LOCAL.

Several items crowded out again.
Lookout for the eclipse between one and two P. M. to-morrow.

The new jewelry store at F. W. Blake's is set forth among our new ads, which see.

Services at St. Andrews Church next Sunday at half past ten A. M. by Father A. Z. Poulin.

The Ida Elmore Company was incorporated in San Francisco August 3d. No particulars in the dispatch.

Religious Notice.—Rev. C. D. B. Miller, of the Episcopal church, will preach at Hill's Hall at 10-30, A. M., and 7-30, P. M., next Sunday, August 8th. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

O. S. Hazard, Esq. one of the pioneer merchants of Silver, after an absence of many months in the East, arrived via Winnemucca yesterday. We have not met him but hear he is in excellent health and fine spirits.

Smash-up.—As J. M. Hays and T. S. Billings were taking a buggy ride on Wednesday afternoon, with a spirited nag, they ran one wheel up on a bank near the Allison mine, dumping out the cargo and turning the buggy wrong side up. In this condition the animal became furious with fright and made sad work with the vehicle for a time, but finally came to a halt and was captured. Nobody hurt but the buggy body.

Married and given in marriage is becoming almost an epidemic in Silver City. A week ago we published a rumor of the approach of the nuptial season, and on Tuesday gave an earnest of the truth of the report by publishing the introductory or opening chorus. To day we add three more to the list and are prepared at any moment to hear of and record others. "By St. Paul, the work goes bravely on." "Lay on, McDuff and d—d be him (or her) who first cries hold, enough."

Bids were opened as announced on Tuesday at two P. M. by County Treasurer, A. H. Webb, for the redemption of county warrants on the county general and 45 per cent funds. Oral bids were also received as provided by law with the following aggregate result: Amount of money disbursed, $1,146 91; amount of warrants redeemed, $3,285 05. The highest bid accepted was 44 cents and the lowest 20 cents; average price paid 34 cents on the dollar, which may be set down as the value of new scrip in the estimation of holders.

Dr. D. S. Baker, of Walla Walla, and Mr. Lewis, of Portland, remained over one trip on their way to Nevada and California, and left day before yesterday. Dr. Baker goes first to Elko to dispose of a drove of cattle, now on their way thither. Mr. Lewis goes to San Francisco. These gentlemen are leading spirits in financial and mercantile circles of Oregon and Washington, whose presence in Owyhee we are pleased to notice. Representative men to come and see the country is what Owyhee most needs, whether they represent trade, capital or mining skill.

From Cope.—J. F. Dye returned from Cope District on Tuesday, having given the camp a thorough examination, and reports very favorably both as to quartz and placers. He was there at the time of the discovery of the placers by C. T. Russell and secured a claim, which, though water cannot be had at present, he thinks will pay fair wages in the spring. The Argenta he regards as the best quartz lode he ever saw, so far as can be judged from the small amount of work that has been done. The California, Pioneer and others he thinks will prove valuable.

Geo. P. Brewster arrived yesterday with similar tidings. He brings specimens from the Crescent, owned by Cage, Rinehart, Ewing and others, showing sheet silver in considerable quantities.

Those books for which P. C. Gibbons is agent, of which we gave a list a week ago, are still in town. Mr. Gibbons will call on most of the citizens, and in the meantime parties wishing any book in the list can have their orders filled by leaving them at the WAVE or Avalanche office for a few days. The catalogue, for which we have not room this morning comprises among nearly all the new books of the year Dr. Howard's Family Medical Work, three volumes in one; all the new books on the war, on both sides, as well as family Bibles with photograph albums; Bancroft's Law and Form Book, new edition; new maps, pictures, etc., etc. A very fine collection of these new works now in town and will be delivered at once. Mr. Gibbons is sole agent for this Territory for all these new publications and they cannot be obtained from others.

DASTARDLY CONDUCT.—An inhuman wretch by the name of Shubert, crossing the plains from one of the Western States to Walla Walla, with a wife and two step-daughters, the oldest aged about 17 years, fell out with his family last week near the mouth of Sinker creek, took the wagon and team, with all their effects, and drove off, leaving the woman and two girls on the sage plain entirely destitute. C. H. Johnson, of the Sinker mill, and John Catalano went to their relief with a team and provisions and brought them to Mr. Johnson's house, where they still remain. A subscription paper was circulated in town day before yesterday, and sufficient money collected to relieve their immediate wants. They will be brought in to town where a house has been provided for their accommodation. Such conduct as that of Shubert deserves severest punishment. We hope our cotemporaries in Oregon and Washington will let the people know what manner of man this Shubert is, and hold him up to the execration of all good people. We have not learned his first name but will do so and publish it hereafter. Mrs. S. is represented to be quite an intelligent lady, as are also her daughters. We trust this community will meet them in a proper spirit by encouraging them and giving them something to do by which they can earn a comfortable livelihood.

School Examination.—On Wednesday afternoon, by invitation of the teacher, O. H. Rudy, Esq., we attended the examination of the District School at the close of the quarter, and were very well pleased with the aptness and facility with which the girls and boys answered questions in geography, arithmetic and grammar, as well as the clearness and distinctness with which they read selections from their reading books. Two or three of the larger pupils manifested a good degree of educational talent in having acquired correct accent, round intonation and pleasing modulation of voice.

The singing exercises were an interesting feature, and reflected credit on teacher and pupils.
The illustrations on the blackboard of geographical and arithmetical problems were very well and correctly executed.
Taken altogether, we regard the examination as a success. It is true, some embarrassment, consequent on the presence of so many older persons, was visible, and occasionally a young rogue would perpetrate a joke when the master's back was turned, but it is boyish to do so, and boys will be boys.
It is a long time ago, but we have a distinct recollection of once having been a school-boy myself, and of doing some naughty tricks during school hours, for which we deserved, and had we been found out, would have received a good switching with a beech sprout.
The girls, though they looked the very picture of mischief, restrained themselves and behaved very prettily.
The only occurrence that tended to mar the exercises and detract from their interest was the presence of a band of squealing hogs in close proximity to the building, that kept up such a noise as to render some of the recitations inaudible.

We gather from the Chronicle of the 4th that General Cartee's commission as Superintendent of the Government Assay Office has arrived. A Miss Field is giving dramatic entertainments in Boise and will visit Silver soon. A little son of W. H. Case was drowned in the Payette July 24th. Fred Castleman, the horse tamer is giving free exhibitions in Boise.

In the Statesman of the day before we observe the departure of U. S. Marshal Moulton East for his family. Also a letter from Indian Agent Powell at Fort Hall not very complimentary to certain citizens of Boise City on the question of female Indians, inducing them to leave the reservation, etc.

O. R. KIRKPATRICK, who followed the horse thief to Elko, found his man recovered the horse, together with Presby's saddle, at that place, where he was detained some time awaiting a requisition to bring the thief back to Idaho. Finally getting it he started back with his prisoner, and at Winnemucca had the misfortune to let him escape. We have not heard by what means nor can we learn the name or description of the rascal.

GRASSHOPPERS are eating up Boise valley, body and breeches, according to the papers.

THE Idaho World has "reliable information" that Reynolds boasts of having evidence to show dishonest acts in Wisconsin on the part of our Chief Justice, etc. The Capital Chronicle (Democratic) indulges in the following just and liberal reflections, quite at variance with the usual conduct of Democratic papers, for which it deserves credit: "We cannot see that there is anything to be gained by the publication of innuendoes like the above against one occupying the honorable position of Chief Justice. If the editor of the World cannot hold his own in his controversy with Reynolds, we and all good Democrats will render all possible aid, provided we can do so without dragging the ermine, which we are pleased thus far to say has been unsoiled, into the controversy. The people do not believe that any good will result to our interests by the Judges' taking part in our political controversies. So say we, The Chief Justice will sustain no injury, neither can our party secure any more votes by thus forcing outsiders into this personal and may-be personalities."

Married.

In Silver City, Aug. 3d, 1869, by W. R. McDaniel, J. P., Wm. Gabriel to Miss Katharina Speck.

At the residence of E. Mills, in Silver City, I. T., Aug. 4th, 1869, by W. R. McDaniel, J. P., David C. Pickett to Miss Elizabeth Hilbrand.

With the latter notice came cake and wine, for which we return thanks to the fair bride and gallant groom. No more will the intrepid hunter follow the chase or camp on the ruddy man's track. He has fought his last battle and made his last scout. His motto now is "Let us have peace," since
"So broke, as native of the skies,
The heart-enthraller on his eyes;
So saw he, like a Morn of May,
The Playmate given to glad his way;
With eyes that more than lips bespoke,
Eyes whence, sweet words, I love thee, broke."

After the ceremony, which took place at 7 o'clock, P. M., the newly married pair with the bridal party repaired to Hill's Hall and attended the Good Templar's ball.

In San Francisco, July 29th, 1869, John H. Cassidy, of Silver City, I. T., to Miss M. A. Reticker, of San Francisco.

We acknowledge the receipt of cards confirming the fact above stated and join a host of friends in wishing them long life and a bountiful measure of wedded happiness.
