not at all strange that the great bulk of them should think it for their interest to vote the Union ticket, as they did. They evidently know who are their friends.

For the Vermont Transcript. Judge of Probate.

Enosburgh, Aug. 5th, 1867. Ma. Error:—I have been a soldier, and can appreciate their feelings when they are unjustly attacked. I am particularly grieved when I see that it is done for political purposes, as in the case of Myron W. Bailey, Esq., the present nominee for Judge of Probate in this County. While in St. Albans the other day, I heard a man of influence, electioneering against Mr. Bailey, because he said he was not competent to discharge the duties of the Office. I made further inquiries, and found that the story had its origin with some of the friends of Judge Samson. I will not say that the Judge himself, originated any thing of the kind, because I have always supposed him to be above any such imputation. I have known Mr. Bailey since boyhood, and I am proud to say that he is a man of more than ordinary talents, and is in every respect qualified and competent to discharge the duties of the office of Judge of Probate. As a lawyer, he has won a respectable position among his brethren at the bar, in all the branches of law. As a penman, he may not quite equal the present incumbent, but he is ahead of three-fourths of the Judges and Registers in the State.

Then why this tirade against him? Is it because he flew to the rescue of his Country, in the first hours of its danger, and contributed all but his life in her defence, while the present incumbent enjoyed the emoluments of office with his family at home, and contributed nothing? This is the question the people of this County are to answer in September next. I am anxiously waiting with a number of other fellow soldiers, to see how the question will be answered at the polls. I am of the number who was told that when the war was over, the scarred veterans would be remembered, but I can not believe that an intelligent people will forget an intelligent soldier so soon. If so, I will thank some one or more in each town in this County to preserve the names of those who are now opposing Mr. Bailey, (who was nominated in Convention by a large majority,) and the people will then know to what party or sect they belong. Will my fellow soldiers look to this matter.

A VETERAN.

Osgood Bradbury, formerly a resident of Burlington, Vt., is now editorially connected with Portland Press. Is it thought that Gen. Rousseau will be elected as successor of Gen. Sheridan. Absconded.—F. W. Patterson, a prominent merchant of Buffalo, absconded with the proceeds of eleven boat loads of corn, Aug. 1st, valued at about $80,000. He was arrested, and United States bonds, etc., were found in his possession amounting to nearly the full value of the amount stolen.

Commencement at Burlington.

The exercises connected with the sixty-third Commencement of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College, commenced on Sunday with the Baccalaureate Sermon by President Angell. His subject was, according to the Times, "Perfection of Individual Freedom, the Perfection of Obedience to Divine." The discourse was of great ability, and was listened to by a large audience. We cannot forbear to quote his excellent address to the graduating class:

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRADUATING CLASS, My Beloved Pupils and Friends: Most affectionately and earnestly do I urge you to show by your lives that you comprehend the true relation of Liberty to Law. May you each strive with your whole might after freedom, which is in Christ Jesus, and which the world's worst citizenship in the State and in the Kingdom of God.

Some of you have known what it is to make sacrifices for civil liberty by hard service in the battle field and by suffering in the prison pens of the South. Your Alma Mater, as she sends you forth with her maternal benediction upon your heads, gladly confesses that she has already been honored by your deeds. All of you, I am sure, are ready, if need be, to make equal sacrifices. Though happily the din of civil strife has ceased, there is still occasion for you all with pen and ink to do your part in the maintenance of Christian liberty in the individual and in the State. The first and second last condition of success in your effort, and in your life, is tempered by sadness at the thought that the world which was in our Lord and Master. I know no simpler, better, more comprehensive rule of life.

We, your instructors, must now forego the pleasure of directing your studies and labors. Henceforth, we would gladly continue our work with you longer. While it is with proud joy that we see you going forth in the fulness of manly strength to the duties of active life, our joy is tempered by sadness at the thought that you will miss your companionship in the familiar scenes of our daily life.

Do not suppose that our interest in you will cease. We shall watch you with tenderest solicitude, and shall rejoice in your successes, we shall share the burden of your sorrows. We trust that you will look fondly back to yonder halls, and regard them as your home and the home of your sincere friends. You have bravely shown that you are worthy of the name of graduates. You have added to the income of your voice by your property, which we believe reaching the highest type of Christian manhood. With this worthy aspiration go forth, my dear friends, to your various posts in life. Go with out mistaking. There is room enough for every earnest worker. No true work shall fall of its own accord. The peace-making peace-making perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

SOCIETY FOR RELIGIOUS INQUIRY.

The anniversary of the Society for Religious Inquiry took place at half past ten o'clock, Tuesday morning. The address was by Rev. M. R. Vincent, of Troy, N. Y., from the text, John VII, 20th. "That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me and I in thee, that they also may be one in us." The Free Press says the discourse was a very fine one, useful in its lessons, interesting, eloquent and able in a high degree.

PHI BETA KAPPA SOCIETY.

This Society celebrated its anniversary in the afternoon. Rev. Andrew P. Peabody, D.D., of Cambridge, Mass., delivered the address. His subject was, "Positive Philosophy." At the annual meeting held in the morning, Messrs. W. P. Smith, H. O. Wheeler and A. Phelps, of the graduating class were elected members.

CELEBRATION OF THE ALUMNI.

The annual celebration of the Alumni took place on Wednesday. Oration by Dorman B. Eaton, of N. Y., and Poem by Wm. E. Marrs, of Chicago. At the close of the public exercises the Alumni partook of a dinner at the "Lake House." We shall allude to this more particularly hereafter.

Commencement at Norwich University.

The Commencement at Norwich University occurred on Thursday of last week. The names of the graduates and the subject of their orations are as follows: The Soldier. His True Mission and Reward, Seth. H. Benson, Blackstone, Mass.; Popular Cultivation of Music, Wesley K. Walton, Auburn, Maine; The Land is Sacred which we Love, (a poem,) Myron K. Hurlbut, Grand Isle, Vt.; War not opposed to Godliness, with Valdeictory, Francis M. Gowdy, Broad Brook, Conn. A poem, sparkling with wit and vivacity, was read by the Hon. Charles Collins Vanandt, of Newport, R. I., a graduate of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., 1850; and a very able and acceptable oration was pronounced before a large audience by the Hon. S. B. Colby, Register of the U. S. Treasury, Washington, D. C. Honorary degrees were conferred as follows: LL. D. upon the Hon. J. H. Hartley, Assistant Treasurer of the United States, and Hon. Stoddard B. Colby, Register of the U. S. Treasury, Washington, D. C. A. M. upon Capt. Samuel W. Shattuck, Adjunct Professor of Military Science, Northfield, Vermont.

Concerning the laying the corner stone of the new University building we copy from Walton's Journal: At 3 o'clock P. M. a procession of the Masonic fraternity was formed, who were present by invitation to lay the corner stone of the new University building now being erected in Northfield. The site of the new edifice is about midway between Depot Village and the old Northfield Village, on a high eminence between the main street and the railroad. It is a beautiful location, so far as nature has seen fit to go, in elaborating the surroundings, and will, no doubt, when the artisans and the mechanics have finished their work, and "the shovel and the hoe" terraced its surrounding slopes and smoothed its parade, be all that could be desired for its purposes. The grounds embrace an area of twelve acres, which we understand to be a gift, highly creditable to the intelligent liberality of its donors, from the citizens of Northfield, as is also the building to be erected. To this spot the long procession wended its way, where in presence of a vast concourse of people who had preceded them, the corner stone was laid "in due and ancient form" by Most Worshipful Grand Master L. B. Englesby, of the Grand Lodge of the State of Vermont. After the conclusion of this imposing ceremony, the procession returned to the Northfield House, where they sat down to a collation bountifully provided by the De Witt Clinton Lodge of F. A. M. of Northfield, at which Past Master George Nichols, Secretary of State, presided.

Canada Items.

The St. Johns News says that the annual rifle match of the Missisquoi Volunteer Association will be held this year on the 2d of September at Bedford or Freleighsburg.

A new tri-weekly newspaper, called the Times, and understood to be in the interest of Mr. Devlin, has been started in Montreal. It is sold at one cent.

Zion Church, Montreal, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning of last week. The origin of the fire cannot be accounted for.

The son of a farmer by the name of McCarty, residing a short distance from the country, while running along opposite the market, in Verville, stepped on the end of a horse plank of the sidewalk, which led to the road to spring up and strike him severely on the stomach. A violent convulsion ensued, and although medical assistance was at once sought, the boy died in much agonizing pain.

The Governor General has made the following appointments of Justices of the Peace for the District of Bedford: A. H. Chandler, Bromes; Solomon Sweet, North Sutton; Nelson Pettis, do.; Geo. C. Dyer, Sutton; Flat, Richard Spencer, Abercorn; James East, South Sutton; Wm. A. Brown, Glen Sutton; S. John Blanchard, Vtton; Robert Manson, Vtton.

A dreadful accident occurred at Bowmansville, on the 30th ult. We give the telegraphic report:

John Smart, sr., Esq., of Fort. Darlington, an old resident, widely known and universally respected, was, with his granddaughter, aged daughter of George Smart, Esq., of Lindsay, killed on the Grand Trunk Railroad today. They had just left the family residence in a covered carriage, and when crossing the track a little north of the house, the carriage was struck by the locomotive on a freight train going west. Mr. S. was hurled into the air, and his body mangled. The train passed over Miss Smart, mauling her in a frightful manner. While the carriage, with its contents, was destroyed, the horse was unhurt.

A Canadian exchange says: Mr. A. O. Pritchard, Agent of the Grand Trunk Railway Company at Crompton, has been arrested and brought before the Magistrate at Sherbrooke, charged with embezzling various sums of money which he has collected on behalf of the Company, and not accounted for. He has been remanded, after the evidence of the payment of the monies to him, and his omission to enter them up or pay them if it had been taken.

The Clarenceville Company of the Richelieu Light Infantry battalion was inspected by Lieut.-Col. Fletcher, on Thursday of last week. The Company mustered forty-one strong, and evinced much proficiency in drill.

The Circus of Messrs. George W. DeHaven & Co. exhibits at St. Johns today (Thursday).

Personal.

Capt. Horace K. Ide, of the Vermont Cavalry, has recently been appointed Major of the U. S. volunteers, by brevet, for gallant and meritorious services in the field, the appointment to date from March 15, 1865.

Hon. Frederick E. Woodbridge has recommended Charles A. Booth, a son of C. A. Booth, Esq., of Vergennes, to the Secretary of War, for the appointment of cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Hon. Charles I. Walker, formerly of Brattleboro, has been appointed by the Governor of Michigan, Judge for the First Judicial Circuit of that State, in place of Judge Mitterler, deceased.

John G. Saxe has returned from Europe.

Victor Hugo writes from his exile, respecting the proposed medal to John Brown's widow: "My name belongs to all who would make use of it to serve progress and truth. A medal to Lincoln calls for a medal to John Brown. Let us cancel that debt pending such time that America shall cancel hers. America owes John Brown a statue as tall as that of Washington. Washington 'founded' America, John Brown diffused liberty."

James H. Platt, formerly of Burlington, now of Petersburg, Va., commanded the volunteer force at the late Virginia Republican State Convention.

W. H. S. Whitecomb, for some time past Teller of the Commercial Bank, Burlington, has accepted the position of Teller of the First National Bank, of that place. Samuel A. Drew, of Fairhaven, succeeds Mr. Whitecomb, as Teller of the Commercial.

Hon. Abel Underwood, of Newbury, Ex-Judge of Supreme Court, has been appointed Register in Bankruptcy for the Second Congressional District, and John P. Sartie, Esq., of Barton, for the Third Congressional District.

NEW FEATURE OF TRAVEL.—Passengers from Boston to Saratoga, over the Fitchburg, Rutland and Saratoga line, are furnished with a dinner, free, at the Bardwell House in Rutland, with ample time to eat it.

PUT OFF THE CARS.—Jeremiah S. Morrill, Esq., a gentleman past sixty years of age, was put off the passenger train at Alburgh Springs, week before last, under the following circumstances: On the 20th day of June Mr. Morrill purchased a ticket in New York for Ogdensburgh, N. Y., with coupons attached for each road. After leaving the depot at St. Albans, the conductor asked for his ticket and tore off the coupon which entitled him to a ride over the Vt. & Canada R. R. Mr. M. said he did not wish to have that done as he expected to stop over at Swanton, and wished to hold his ticket. The conductor then said he would give him a ticket which would be as well for him. He therefore gave him a ticket upon which was printed, good for six days only, which Mr. M. did not notice when given to him, and there was no date on the ticket.—When he got upon the train he exhibited this ticket in payment of his passage. The conductor said he had had instructions not to take such tickets, and unless he paid his fare he should be obliged to put him off the train. Mr. M. refusing, when the train reached the station, five men approached him, and by force, ejected him from the train. Our informant says that the question will probably be settled by the courts.

A NEW SPRING.—St. Albans boasts of a Spring which seems to be in all respects, at least equal to those in the neighboring towns of Swanton, Highgate and Sheldon. It is located on what is called the "Western Reserve," on land owned and occupied by Mr. John Ryan. The water is soft, and extremely pure and clear. It has a slight sulphuric taste and smell, and in this respect is somewhat like the "Franklin Spring" at Highgate. The Spring is daily visited by a large number of people who are testing its medicinal virtues. Those who have used it to a considerable extent, do not hesitate to say that it possesses curative properties, and in time cannot fail to be widely sought for by invalids. The water is soon to be analyzed, when the public will be made acquainted with its ingredients. The location of the Spring is very convenient and easily accessible, it only requiring a few minutes walk from the business portion of the town to reach it. Mr. Ryan we commend all who come for the water, and will play no Bainbridge Smith on those who may wish to take away a gallon or two to their homes.

ITALIAN OPERA.—It will be seen on referring to our advertising columns, that the citizens of St. Albans and vicinity are to be treated to a great musical novelty on Saturday evening. Max Strakoski has, at great expense, secured the services of the most distinguished artists of the Italian Opera, New York Academy of Music, who will appear in Donizetti's Comic Opera, Don Pasquale, which has given the greatest satisfaction wherever rendered. Ronconi, the principal tenor of the company, made a great reputation at the European Musical Centers, at Paris, London, St. Petersburg, &c., before he left for the United States. He is probably the best buffo singer in the world. The other artists have also excellent reputations as singers.

This is the second operatic troupe that has ever visited St. Albans, and is much superior to the first. We doubt not that Academy Hall will be well filled on Saturday evening, for a richer musical treat has never been offered our citizens. Reserved seats for the opera may be had at the jewelry store of Mr. A. H. Munyan.

Kentucky Election. THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET CHOSEN BY 45,000 TO 60,000.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 5. The State election in Louisville and throughout the State, as far as heard from, passed off quietly. The result has been another Democratic triumph by a majority variously estimated at from 45,000 to 60,000.

It is believed that the Democrats have elected seven-eighths of the Legislature. In this city the Radicals and third party made a very poor run. Helm, the Democratic candidate for Governor, beating both of his opponents by about 3300 majority.

THE CONVENTION at Annapolis, Thursday, finally adopted the declaration of rights, one of the most remarkable features of which is the section declaring that "slavery shall not be established in Maryland," and demanding compensation from the United States for its abolition. The vote on its adoption was seventy-two yeas and seventeen nays.

RETIRES TO RESIDE.—President Johnson has written Secretary Stanton a formal letter asking him to resign. Mr. Stanton refuses to comply with the President's request. The rumor now is that Mr. Stanton will be suspended.

THE "ADERONDAK."—This new steamer made a successful trial trip on Thursday of last week; and commenced her regular trips on Monday. She is very elegantly fitted up, the furniture alone costing $35,000. The entire cost of the steamer is $250,000. The "Adirondack" is officered as follows: Captain—William H. Flagg; Pilots—Geo. Ruslow, Abijah Holt, Moses Knowlton; Engineer—John Vishier; Assistant Engineers—John Bissette, Antoine Robesst; Clerk—Mr. Rossiter, Rouses Point; Steward—Henry Cardner; Barkeeper—Michael Madigan.

VERMONT COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—This Institution which was opened here last year under the direction of Chas. A. J. Marsh & Co., proved very successful, and we think that our business men and citizens generally were highly pleased with the course of instruction pursued, and with the improvement made by the students.

The fact that every man in this country expects sometime to do business for himself, and that we have no other schools which pretend to give the specific instruction necessary, makes it very important that every one should improve the opportunity, which is here offered to acquire the needed information.

Let every young gentleman and lady who propose to attend school somewhere during the fall and winter, consider whether the course here offered is not more desirable than any other which they can pursue.

Widows who have been getting a pension of half the monthly pay of their husbands, under the laws passed prior to the act of July 25, 1865, are not entitled to an increase to $8 per month under that act.

THE QUEEN OF SPAIN is said to be writing a work on the Happiness of Nations.

The number of floating strangers in Paris has been averaged this season at 600,000.

English ladies are adopting the fashion of wearing belts with a small dagger attached.

The N. Y. Times says that "every American is entitled, as his birthright, to life, liberty and the pursuit of a plan of reconstruction."

The Pope, it is said, has invited all the Roman Catholic sovereigns to visit him at Rome. His Holiness seems quite confident he will be "at home" to receive them.

The proprietors of the London Times presented each of the members of their numerous staff with a fortnight's salary to defray the expense of a trip to Paris.

Brigham Young declares that Elders Pratt and Hyde are unbelievers, and in possession of the devil. In which case the devil has the pity of all good men.

A correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin states that near Monterey there are frogs weighing twenty-five pounds, and their croaking can be heard six miles. The same voracious authority avers that they are used in place of fog bells, and cost nothing to keep in repair.

Lewis Dutton, formerly a conductor on the Passumpsic railroad, having become insane, was some days since taken to the insane asylum, at Brattleboro. He had resided for some years at Chicago, but recently came back and established a line of stages between Littleton and the mountains, and competition arising, he became excited, and aberration of mind ensued.

FIFTH NATIONAL HOUSE SHOW AT SPRINGFIELD.—The Board of Managers of the fifth national exhibition of horses to be held at Springfield the last week in August have decided to offer extra grand premiums for stallions, the first to be $500 and the second $200, with a special view to speed, in the trial of which at least three horses must start. Stallions entered in any other class will also be permitted to enter this. In the grand premium race for single horses, the prizes being $1,000 and $200, all horses that have made quicker time than 2:24 will go to wagon; and in the grand premium race for double teams, (prizes $500 and $200) each of the teams entered must be made up of horses that have been owned and driven together as gentlemen's driving horses. It will not be sufficient that they have the same owner, if they have not been considered as mates and so driven.—All grand premium races are to be governed strictly by the rules of the Fashion Course. A large number of entries of fine horses has already been made.

The N. Y. Times says that "every American is entitled, as his birthright, to life, liberty and the pursuit of a plan of reconstruction."

The Pope, it is said, has invited all the Roman Catholic sovereigns to visit him at Rome. His Holiness seems quite confident he will be "at home" to receive them.

The proprietors of the London Times presented each of the members of their numerous staff with a fortnight's salary to defray the expense of a trip to Paris.

Brigham Young declares that Elders Pratt and Hyde are unbelievers, and in possession of the devil. In which case the devil has the pity of all good men.

A correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin states that near Monterey there are frogs weighing twenty-five pounds, and their croaking can be heard six miles. The same voracious authority avers that they are used in place of fog bells, and cost nothing to keep in repair.

Lewis Dutton, formerly a conductor on the Passumpsic railroad, having become insane, was some days since taken to the insane asylum, at Brattleboro. He had resided for some years at Chicago, but
