SOCIAL AND GENERAL.

BY MARGARET DILLINGHAM.

A Valentine.

Cupid and my Campaspe play'd At cards for kisses. Cupid paid.
He stakes his quiver, bow and arrows, His mother's doves and team of sparrows; Loses them, too; then down he throws The coral of his lips—the rose—Growing on his cheek (but none knows how)
With these the crystal on his brow,
And then the dimple of his chin;
And there did my Campaspe win At last he set her both his eyes, She won, and Cupid blind did rise.
Love, hath she done this to thee?
What shall, alas! become of me!
—Lyly.

LOCALS

Did you get that comic Valentine we sent you?
Miss Lucy North spent the week end at the fireside of her Yazoo City loved ones.
Miss Thelma Latimer, the fair young hostess of Allison's Wells, is guest of her aunt, Mrs. Paul Murphy.
Miss Willie Cameron will resume her ambitious studies at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music with the Spring session.
Mrs. Olivia Bertron will leave at an early date to spend the Spring months with Mr. and Mrs. George Pease in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson have renounced the rigors of the Canadian winter and are in cosy apartments in Chicago.
Harry McCain has joined the bevy of bright and busy buyers in the East of the Spring stocks of the useful and beautiful.

Mrs. Will Pickens has a class in basquetry, a beautiful art she has perfected in her usual talented and perfect way.

Friday evening Miss Annalee Herbert will extend hospitality to the Nightingales, being club hostess of that date.

Mrs. Zuella Pickens is enjoying the charming climate in the familiar pathways of San Antonio, where old winter is forgotten.

Miss Lucy North left Thursday for the Eastern markets to employ her taste and talents in the selection of Spring modes.

Mrs. L. D. Pepper is at home again after roseate hours at the fireside of her children, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pepper, of Alabama.

Mrs. M. E. Elliott, of Itta Bena, is guest of kindred in the old home. She is with Mrs. J. C. Pickens the first days of her visit.

All the music lovers visiting Memphis to hear Melba and Burke returned charmed with the matchless melody of these victorious voices.

Mrs. J. B. Hutton and younger children are here from Jackson, paying a rare visit to the old home and are guests of Mrs. Rosa Gwin in West End.

Mrs. J. J. Baker and Mrs. A. E.
Swinney are in Memphis for the week in the interest of Mrs. Baker's health, which has not been very robust of late.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Herbert will leave Montgomery at an early date to attend Mardi Gras in New Orleans, and from there will visit the old home pathways.

Miss Blanche Pepper enjoyed the festive dates in Greenwood the past week, guest of relatives during the mid-winter holidays of the I. L. & C.
Columbus.

Mr. W. H. Darnel, Jr., of Richmond, Mo., is guest of Mr. I. B. Pickens for some delightful dates of golden hospitality in the Sunny South. Mr.
Darnel was honoree of a Stag dinner

Lemly these bright and busy workers scored a golden success last year and made a banner contribution on self denial plans.

The Juvenile Missionary Society will claim Mr. Rosa Gwin's handsome roof tree for a St. Valentine celebration Friday evening.

Miss Mae Pepper after enjoying the hospitalities of kindred at Greenwood and friends at different points, is at home for a brief stay before going East for the busy season.

Mr. Sam Bertron's dreams have come true and he is now established in the Sunny South. He arrived this week in New Orleans and has a prominent position with The Consumer's Light & Power Co.

Miss Fannie McCain enjoyed the Melba-Burke concert in Memphis as only a great music lover can. She also had the additional pleasure of the chaperonage of her aunt, Mrs. W. L.
Stigler, of Yazoo City.

Miss Loula Beall is enjoying a visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cole in the Queen Delta City this week. She will be honor guest of an afternoon party with Mrs. Robert Dunn as hostess, among other delightful dates.

Mrs. H. C. Williamson, of Memphis, was guest of her niece, Mrs. W. M.
Meek enroute home Monday. Mrs.
Williamson was called to the old home in Black Hawk by bereavement in her kindred's home, the Attneave family, last week.

Miss Russell Henderson was hostess of an afternoon tea a late date when she extended the charm of distinctive hospitality to a number of her girl friends. Dainty needlework discussion and conversation speeded the magnetic moments and tempting refreshments were enjoyed.

The Dorcas Club.

The week's meeting of these bright and busy workers was held Monday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Gwin. Mrs.
Guy Gillespie was the guest of honor of the delightful date. The suite of rooms of the gracious hostess were sparkling with the warmth and cheer of glowing hearthstones. A dainty menu of refreshments was enjoyed in the social hour following the program.

The lesson was the beautiful one of Ruth and Boaz with Miss Elizabeth Rayner in the role of ideal leader.
Mrs. R. W. Gullledge made the report on the sewing bags for the Sailors' Bethel of the Crescent City. These receptacles contain the necessary details to keep in order the wardrobes of our boys on the deep blue seas. This work was planned years ago by the lamented Mrs. Maggie Johnson Simmons during her beautiful and useful life, and lately was presented by Mrs.
Proudfit before her departure for her new home in Memphis. Mrs. James Shaw Gwin is next hostess of the society on February 23rd.

HOSPITALITIES.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. H. Mc-Bee will be hostess of the Duplicate Whist Club meeting.

Mrs. H. H. Elmore will be hostess of a St. Valentine party Saturday afternoon in Rose Villa, the handsome colonial home of Dr. and Mrs. Banks Shepherd.

Miss Annalee Herbert is hostess of the Auction Club meeting Friday. Mrs.
Ethel Keirn Jones has been elected to fill the vacancy in the Club at the beginning of the Easter tournament.

The beaux of the town will give a Valentine Hop on Thursday evening when many out of town guests are expected to help speed the magnetic moments. The local band will furnish the inspiring strains for the light fantastic.

Mrs. James Reid's ever charming hospitality was enjoyed by her Auction Club Friday afternoon. The cold wave was retarded until the warmth of welcome ended in reluctant adieux. In the seats of the absent were Miss Julia Watson, Mrs. J. G. Herbert, Miss Julia Beall, Miss Emma Beall and Miss Maude Dyer. The latter's skill won the high score and the accompanying given by his host Sunday as a birthday celebration. The belles are vainly endeavoring to obtain correct data concerning the number of candles on the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stigler are in Memphis this week in the interest of Mrs. Stigler's health. Miss Belle Stig-ler is home maker during Mrs. Stig-ler's absence.

Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Shepherd and Miss Bell Stigler had the pleasure of being guests of Judge and Mrs. Sydney Smith in the capital city for the Baptist Jubilate.

Miss Anna McBee has garnered the sweets of many happy hours with her relatives and friends in Starkville, and is reluctant to leave this enchanted circle of pleasure.

Miss Montgomery, of Yazoo City, and Miss Bell, of Winona, are the fair out of town visitors guests of Miss Julia Beall and Miss Hooker for the week's festivities.

Collie Gibson has left to resume his work in the Lone Star State and will continue to make his home with his uncle. We wish him much success in the new pathways.

Mrs. Nolan Stewart, of Jackson, is the expected guest this week in the old Ebenezer home, and will continue her visit to the rooftrees of Mrs. W.
O. Barrett and Mrs. E. F. Noel.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church begins a week of prayer on the 15th. Under the leadership and enthusiasm of Mrs. T. M.

Dr. Henderson will deliver his discourse on the above topic at the Methodist church Sunday night, this being the third sermon in the special series of Sunday evening discourses the pastor is delivering during the month of February. Special music. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Choral Club.

With Mrs. D. W. Beall as hostess the Choral Club held one of its interesting meetings Tuesday evening. Mrs.
Meek presided and Miss Eggleston acted as secretary.

After the roll was called and the minutes were read the reports from the different committees were made and the spring work was discussed.

The club hopes to have a number of new associate members to take part in the May Festival, thus helping to make this one of the best Festivals that has been given.

The new choruses which the music committee has selected are most musical and attractive and will not be very difficult to learn. Mr. Sanderson will act as director, and with so much enthusiasm and interest as is apparent in the club's work success is almost assured.

After diligent practice work on some of the new choruses the hostess served a delicious lunch after which the club adjourned to hold its next meeting with Mrs. L. D. Pepper on Tuesday evening, February 17, 1914.

All regular and associate members are urged to be present at this meeting and if impossible to attend please notify the hostess. REPORTER.

D. A. B. Notes.

B. G. Humphreys Chapter, D. A. B., held one of its most enjoyable meetings on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs.
J. E. Page as hostess.

The day preceding, white winged messengers had bidden each member to grace the occasion with their presence, and each recipient, with few exceptions, had responded by coming.

Mrs. Wilson, regent, presided and called the members together in ties of mutual friendship and sympathy by opening the chapter with prayer in concert. After which the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Noel, and approved.

The names of the state officers were presented and having been endorsed by the different chapters of the state, all will be ratified at the coming conference to be held in Greenwood on March: Mrs. E. F. Noel, Lexington, Vice

The historical hour of the afternoon was spent in a review of the British cabinet at the beginning of the war of the revolution by Miss Lindholm, and a most excellent article on Edmund Burke, the subject allotted to Miss Hoskins, but in her absence, read by Card of Thanks.

To our many friends: We take this method of thanking you many friends for the kindness shown and the assistance rendered us during the illness and after the death of my husband. Though we had to keep him after death for a week my friends did not fail me. With the very best wishes for you all, we
