A Dangerous Gift

Beauty is a dangerous gift. It is even so. Like wealth, it has ruined thousands. Thousands of the most beautiful women are destitute of common humanity.

No gift from heaven is so general as the gift of beauty. In about nine cases in ten it makes her silly, senseless, thoughtless, giddy, vain, proud, frivolous, selfish, low and mean.

We think we have seen more girls spoiled by beauty than by any other one thing. "She is beautiful and she knows it," is as much as to say she is spoiled.

A beautiful girl is very likely to believe she was made to be looked at; so she sets herself up for a show at every window, in every door, on every corner of the street, in every company at which opportunity offers for an exhibit herself. And believing and acting thus she soon becomes good for nothing else, and when she becomes to be a middle aged woman she is the weakest, most sickening of all human things—a faded beauty.

POI IN HAWAII.

This Peculiar Food Is to the Native as Bread Is to Us.

What bread is to the American or European poi is to the native Hawaiian. No meal is complete without it, and for the great majority of the natives it forms the principal article of diet. While they probably could at the present time live without this accustomed dish, the time once was, before the advent of the whites to the islands and the introduction of new foods, that life without it would at least have been precarious.

Poi is made from the tuberous root of the taro plant, a species of the caladium family, of which the well known elephant ear plant is also a member. The tuber, which averages in size that of a large sweet potato, is baked and afterward pounded up with water until a smooth white paste is obtained, much resembling a wheat flour paste, except that the color is a pale pink or purple, dependent upon the variety of taro used. This paste is allowed to slightly ferment, or sour, when it is ready for use. In olden times each family prepared its own poi, the work being done by the men, as in fact were most other cooking operations. At the present time poi factories in which machinery grinds the taro and mixes it on a large scale have largely supplanted the old hand method. The Chinese of the territory have come to be the leading manufacturers of the product.

Many of the white residents of the islands eat poi to almost the extent as the natives, but the taste is largely acquired, and strangers seldom care for it. Poi has a high food value, and, since it formed the principal article of diet of the old Hawaiians, some persons have credited it with the splendid physical development of the race.

Poi was always eaten from wooden bowls, or calabashes, and was conveyed to the mouth by the fingers, one, two or three being employed, according to the consistency of the food, which also establishes a designation of one, two or three finger poi. White poi eaters now usually employ a fork or spoon in lieu of fingers, although it is still common even in the highest families to give native dinners, or luaus, at which knives and forks are tabooed and fingers only used. There is as much etiquette among the Hawaiians in eating with the fingers as with modern table implements, and the graceful motion by which a portion of poi is twisted upon the fingers and transferred to the mouth would not shock the sensibilities of the most refined. An invitation to a real luau, at which poi, baked pig, fish baked in leaves and cocoanut in various forms form the principal part of the menu, is something that is always looked forward to by every visitor to Hawaii and always pleasantly remembered afterward.

"Are all your boys making money?" "No, only three. Two were shot by the baron while he was hunting, and one was run over by an automobile. They all received pensions, but my other boy is good for nothing."—Fleunde Blatter.

How Consumption Can Be Cured.

Authorities of every kind have finally agreed that the outdoor treatment is the only reliable treatment for the Great White Plague, Impure, confined air interferes with the functional processes of the lungs. The carbonic acid gas is not properly replaced by oxygen, the great life giver, which cannot be absorbed in proper quantities. In endeavoring to cultivate the habit of living out of doors, it may be difficult at first to maintain warmth. One will not be benefited when seriously suffering from cold. The body should be kept warm and comfortable, but this does not mean that one should indulge in coddling. One should slowly but surely inure the body to what might ordinarily be regarded as exposure.

When taking the out-door treatment do not forget the necessity of securing all the oxygen you can through the aid of deep-breathing exercises. If you expend the chest on each occasion as much as you can without pain or discomfort, there is no possible chance of your being harmed. The expansion of the lungs should always begin in the abdominal region and gradually extend up to the chest. When a breath is taken in this manner, the air is carried down to the lowest parts of the lungs and gradually, as the breast fills and expands thereafter, all other parts of the lungs are expended and strengthened.—From June Physical Culture.

Cure Your Kidneys.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Jasper Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease set in. Read this Jasper testimony:

Miss Helen Steinhauser, Clay St., Jasper, Ind., says: "I suffered from a depressing backache, frequent headaches, spells of dizziness and an irregularity in the passage of the kidney secretions. I did not rest well owing to these difficulties and I felt most tired and most of the time. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and they were recommended so high that I procured a box at Flick & Plau's drug store. The result of their use was satisfactory as I obtained relief at once. I am now quite free from kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Favorite at Court.

At the reception today his majesty honored me by graciously singling me out to speak to me in person! His majesty tapped me on the cheek and said, "Are you here, too, you old numskull?" You can imagine, Adelheid how envious all the others were! Simplicissimus (Munich).

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of this difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N.
