llow Beautiful for a Child's Grave! DAGUARREOTYPE PICTURES ATTACHED TO Head Stones and Monuments in a Parlian Marrier Case, and warrented to secure the Likeness from any air and dampness for a long number of years. Any Daguerreotypist can copy the Daguerreotype into these Cases from the original picture, and it is but a few moments work to attach one of them to a Head Stone. When attached to a Head Stone or Monument, they look as though they were carved on with the Sculptor's Chisel, for they imitate marble so perfectly. They are very ornamental to a Head Stone, and are worth twice the amount charged, for an ornament.— More than Fifteen Thousand Cases have been seld, this fact alone shows conclusively that they are fast It this fact alone shows conclusively that they are fact running into general use.

The adorning of the Sepulchers of removed ones alleviates our grief, and soothes the wounded heart. It also cheers the bereaved to know that an additional embellishment of the grave presents stronger attractions to arrest the attention of the stranger, and causes him to pause and learn the name, and gaze on the liteners of one who has shared so largely in the love of others. To a refined and cuttivated mind, there is not a more mournful spectacle on earth than a desecrated grave, or neglected and over-grown graveyard, Those in whose memories the departed live, will come to strew sweet flowers upon their graves, and drop a
