What Ralph wrote to Bill

BILL is a good substantial citizen who, like many of us, had, up to a short time ago, never saved his money systematically.

He never really thought seriously of investing in bonds until he was married a few years ago. Being inexperienced in financial matters, he wrote several letters to Ralph, an attorney friend of his, who answered all his questions in a very simple and clear manner.

We have just published a booklet called "An Investor's Letters" which contains all of Ralph's and Bill's correspondence. You will find it very interesting and it may clear up some of the questions you have in your own mind about investment matters.

We shall be glad to send "An Investor's Letters" free of charge or obligation to anyone who requests it.
